FORTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 24.—Kelly, chairman of the committee on ways and means, reported the concurrent resolution for the final adjournment of Congress on the 19th of July. Adopted.

AMERICAN.

Passing the Plate.

WASHINGTON, 24. — The large number of Government employees in Washington makes every new development in regard to the assessment of the employees for political purposes particularly of interest here. The circular sent by George William Curtis, as president of the Civil Service Reform Association of New York, to the clerks and others in the civil service of the United States, warning them of the penalties attaching to voluntary contributions for political purposes under the law of 1876, was a sensation for a day or two, and has just been succeeded as the ruling topic by a letter of Hon. J. H. Hubbell, chairman of the republican congressional committee, to Mr. Curtis, in which he asks the latter to unite with him in requesting the President to obtain an opinion from the Attorney General on the subject. The general opinion on the Hubbell letter is that it gives evidence that Curtis' circular has hurt, and that the committee dreads the falling off in the contributions unless it is offset in some manner. There is one point about the letter, however, which is exciting comment. It is that Hubbell asks Curtis to appeal for a settlement of the question of law to the Attorney General, through the President, after he had in his circular to Government employees stated in advance the opinion of the Executive authority, that contributions would not be objected to in any official quarter. This looks like an appeal to a jury whose opinions are already known to the plaintiff. The technicality behind which the Congressional committee hide themselves is that they are not officers or employees of the Government. This is true, according to the decision of Congress itself.

In 1797 William Blount, who had been a delegate to the Continental Congress and governor of the territory south of Ohio, and was then Senator from Tennessee, was arraigned before the bar of the Senate, sitting as a court of impeachment, on the charge of having incited the Creek and Cherokee Indians to aid the British in their war of conquest against the Spanish possessions in South America. He plead that he was not an officer of the Government and not subject to impeachment, and the Senate so decided. This decision will stand in this case, and consequently the Civil Service Reform Association appeared to have based their letter on a misapprehension of the status of the member of Congress. The interesting question now is whether the employees of the Government will take the chances and contribute as usual.

Guiteau.

The Attorney General, to whom all appeals and petitions presented to the President bearing on the Guiteau case, had been referred, submitted an elaborate report to the Cabinet last evening, reviewing all the points presented in favor of a respite, and recommending it be not granted, on the ground of sanity of the prisoner, which had been fully established at the trial. The report was generally discussed and universally approved by the Cabinet, all the members of which were present. An understanding was reached that nothing should be disclosed as to the discussion of the Cabinet until after it should be made known to the prisoner. Rev. Mr. Hicks called upon the Attorney General this morning by appointment, and was informed the Cabinet had decided not to interfere with the execution of Guiteau's sentence. Hicks thereupon drove to the district jail and informed Guiteau.

Guiteau has sent the following message to his spiritual adviser:

Rev. Mr. Hicks: Go and see Arthur, and shake your fist in his face. Tell him I made him President by my inspiration, and he must give me unconditional pardon, and if he does not, God Almighty blast him forever. I tell you, brother Hicks, I am God's man, and God takes care of his own.

The friends of the condemned man still profess hope. Reed says he does not despair and he will make another appeal to the President at the earliest opportunity. Dr. Beard left here for New York last evening, but it is expected he will return. Miss Chivallier will have a conference with Dr. Golding and Rev. Mr. Hicks this evening, to determine upon their future action.

The windows on the east side of the south wing of the jail in which Guiteau's cell is situated have been curtained to shut out the light. This morning the rope which is to be used in the execution was put up in position. It is a piece of manilla, originally seven-eighths size, which has been stretched until it is now but three-fourths of the size, and is forty-six feet long. After having been looped the ends were firmly bound with twine and a knot tied. At the same time binding cords of stout cotton twine were prepared. These, four in number, are to tie his arms and hands behind his back and are three or four feet in length each. The other preparations was cutting the cords to a proper length and carefully wrapping the ends. The death warrant has been prepared by the deputy clerk of the court and will be signed Monday and sent to Warden Crocker. The time designated for the execution is between the hours of noon and 2 p.m., June 30, 1882.

The cabinet has decided not to interfere with the sentence of Guiteau and the Attorney General this morning instructed the marshal of the district and the warden of the jail to keep the prisoner in strict confinement and allow no one to see him except his spiritual advisers, his physicians and the officers of the jail.

Appropriations.

