Drowned .- A sad event occurred in Mill Creek Ward, about 11 o'clock son of Peter Peterson, who lives just south of the farm residence of at 123 to 131 Main Street. Mr. John R. Winder, was playing in the back yard with a number of other children, when he accidental ly fell into an open well, and before he could be rescued was drowned. As soon as the accident occurred, the other children ran into the house and alarmed Mrs. Peterson, and her screams attracted to the spot her husband, who was working in the field, and Watermaster C. H. Wilck en and Supt. Chas. Livingston, who were riding by on their return from the canal works in that neighbornood. They immediately alighted and rushed into the yard. The child had been taken out of the well and the father, mother and some neighbors were working over it.

The new comers did all in their power to assist in its restoration, but all to no purpose. The child was dead. The well was eight or ten feet deep and contained about four feet of water. It was about six eet in diameter, and totally uncov-George Crisman, etc., vs. B. C. & ered except by a narrow plank upon which the person stood who went to
