REMOVAL OF THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

WESTWARD the Star of Empire wends its way is a truism fully corroborated by the wonderful development of the Great West of the American Continent within the past twenty years. With this development of the West there has latterly risen a cry in the nation that its capital should be removed from Washington, westward. Whether this has arisen from the offense to the moral sensibilities of the people at the crime, wickedness and corruption that, according to the almost unanimous testimony of all professing to be in the least posted about the matter, exist at Washington, we are not at the present inclined to discuss; but at any rate there is a feeling getting abroad that the capital should be moved, and efforts are being made by parties interested in its removal to have it done.

Various cities have been designated, among which are Chicago, Omaha, Cincinnati, Keokuk, St. Louis, etc., each one of which, if you will believe the theories of those who advocate the fitness of the several places named, possess some one or more of the qualifications necessary for the capital of a great nation like ours.

But Chicago has, with wonderful modesty, waived whatever claims it has in favor of St. Louis. Cincinnati has done the same. The New York Tribune of the 28th ult. has an article on this subject which favors the idea of the removal of the National Capital, but urges objections to any of the places named above being selected; and in fact it is of the opinion that if the Capital be removed at all it should be to New York. If removed to Chicago the Tribune says the sole amusement of the members of Congress would be looking at the Lake tunnel and getting divorced. Cincinnati has no genteel family amusement except pork-slaughtering, and Oshkosh can only entertain its guests with statistics of its own greatness. This doctrine, to the uninitiated believer in the empire westward doctrine, seems rather retrogressive, but the following reasons from the Tribune will most likely have a tendency to settle the doubts of many, and induce them to coincide in the idea that New York is the only place on the Continent possessing the requisites necessary for the Solons of the nation to meet and deliberate in their senatorial capacity.

"It results, as a matter of course, that whenever the capital is moved, it must be moved to New York. This city is the commercial and intellectual center of the United States, and is likely always to remain so. If the political center is ever moved from its present position, it will inevitably gravitate to the same point, and any change which carries the capital elsewhere will be but a temporary expedient. We have every means of making Congress comfortable, as well as some facilities for keeping it respectable. We have good hotels, and a plenty of them, excellent theatres, Croton Water, the Central Park, and the Tribune every morning before daylight. Let these considerations be well weighed; and if the seat of Government is disturbed at all, we believe every impartial mind will perceive that it ought by all means to be placed here."

Now, while willing to yield assent to the force and pertinence of some of the remarks made by the Tribune, pro and con, we are decidedly of the opinion that no place on the entire continent is so well adapted for the National Capital, viewed from any imaginable standpoint, as Salt Lake City. We do not expect everybody to yield their full acquiescence to our views all at once, but have little doubt of convincing the intelligent that such is the fact. The objection made by the Tribune to Washington, on account of its wickedness, certainly cannot be urged against Salt Lake City, and we run little or no risk in saying that it can be against Chicago, St. Louis, Omaha and other places named; and we make this assertion on statistics gleaned from papers published in those places.

Salt Lake City may not possess all the advantages possessed by New York, or even of some of the other cities named; but we are quite satisfied that it possesses more than any one city to be found in the world. In a commercial point of view it is rapidly rising to importance, being the metropolis of the Rocky Mountains, and about the centre of the Pacific Railroad.

But its great qualification is the lessons in virtue, morality and law-making, which our national legislators might learn here. We speak this with all respect to those honorable gentlemen. They are sadly maligned if some of them do not visit faro tables and do other things forbidden by a strict moral code. But we do not tolerate such things here. Public opinion here too forbids the kept mistress and the house of ill-fame, and other things of a like character. Yet there need be no lack of amusement or relaxation for honorable gentlemen when that is needed. We have beautiful mountains and lakes, Alpine scenery on every hand worth inspecting, and calculated to elevate the mind from the things of time and sense up to nature and to nature's God. And if these are not sufficient we have a most excellent theatre and capital performers.

Then, what is of far more importance to law-makers than anything else, we have a Territory out of debt, and the best regulated and most orderly community in the world, with less police force and other machinery of a like character than to be found anywhere else. Absolutely no corruption or venality here! Think of that, you who want to remove the National Capital! Are the lessons in these respects that might be learned here, and the advantages held out by Salt Lake City, to be despised? We think not.

