Vienna, 19.—The Pope has written to Catholic and United Greek bishops in Russia, instructing them to order requiem mass celebrations in churches of their dioceses for the late Czar, and requesting them to issue pastorals requiring loyalty to the new Czar. The Pope at the same time announces that the freedom of the Catholic Church in Russia, agreed upon by the late Emperor, will be maintained by his successor.

LONDON, 19.—The Pall Mall Gazette, in a leading article, says: All news from the east is ominous of war. Crete is the maximum which the Turks offer to cede. The cession of Crete and Thessaly is the minimum which the powers will accept. Unless means can be found to bring the minimum near the maximum the Greeks will cross the frontier and war will begin, which may not close until it has spread far beyond the limits of the Ottoman empire.

Constantinople, 19.—It is believed to-day's meeting of the ambassadors and Ottoman delegates has been an important one. The delegates were furnished with detailed instructions regarding the territory the Porte is willing to cede to Greece.

CHICAGO, 21.—The Socialists at the regular Sunday night meeting last night, passed resolutions approving of the killing of the Czar, who they said was a boulder in the pathway of human progress, and had to be blown out of the way. They also criticized severely Sec'y. Blaine's action in sending a message of sympathy to the Russian government.

The tug boat O. B. Green, which has been making daily trips to the Crib, did not return last night, and to-day she was sighted ice-bound four miles from shore. In the afternoon a man in a boat was dispatched with provisions for the seven men on the tug boat, but before reaching her, the boat and tug were lost sight of. It is feared that the man in the small boat has been lost and possibly the tug and her crew.

NEW YORK, 21.—Henry Ward Beecher announced yesterday, says Times that a revival meeting each afternoon and evening during the week would be continued, but the evening service would be prayer instead of preaching. "I desire to give notice," he continued, "I can't attend to secular business at the close of these week day services, and I might as well say, right here, I have sold my interest in the navy yard premises, in the New York custom house, in the New York, and Brooklyn postoffices, in the Treasury department, in the postoffice department, and almost every department at Washington, and a letter from me to either of those places will be of no use whatever. Applicants will please take notice of these transfers of property." During the sermon Beecher said liberal and national preaching were pleating ruffles, were fixing ruffled shirts and putting cologne on men who were rotten within. "If there is one thing I consider thoroughly indecent," continued Beecher, "it is the way in which criminals are cosseted and carried out of life. When a murderer is to be hanged women send flowers to him and would kiss an ulcer for his sake, priests run to him and philanthropists hurry after them. He is going to die. Are not 10,000 persons dying all around and there is nobody to ruin to them. There is no sympathy for them, but if a monster is to die for foul murder the flood gates of sympathy are opened and the newspapers tell how he died trusting in Jesus. Fugh! What mischief that thief on the cross did. Can a man who has crept up to the gallows through the common sewers, at the last moment, just before the last effort to obtain a pardon, suddenly blossom out into a fervent religious life? I don't believe it.

The Herald's editorial says: If the President will follow up the programme he has marked out on the threshold of his administration in reference to polygamy, he will have the support of all men, irrespective of party, whose support and good will are worth having. We have been fooling and playing with this Mormon leprosy too long. It is idle to expect it can be destroyed by the civilizing forces of the railroad, the telegraph, and the newspaper, which a few years ago were counted upon so strongly for its extinction. It must be taken hold of by the strong arm of the law, and the sooner it is done the better.

St. Petersburg, 21.—Payments due from peasants for lands allotted them on the abolition of serfdom are about to be reduced in 25 governments, by 40 to 70 per cent., the total reduction aggregating 9,000,000 roubles yearly.

The preliminary judicial inquiry into the murder of the Czar concluded Saturday, and the minutes were handed to Procurator Murai-eff, who will be one of the State prosecutors before the special tribunal appointed to try the accused. The persons to be tried are Nicolli Russakoff, who confesses he threw one of the bombs, Andrei Telejkoff, who confesses he participated in the preparations for the murder. Timofei Michaeloff, who on his arrest at Kitzkoff's domicile, shot a policeman, and lastly a woman named Hesse Halfman, charged with being an accomplice of Navrotski, who committed suicide when the police entered his house. The man and woman who occupied the shop where the mine was discovered near the residence of the new Emperor have been arrested in Cronstadt.

It has been decided to erect a church where the assassination occurred. Russakoff is being tortured.

A St. Petersburg correspondent of the Paris Globe says: He has reason to believe that the new Emperor of Russia will shortly issue a formal proclamation of his deceased father's marriage with Princess Dolgorouki, wishing to pay a mark of deference to that lady. The Princess is said to have had a handsome fortune lodged for her in the Bank of England.

