TALK OF THE TOWN.

Summer floods and fall fires. The Melville opera season opens on the 20th.

Go and see "Queen's Evidence" on Saturday.

E. R. Young, Esq., of Wanship, is in the city.

The estimated total loss by the Beaver fire is $3,725.

Senator Ferry is the guest of Judge Emerson, in Ogden.

Judge Twiss is rushing business in the second District Court.

The funeral of Mother Knowlton will be held to-morrow at 2 p.m.

Charcoal burners may find employment. Read notice elsewhere.

Mr. Francklin, President of the Horn Silver Mining Company, went to New York yesterday.

And now the east sidewalk of Theatre hill, in the vicinity of the Social Hall is being graded.

The friends of O'Reilly, who was killed at the Park on Sunday, maintain that the homicide was premeditated by Scott.

The remains of Elder David J. Taylor, in charge of Messrs. R. J. Taylor, A. E. Hyde and Wm. Derr, arrived last evening.

Two soldiers, for indulging in drinking and a little additional disturbance, were arrested to-day and turned over to the military.

James A. Wade, a blacksmith, well known in this city, died in Evanston on Monday afternoon. He was formerly a resident of the 24th Ward.

The habes corpus, talked of yesterday by the young men who were fined for assault and battery, was not obtained. The Judge was not at home.

A special to the Ogden Herald states that a boy named John Hinckley, 13 years old, was killed in Logan, on Monday afternoon, while assisting to bale hay.

A Beaver inflect set his watch by the yet motionless clock in the tower of their new court house, and has discovered a new method of computing difference of time.

A number of saloon keepers have been arrested under the provisions of the new ordinance, for selling liquor without license, and will interview the police magistrate to-morrow.

The fire on Dr. Wesley's premises, which it appears was not entirely extinguished on Monday, burst forth again this morning from among some of the half-burned hay, and the fire brigade was summoned to quell it.

The Ogden Herald says that Mr. John Ford has had about one hundred pieces of small glass, and quite a number of shots extracted from his wound. He suffers severely from pain, but the physicians are hopeful of his recovery.

A drunken Indian was arrested and jailed in Ogden on Monday night, and on the door being opened next morning, to take in his breakfast, he bolted past the guard, and after an exciting chase, succeeded in getting away. The white man who furnished him whisky should take his place.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Emigrants.—Following is a copy of a telegram which arrived this morning:

NEW YORK, 13th, 1881.

Pres. John Taylor:

The Wyoming, with 645 so, is in charge of James Finlayson, arrived this morning; will leave (for Utah) by special to-morrow. Oas (Irish) all well.

Arrived.—Miss Ada Dryer, who has gone east to finish her education, and especially her study of the art of elocution, in which she made so excellent a beginning here, has arrived at Detroit, where she is staying with Mr. Dryer's friends, until he joins her and makes arrangements for her tuition in the best schools of the Atlantic cities.

The Beaver Fire.—Our Beaver correspondent, Judge Tyler, sends us an account of the fire in that city. The news, however, was anticipated by telegraph. Brother Tyler says that "the family of Brother John Taylor, merchant and saloon-keeper, were barely saved through the energy of Mr. French, assistant postmaster, who burst in the door and aroused them from their slumbers."

Primary Reports.—Mrs. Millie Freeze, Secretary of the Central Board of the Primary Association of Salt Lake City, desires the secretaries of the various Associations to send reports to their respective State Secretaries and the latter are earnestly requested to forward State reports immediately, to be presented at the October Conference. Secretaries who have forwarded complete reports from date of organization, need only send from date of former statistics. All others will forward full particulars from date of organization.