The House committee on appropriations reached an agreement on the sundry civil appropriations bill. It appropriates $23,400,000; a million and a half more than the amount appropriated for the current fiscal year. Most of the important items are for public printing and binding, including proceedings and debates of Congress, $1,304,605; proceedings and debts on bullion and coin, between mints and assay offices, $30,000. It is also provided that it shall be lawful to receive at the assay office at New York, gold coin, when presented in sums not less than $5,000, and to exchange therefor gold bars of equal value.

In the matter of the Lewis will case, by which the government gets $925,000, Courtland, Parker, and Gilchrist, the New Jersey lawyers, representing the executors of the estate, put in a claim for $50,000. Ex-Attorney-General Pierrepont and District Attorney Keasby, of New Jersey, counsel for the government, claim $27,500 each, and a detective claims $21,000.

Martyr's to Science.

Lieut. Danenhower had an interview with Secretary Chandler today with reference to the remains of the Jeannette crew found by Engineer Melville, to be transported to this country for proper interment, in places selected by their families. The secretary referred the matter to a special committee consisting of Captains Walker and English and Surgeon General Wales, who will report upon the expediency of applying to Congress for assistance in this matter.

Guiteau's Sister.

Reed, Guiteau's council, has received a letter from Scoville, which contains the following: Mrs. Scoville has gone east with Bertha, and I fear she will commit suicide if her brother is hung and possibly before if hope is lost. I hope they will be watched and let me know by mail and telegraph as to their whereabouts.

Gen. Stoneman.

NEW YORK, 24.—The Times editorially says: General Stoneman has been nominated for Governor by the California democrats after a long and heated contest in the convention. This is a novel departure for the democrats of the Golden State, as they have left off all of the old line politicians and have taken up a new man, who has not been conspicuous in politics, but who is understood to be well fixed so far as pecuniary availability is concerned. General Stoneman is regarded as an old Californian, although he has been a permanent resident of the State only since 1874, when he was placed on the retired list of the United States army, with the rank of colonel. He is a graduate of the military academy, and has served almost continuously in California and Oregon from the close of the Mexican war until 1855. Very soon after the conclusion of the civil war he was assigned a command in Arizona, which he held until he was retired. Since that time he has devoted himself to agricultural pursuits in Los Angeles Co., California, and has been very successful in his ventures. Stoneman's political experience has been limited, and the California democrats have had the benefit of him as a crank, who might do much mischief in his own party if he should ever break loose and manage things in his own way. The gallant general has made a good beginning by abusing the candidates whom he has defeated.

The Steamer "Stirling."

Henderson Bros., agents of the Castle line of China steamers, have received a dispatch from the owners, S. Kenner & Co., of London, informing them of the arrival there of the new steamer Stirling Castle, from Hankow, China, at four o'clock on Thursday morning, after a splendid run of 29 days and 22 hours, being the fastest time on record.

Must Investigate

W. J. Hutchinson, recently expelled from the Stock Exchange, was a prominent member and liberal supporter of the Methodist Church. The Christian Advocate this week says: "The church has a solemn duty to perform in the matter and it must investigate." A trial is likely to follow.

Davitt.

Davitt said to a reporter yesterday: I intend to-night to answer once for all the charges brought against me, and if after this they are again repeated, I shall resign my position in the Land League, and return to Ireland. His speech to-night was in Jersey City, where he refuted all the charges.

Emmetsburg.

CHICAGO, 24.—The Des Moines agent of the Associated Press telegraphs as follows: "We are not able as yet to get any further news of the reported disaster at Emmetsburg, as the wires are so badly down and Emmetsburg is naturally somewhat isolated, but I have telegraphed to every point near that place to give us details."

Hail like Hens Eggs.

ROCKFORD, Ill., 24.—A terrible hail storm and tornado visited this place to-day, doing great damage to crops and fruit. A $7,000 cherry crop was totally destroyed. Corn fields in the course are entirely ruined. Hail stones fell as large as hens' eggs. Windows were broken from nearly every building in the city, but no person was injured.

Congressional Nominations.

SAN FRANCISCO, 23.—A San Jose dispatch says, James H. Budd was nominated for Congress in the second district last evening, and Barclay Henly was nominated in the third district. Carpenter was nominated for railroad commissioner in the first district.

General Rosecrans was renominated, by acclamation, for Congress in the first district. Ex-City Surveyor W. P. Humphreys was nominated railroad commissioner in the second district.

"The very best remedy for rheumatism I have ever been able to procure, is St. Jacobs Oil," says Capt J. W. Atwater, County Commissioner of Thomaston, Upson county, Ga.