As we said before, we do not expect you all to believe our testimony. But we deem it our duty to make known the truth unto you, and, whether you believe and act upon it or not, depend upon it you could not possibly do better, and might go much further and fare worse.

GENERAL.

Chicago.—Jacob Rehm, son of the well-known politician of that name, the recent superintendent of police in this city, killed a man named Michael Hargrelock in a bar room fight on Saturday afternoon. The police have used every effort to hush the matter up in order to prevent reporters obtaining information. Their statement about the matter is favorable to Rehm, but other accounts make it a case of almost deliberate murder.

Geo. Derring, son of a hotel keeper in South Bend, Indiana, came to Chicago to witness a base ball match on Saturday, and being taken unwell a druggist's clerk gave him acetoic instead of cholera medicine, from the effects of which he died the same evening.

A man was drowned at the artesian well yesterday.

An old man was found dead in the street, and the body of a dead boy floated to shore in the afternoon, neither of whom have been identified.

The Republican's Washington special says: "spurious ten-dollar greenbacks are arriving at the Treasury Department in considerable numbers, and so perfect as to induce the belief that the genuine plates have been stolen, or that a lead impression has been furnished by the employees of the American Bank Note Company. They almost defy detection."

The Times special says at a Cabinet meeting, on Friday, it was determined to remove all Federal office holders in Tennessee who do not make active exertions to secure the election of Stokes.

The Tribune's Washington special says the Central Pacific has deposited four millions of the first mortgage bonds in the Treasury, under the act of last April, to secure a first-class completion of the road; the Union Pacific has deposited sixteen hundred thousand, in bonds, for the same purpose. The same act provides for the appointment of a commission of five citizens to examine both, and report what seems necessary to make each a first-class road. The bonds deposited with the Treasury will be given up when this commission reports that the line is completed in a first-class manner. The examination will probably be made this fall.

It appears from the reports of the collectors of Internal Revenue that considerable whiskey will become Government property, having not been withdrawn from the bonded warehouses on July 1st, as required by the law. The precise amount is not yet known.

The Tribune's New York special reports that the marine disasters in July show a loss of ten steamships, one ship, five boats, two bridges and nine schooners of an aggregate value of eight hundred and fifty-four thousand.

The plan of using the electric lights on the Erie Railroad will be introduced; lamps will be carried on the locomotives, and there will be fixed lights in the tunnels and on important bridges and curves.

Coal dealers report that all the strikes in the mines are ended; a general decline in prices is expected.

Washington.—In consequence of the issue of spurious ten-dollar greenbacks, Secretary Boutwell has concluded to have a new issue of all denominations, from one to one thousand dollar notes. The plates are now being engraved at the Bureau of Engraving. The printing designs are entirely new. No likeness of any living person will be placed on any note. The face of the notes will be printed at the Bureau and the backs at New York. Every possible care will be taken to prevent frauds.

Loug Branch.—President Grant visited Bricksburg, N. J., he was the guest of Robt. Campbell, President of the Bricksburg Land Improvement Company. He received a hearty welcome from the citizens, and was afterwards presented with fifty acres of land. The President visits Secretary Fish at his home on the Hudson a few days, proceeding thence to the White Mountains and Saratoga.

New York.—The Herald's special says it has been rumored in Washington that belligerent rights will be accorded to Cuba by our government within ten days.

Two convicts in Auburn prison fought a duel, according to the regular code, on Friday morning; their weapons were knives. The scene took place in an ice house. Both men were wounded but not dangerously.

At forty minutes past seven o'clock last night, a meteor of unusual size and brilliancy shot from north-east to the south-west emitting sparks of fire.

St. Louis.—The excitement at Ekin, Illinois, with regard to the killing of the Deputy Sheriff of the County, last Fall, while attempting to arrest some thieves, culminated yesterday morning, when a crowd from the County burst into the jail, taking the leader, Gamman, and hung him to a tree. He some way gained possession of a clasp knife and cut several of the lynching party, one so badly that he will probably not recover. It was thought that some more of the gang would be lynched.

Washington.—The public debt statement shows a reduction of indebtedness for the month of July, of $7,435,744; the money in the Treasury, $36,400,770 in coin; in certificates, $3,673,534; currency in the Treasury, $23,897,554; the sinking fund $11,025,147; the reduction is less than indicated in the statement. The reason being the advance made to the Pacific Railroad Company of the interest on their bonds, amounting to $635,881, making a total reduction of over nine millions; in addition to this, there was an excessive amount of warrants paid on Saturday, amounting to upwards of two and a half millions.