Wilful Murder.—An account of a cold-blooded murder, perpetrated on Sunday evening about nine o'clock, in Silver City, Utah County, was telegraphed from that place last evening. It is stated that John Oakes shot and killed another man named David Richards, the latter, at the time, being too drunk to defend himself. According to the testimony of those who heard the shooting, Richards was upon his knees when the firing commenced, and while in this position begged piteously of his assailant to spare his life. Oakes, however, deliberately shot five times at his pleading victim, and four of the bullets took effect; one struck him in the right jaw, and came out under the ear, another entered the right arm and went out near the elbow, a third hit the base of the neck, and passing downward struck the spinal column, while still another was found in his breast. The last was under his clothing, which was very much torn, and it is believed retarded the force of the ball. The direction of all the wounds being downward, corroborates the statement that Richards was upon his knees at the time of the killing. A coroner's jury rendered a verdict in the case, charging Oakes with wilful murder.

FUNERAL OF ELDER DAVID J. TAYLOR.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Elder David John Taylor, were solemnized at the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms to-day, beginning at 12 m. and concluding a few minutes before two p.m.

The hall had been specially prepared for the occasion by the sisters of the Relief Society and their aids, the stand being appropriately draped and seats arranged for the accommodation of the public.

The corpse was enclosed in a handsome metallic casket, with eight massive silver handles and a silver plate on top, bearing the name of the deceased and the date of his demise. The coffin was beautifully adorned with floral emblems, and during the service rested beneath the shadow of the porch on the north wing of the building.

Inside the house, the stand was occupied by Presidents George Q. Cannon, Joseph F. Smith and Wilford Woodruff, Apostles F. M. Lyman and John Henry Smith, Counselor D. H. Wells, Presiding Bishop Edward Hunter, President A. M. Cannon, Bishop Thomas Taylor, officers of Z. C. M. I. and others.

Apostle F. D. Richards was also present. Immediately in front of the stand sat President John Taylor, father of the deceased, in an arm chair, surrounded by his family, the family of the departed and other near relatives occupying chairs from the centre to the west side of the room.

On the east side was stationed a large and efficient choir led by Elder Henry Gardner, and completed on the organ by Miss Annie Taylor. The public occupied the main body of the hall, the front steps and the outside premises.

The services were conducted by Bishop Thomas Taylor, under the direction of President George Q. Cannon. After the choir had sung the hymn:

Moura no, the dead, who peaceful lay,

Apostle F. M. Lyman offered up the opening prayer. The choir then rendered the hymn:

Rest for the weary soul.

Bishop Thomas Taylor made a few introductory remarks, testifying to the excellent character borne by the deceased, etc., and was followed by President Joseph F. Smith in an impressive and consolatory discourse lasting about half an hour.

President Wilford Woodruff occupied the next 20 minutes in a similar interesting manner, and President George Q. Cannon closed with a series of excellent remarks on themes suitable to the occasion.

The choir sang,

Rest spirit, rest!

After which Apostle John H. Smith pronounced the benediction. The hall was then vacated and the procession formed, under the direction of Elders L. J. Nuttall and Rodney C. Badger in the following order: Vehicle containing pall bearers and brothers of the deceased; hearse, with the remains; carriage holding the widow of the deceased and near relatives; carriage of President John Taylor, followed by others with members of his family; relatives and intimate acquaintances of the bereaved household; Church authorities; officers and employees of Z. C. M. I., associates of the deceased in life; the general public. The cortege numbered between 30 and 40 vehicles, and passed up First South Street on its way to the Cemetery, where the mortal body of our departed brother was consigned to its last resting place.

The "Juvenile."—The last number of the Juvenile Instructor has the following interesting table of contents: Bertha's Pet (Illustrated); Summary of Correspondence by August Wilcken, C. F. Wilcox and J. M. Barlow; Jottings by a Young Missionary; Strobe; A Successful Man's Secret; Editorial Thoughts; North Carolina Items, by Jas. H. Mayest; History of the Church; A Joyful Scene (Illustrated); Letter to the Young Folks, by Hannah T. King; If You Could Hie to Kolob, a song set to music, words by W. W. Phelps, music by L. D. Edwards; Jacob Hamblin.