An Imperial ukase has been issued which confirms and maintains religion, laws and privileges of Finland.

The removal of the body of the Czar to the Cathedral in Peter and Paul fortress to-day was conducted with great pomp. The following was the order of procession. The late Emperor's horse, then the functionaries bearing his 132 Russian and foreign decorations, and others bearing his nine crowns, the last of the number being the Imperial Crown of Russia. Following these came the clergy dressed in black velvet embroidered with silver. Next came the funeral carriage ornamented with gold and drawn by eight horses, the four oldest generals in the army holding the corners of the pall. Immediately behind the car walked the Emperor, then came the grand dukes, ministers and foreign princes on horseback, grenadiers and carriages with the Empress and her children and the Grand Duchess.

Major General Miavinsky, belonging to the prefecture of police, who was first deputed to search the cheesemonger shop in Little Garden street, and who reported he found nothing suspicious, is being subjected to judicial examination, and it is thought this investigation will lead to the resignation of the prefect of police.

NEW YORK, 20.—The World's London special says: The ambassadors at the Constantinople conference on the Creek question are doing their utmost to bring about a peaceful settlement. Goschen, British ambassador, has used all his influence with the Porte to induce it to make the concessions demanded by the other Powers but the Ottoman ministry is stubborn and it is believed in official circles that war is inevitable. The accession of the new Czar has greatly increased the difficulties of an arrival at a satisfactory settlement. Austria is said to be as anxious for war as Greece herself, but in some quarters it is deemed probable that the Sultan is secretly offering Bosnia to the Emperor Francis Joseph. This is the most anxious question now pressing European governments.

It has been decided that the Prince of Wales shall represent the Queen at the funeral of Alexander II, and he will leave London for St. Petersburg on Monday.

Rumors are current that the nihilists intend to strike another blow, and the Prince has received anonymous letters urging him not to expose himself to the risk of death or mutilation.

The establishment of a new line of steamers to America will shortly be announced. Milford Haven will be the English port, saving a day in length of sea voyage. W. H. Vanderbilt will give facilities for vessels discharging their cargoes on your side of the water. The Earl of Dunraven will be chairman of the company. The steamers will be steel built with engines of great power and all the latest appliances in steam navigation, and will run 20 knots an hour.

I am authorized to contradict the statement which has doubtless reached you by cable, that Lord Dunraven is to be chairman of the alleged Transatlantic Cable Co, the European, American and Asiatic.

It is undeniable that Gladstone's strength is giving way. He looks like a wreck of his former self. While speaking in the House, he constantly rubs his hand slowly across his forehead as if suffering from pain or trying to collect his thoughts. Obstruction seems to have made the house a bear garden, and it is nighty a torture to him to conduct its so-called deliberations. The troubles which face him in India, Ireland and Transvaal weigh heavily upon his unstrung nerves.

The police are completely baffled as to the author of the intended Mansion House explosion, having neither clue or plausible theory on the matter.

Great Britain insists upon the withdrawal of the Boers from Laingsnek into Transvaal, and unless the Boers comply, hostilities will certainly be resumed. The terms offered the Boers are believed to include the appointment of royal commission of inquiry, the retirement of the Boers to their homes and the maintenance of the British garrisons in their present positions. It is reported the Boers killed or wounded three officers and one hundred men at Pretoria. The correspondent fears the report not without foundation, but thinks the number is probably exaggerated.

writes an English lady in Michigan, who is using the COMPOUND OXYGEN Treatment, "can express the gratitude I feel for the benefit I have received and the hope I have of possessing tolerable health again. It will be ten years, January, 1880, since I was taken sick, and the mental agony alone has been indescribable. I have two little girls who have never seen me walk. * * * I think I shall be able to walk alone after a time. I have been so hungry this summer that I have scarcely been able to wait for meals. * * * Every one remarks upon the improvement in my complexion, and I am putting on flesh rapidly. My bowels, which have been constipated all my life, are now better than I have ever known them to be." Our Treatise on Compound Oxygen, its nature and action, and full information for use, sent free. POVERTY AND SUFFERING.

"I was dragged down with debt, poverty and suffering for years, caused by a sick family and large bills for doctoring, which did them no good. I was completely discouraged, until one year ago, by the advice of my pastor, I procured Hop Bitters and commenced their use, and in one month we were all well, and none of us has seen a sick day since, and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your family well a year with Hop Bitters for less than one doctor's visit will cost, I know it.