The statement of the public debt shows the total debt, less cash in the sinking fund, in the Treasury and in purchased bonds to be $2,481,608,736.29.

New York.—Great excitement was created yesterday, in Duane St. Methodist Church, by an attempt to abduct a little girl named Mary Clark, by her mother; the child had been given to the charge of her father by the court, pending a divorce suit. Her grandparents were shockingly beaten by half a dozen men, who seized the child while in the church. Mrs. Clark was arrested.

There was great indignation to-day among the forwarders at high rates by the canal boats, the railways carrying grain so much below what the tolls will permit the boats to carry that the latter are compelled to abandon the competition. The majority of the boats are tied up.

Albany.—Deputy Sheriff Briggs, who was wounded in the late anti-rent trouble, at East Greenbush, died this morning.

New York.—The tailors' strike continues. The manufacturing tailors have expressed their determination of siding with the shop hands; two or three firms are expected to yield the advance wages to-day.

One of the rooms at the Long Branch hotel was robbed of $8,000 worth of diamonds on Saturday; the thieves have been arrested and the property recovered.

Patrick McCann tried to drown a young lady named Ettie Wade, while bathing on Coney Island, on Sunday, because she repulsed his attempt at indecent liberties; he was arrested.

The late Bohm A. Rabling's will leaves his business manager $30,000; the Trenton Children's Home $15,000; the Trenton Widows' Home $15,000; his widow $100,000; each of his children $10,000.

The Rilton and Delaware Bay Railroad will be sold on the 4th of September under a writ of fieri facias, issued by the Court of Chancery, at the suit of Charles J. Hendrickson and Stewart Brown, complainants, who are the holders of mortgages.

Washington.—Superintendent Clapp of the Government printing office has appointed eight apprentices, two of whom are colored.

The warrants drawn by the Treasury, during July, amounted to 16,538,353.

New Orleans.—The ship Pauline David, from Liverpool, took fire at the south-west point of the bar this morning; the wrecking tugs filled her with water and saved the ship, which was slightly damaged; the cargo was considerably damaged, principally by the water.

The Mexican bark Don Intervio, arrived here with the Captain and crew of the schooner Seven Steerer, who were picked up in a long boat 23 miles off the South-west Pass, the crew were eight days in the long boat.

FOREIGN.

Havana.—It is reported that two slaves landed in the Cincos Villas district, on Wednesday last, five thousand negro insurgents who attacked Puerto Principe, making a general raid through the city; the Spanish troops to the number of four thousand attacked them, when a severe struggle ensued, in which the ground was contested inch by inch, the insurgents retreating in perfect order, having achieved the object for which they made the raid. They captured and destroyed provisions valued at fifty thousand, and made good their retreat. The Spaniards do not give any estimate of the patriot loss. Thirty-four wounded of their army were taken to the barracks. There is a great dearth of provisions and consequently great misery.

Santiago.—The patriot detachment which has been attacking fortified plantations for some time past, defeated the Spanish reinforcements sent to meet them. Col. Comora commanding the Spanish forces, was wounded. It is stated that as soon as preparations are completed the patriots will positively attack Santiago. The negro militia that made a raid upon Puerto Principe enabled a number of families to escape from there.

It is expected that sales of confiscated property will take place by auction. It is suggested that the police will make a registration of slaves, owned by disloyal masters. More troops are demanded for the interior, where the insurgents are increasing in numbers and activity.

London.—A company is organizing to lay a cable from Scotland by way of the Orkneys and Faroe Islands to Quebec; when completed the line will probably be purchased by the Post Office Department.

The Commissioners of the World's Fair of '91 have issued a prospectus for an international exhibition of the fine arts, industrial arts and inventions in 1891.

Dublin.—There was a great demonstration at Limerick yesterday, in favor of the remaining Fenian prisoners; twenty-three thousand people marched in procession with bands and banners; an open air meeting was held which was addressed by various speakers. Letters of Gladstone were adopted, demanding the release of those now in prison. The proceedings were most enthusiastic; but the tone of the discourse was moderate, and there was no disturbance of the peace.

