TABERNACLE SERVICE.

Elder B. H. Roberts Defends the Patriotism of the "Mormon" People.

Visitors to the Temple block yesterday afternoon were favored with an address on "Patriotism," by Elder B. H. Roberts, who spoke at a special meeting in the Tabernacle. Elder Roberts dealt with the patriotism and loyalty of the "Mormon" people and challenged the world to produce a more patriotic sect of religionists than they. He referred to the teachings of the Book of Morinon, touching the settlement of In additional, couching the settlement of this country, and to the prophetic dec-laration that no king should ever reign in this land. As a proof of "Mormon" loyality to this nation he called atten-tion to the fact that in 1861 Utah refused to leave the Union, although prom-ised a high place if the country were dismembered. Closing, Elder Roberts admonished his hearers to deal justly with the "Morrons" when they extend "Mormons" when they return ed to their homes, and to disabuse the minds of their fellows of the theory that the people of Utah were unpatriot-and disloyal to their country. Preceding the address there was a special organ recital, Prof. McClellan rendering the following program, great-ly to the delight of all present: Pre-lude to "Lohengrin," R. Wagner: "Gon-dollers," Ethelbert Nevin; "Evening Star," Richard Wagner; old melody, "Nearer, My God, to Thee;" introduc-tion to "Cavalliera Rusticana," Mas-cagni; "Largo," Handel, special organ recital, Prof. McClellan

GIRLS IN OVERALLS.

Direct Cause of an Exciting Runaway On State Street.

On Saturday evening two boys, Char. ley Burton and Oliver K. Parry, 10 and 12 years old respectively, had a narrow escape from serious injury in a runaway on south State street. The oys were driving a light two-wheeled art, bringing a can of milk from a big field pasture. They were also bring-ing up an extra horse which was tied to the rear of the cart. On reaching the city limits some girls who were out for a lark, dressed in overalls, shook an umbrella in front of the horses and both became frightened. The horses and both became frightened. The horse in the lead dashed ahead and the rear horse pulled back, upsetting the cart, boys and milk can in the street, and ran away in opposite directions. Fortunately no one was hurt and the accident happened too quickly to even frighten the boys, who dashed off after the horses and soon had them in hand again, little the worse for the experiselected, and was largely pure organ music. Among the audience were a German, baron from Silesia, and a Finnish count. They both came up to the organ desk af-ter the recital to express their apprecia-tion of the music, while the count tried the instrument himself. Miss Nellie Ma-nan, the lady baritone, sang for Prof. McClellan and a few friends after the recital, and showed herself possessed of a remarkable volce. It is heavy, round and melodious, reaching down into the bari-tone, if not the first base register, and is decidedly plensing. Miss Mahan sang yesterday, in the Unitarian church. Prof. McClellan was greatly pleased with her volce, and she will sing for him again. The next recital comes tomorrow, at 5:20 p. m., as usual.

Another daylight burglary occurred on Saturday afternoon. The victim this time was Mrs. Hardy, 517 First street, wife of ex-Sheriff Hardy. The place was ransacked from top to boltom, and everything in the shape of silverware and jewelry worth taking was carried away. The robbers gained entrance to the place by cutting through a rear wire screen. Mrs. Hardy had gone down town to do some shopping, and above town to do some snopping, and she is certain she left the place secure-ly locked, and the blinds drawn down. When she returned, the blinds were up, and articles in the various rooms were turned topsy turyy. ### Preaches Sermon and Says Colorado Miners Have Criminal Organization.

Rev. Dr. Utter of Denver, formerly pastor of the Unitarian congregation in this city, preached yesterday morning, in the church on Second East street, In the course of his discource, the doctor said: "Nature, it has been said, works with and for humanity, the whole race, rather than for the individual man. While this is true in a way it is equally true that the future continuance of the race de-pends upon the perfection of the individ-uals who occupy the stage here and now. God is in man and cantot work against himself. Nature's unit is the whole race, but it is a unit only as the factions com-posing it are loyal. Mankind can only live as measurably inspired with those moral instincts that look toward the pros-perity of all mankind equally with indi-vidual welfare and jog. "Man has become fitted for this last facuse of the future welfare of man. If he will but espouse it, great acceleration of progress may be expected. Man would ge forward in attainment of good, in bet-terment of the ways of life at a rate in-croasing by geometric ratio as compared to the slow additions made by all former generations." In an interview on the Colorado situa-tion Dr. Utter said that something had to be done. The Western Federation of Min-ero is a criminal organization; and as to the magazine articles recognizing that they had grievances in the beginning. "The people paid lift attention to the noticed it, was one who wished to yote for it. In my opinion there has never been a time when the eight-hour day, fairly presented to the people, could not be car-ing the did about the only thing that whink he did about the only thing that when a neight hour is that they can-not have a next of lawlessness in Cripple treek and earry on their depredations as they have in the past." OLD HYMN TUNES. and for humanity, the whole race, rather than for the individual man, While this