The Reef Rioters.—The Beaver Enterprise of the 10th inst. says that the Silver Reef rioters, whose cases were sent back from the Supreme Court, were sentenced on Wednesday afternoon, the 7th inst., to $100 fine each, or in default of payment to 100 days in the penitentiary; the leader was sentenced to $100 fine and 20 days' imprisonment. Several of them gave security and were released, while three decided to go to the penitentiary.

Notice to Beekeepers.

Sept. 14, 1881.

All organized beekeepers associations in this Territory, and where there are no organizations, leading beekeepers, are cordially invited to send to the Territorial Beekeepers Association, a report of the number of hives of bees, their present condition, amount of honey realized, also quantity of beeswax, price of honey, beeswax, and value of bees for the hive or colony, for the present year and if there is any foul brood in your district or county. All reports are respectfully solicited on or before Oct. 1, 1881. Prompt attention is desired as Zion's Board of Trade requests a report from our Territorial Beekeepers Association, at their next sitting in October.

Respectfully,

A. M. MUESSER, Pres. of Territorial Beekeepers Association.

EDWARD STEVENSON, Secretary.

Address P. O. Box 245.

N. B.—A meeting of the Beekeepers Territorial Association will be held at the Council House October 5th, 1881, at 7 p. m., a general attendance is solicited.

"You Don't Know Their Value."

"They cured me of Ague, Biliousness and Kidney Complaint, as I have a half bottle left which I used for my two little girls, whom the doctors and neighbors said could not be cured. I am confident I should have lost both of them one night if I had not had the Hop Bitters in my house to use. I found they did them so much good I continued with them, and they are now well. That is why I say you do not know half the value of Hop Bitters, and do not recommend them highly enough."—B. Roches ter N. Y.

NEVER RETURN.

It is said that one out of every four real invalids who go to Denver, Col., to recover health never return to the East or South except as a corpse. The undertakers, next to the hotel keepers, have the most profitable business. This excessive mortality may be prevented and patients served and cured under the care of friends and loved ones at home if they will use Hop Bitters in time.

No Remedy of the Age is achieving more successful and widely appreciated results than Glenn's Sulphur Soap. It is confessedly the best specific for diseases of the skin, and by the feminine portion of the community it is recognized as an incomparable beautifier of the complexion. Those who have never experienced or witnessed its effects have been convinced in the most practical way that it is genuinely efficacious. It has largely superseded the use of Sulphur Baths, which are among the best known of medicinal appliances, simply for the reason that it is quite as fruitful of curative results in cases of skin disease, gout and rheumatism, and does its work at far lighter cost. The cuticle through its influence acquires unwonted purity and smoothness, a consideration of no small importance to ladies troubled with complexion defects. Sores, burns, cuts, sores, bruises and sprains are cured by it, and the pain which they cause speedily alleviated. Dandruff is dispelled by its use; a fact of moment to persons whose hair is prematurely falling out in consequence of the proper want of moisture in the scalp, a deficiency amply compensated for by Glenn's Sulphur Soap, which opens the pores and keeps the scalp cool and moist. When clothing or linen becomes infected it may be easily disinfected by thoroughly washing and rinsing with the Soap, which for bleaching purposes is unrivaled, imparting to woolen, cotton and linen fabrics the whiteness of snow. Of chronic diseases caused by contact with the person it is an infallible preventive as well as an excellent remedy. Those diseases of the skin for which "Sulphur Ointments" were long and erroneously regarded as the only efficient remedy, are now eradicated with far greater certainty by Glenn's Sulphur Soap, which instead of smothering the lungs like the compounds alluded to is eminently conservative of cleanliness as well as health. It is an article without a drawback, and with many and unmistakable points of superiority.

Sold by druggists. Price 25 cents per cake. 1 box (3 cakes) 75 cents, sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of price. C. N. CHITTENDEN, Prop'r, 115 Fulton Street, New York.
