Death and Disaster.

HELENA, Ark., 13.—The water is rushing through the Old Town break in the levee and many plantations will again be overflowed.
Water now in sight will bring the river up to within two feet of the late rise.

New York, 12.—The steamship City of Richmond has not arrived; she has not been heard from since she was reported disabled by the French, and then not in need of assistance.

Barrett's Rapids, Ont., 12.—Floods in the Ottawa river are doing great damage. The plains of the bridge the north side of the village are swept away. Many narrow escapes; great excitement. The village being on an island, communication with the main land is completely cut off.

Lebanon, Pa., 12.—W. A. Levanand Augustus Everhard, representing the Rendreck Powder Company, New York, were killed at Cornwall in making a trial blast.

Names of officers and crew drowned on the steamer Wythe: Purser H. L. Palmer; Clerk W. J. Rivers; Free Cummings; Chas. Nunn; Tom Everett; Dave Brooks; Nelson Mc-Kay; Lucien McClary; Chas. Potts; and Green Elinger.

Hudson, Wis., 12.—A boiler in the Hudson Chair Factory exploded this afternoon; two men were fatally injured. Fifty men in a neighboring room, escaped without injury.

St. George, Ont., 12.—Six cars of a freight train on the Grand Trunk were precipitated over an embankment near this station this evening; all smashed to atoms; loss heavy.

Plainfield, N. J., 12.— In the collision in the Lehigh Valley the rear coach of the Philadelphia train overturned and at once caught fire. All the passengers were extricated, before the flames reached them, but 13 received injuries. The engineer and one unknown passenger will probably die. Some of the passengers declare that the locomotive and train were all the way from Bound Brook to the crossing.

The engineer of the Lehigh Valley locomotive claims he had been given the safety signal, and Agent Pickle, on the engine, corroborates him. Master Mechanic Faxon, in the case of the Philadelphia and Reading engine, says they were shown a white signal until within 20 feet of the crossing, when red was suddenly flashed in their faces.
The passenger train was on schedule time; the locomotive was running wild.

The following are additional injured: Mrs. Henry B. Kaufman, Plainfield, rescued from the debris after her clothing was on fire, was slightly hurt on the hand and prosperity by the shock, but 13 received injuries. The engineer and one unknown passenger will probably
die. Some of the passengers declare