London.—Gladstone, whose health is much improved, attended the sitting of the Commons last evening and was greeted with great cheering.

Mr. Porteous, Chief Secretary for Ireland, informed the House, that during the recess, the government would consider the desirability of purchasing the Irish railways.

Paris.—The draft of the Senatus Consultum, is completed; it gives the Emperor and corps legislative the initiative in making laws. The Cabinet Ministers can be members of the Senate or corps legislatif. The sittings of the Senate are to be public, each body to make its own internal regulations. The members of both chambers have the right to address interpellations to the government. No amendment to a law is to be adopted, unless it has been previously referred to a committee charged with the duty of examining the project.

A $20,000,000 embezzlement has just been discovered in the Austrian war office.

Lord Derby made the munificent sum of $245 by his translation of Homer, and has given it all to a college.

CELEBRATION OF THE TWENTY-FOURTH IN THE SETTLEMENTS.

Owing to a press of matter and the length of the communications with which our correspondents have kindly favored us, giving accounts of the celebration of the entrance of the Pioneers into these valleys, we are under the necessity of abbreviating and producing them in a condensed form. We are gratified with the spirit of union, peace and joy that universally characterized their several demonstrations.

FILLMORE CITY.

Yesterday, being the 22nd anniversary of the entrance of the Pioneers into these valleys, the ceremonies of the day were inaugurated at sunrise by a salute of 25 guns and the raising of the national colors, by Capt. John Ashman's company of infantry, accompanied by appropriate music from the martial band. At 9 o'clock a. m. the people assembled in our newly constructed and capacious bower and formed in procession in the following order, under the direction of Hon. F. M. Lyman, Marshal of the day:

Martial band, High Council of the Stake, members of Zion's Camp, Pioneers and members of the Mormon Battalion, Federal, county and city officers, ward choir, committee of arrangements, 12 fathers in Israel, 12 mothers in Israel, 22 young men followed by 22 young women in honor of the 22nd anniversary, juvenile choir and Sunday school, and marched to the residence of President Callister, who, accompanied by Bishop Edward Partridge, there joined the procession which continued its march around a portion of the public square, returning to the bowerly about 10 o'clock.

The procession was very interesting and encouraging in its appearance, particularly the juvenile portion, which spoke well for the rising glory of Zion. The variety of flags and banners borne by the different departments indicated that the people, old and young, do not flag in their zeal to celebrate the ever-memorable day.

The congregation, which was numerous, being seated, the Marshal called the assembly to order, and the services were conducted as follows:

Music by the string band; singing, "The Standard of Zion," by the ward choir; prayer by Bishop Partridge, Chairman of the Day; singing, "Hallelujah," by the juvenile choir; oration by President Callister, Orator of the Day; music by the band; speech, by Hon. A. M. Lyman; music by the band; speech, by Hon. Thos. R. King; music by the band; address, by Thos. C. Callister, on behalf of the 22 young men; song, "Awake ye defenders of Zion," by Elizabeth Henry, assisted by John Kelly; address on behalf of the 22 young women, by Carrie Lyman. The oration, speeches, and addresses were excellent and to the point. Music by the band; singing, "In Deseret we're free," by the ward choir; benediction by the Chaplain.

In the afternoon and evening, the people with one accord, went forth in the dance and seemed, notwithstanding the excessive heat, to greatly enjoy themselves. Peace, tranquility and social enjoyment were the order of the day.

JOHN KELLY.

MOUNT PLEASANT, SANPETER COUNTY.

Dear Brother: At early dawn of yesterday, the citizens of Mount Pleasant were apprised, by the volleys of musketry, which brought vividly to mind the fact, that this day was the 22nd anniversary of the entrance of the Pioneers into Salt Lake Valley.

The procession was headed by a train of wagons representing the Pioneers, the various trades and professions, and equipped in active operation, followed by the Female Relief Society, and Sunday School children, when two members of the justly renowned Mormon Battalion joined the procession; they were inaugurated welcomed by the Orator of the day, and gracefully crowned with wreaths of flowers by a young lady, (representing the State of Deseret). The procession was unique and imposing; proceedings in the bowerly instructive and entertaining, and worthy of special notice was the Oration by E. Cliff Esq. Exercises in the afternoon and dancing in the evening portrayed the people, good will and happiness enjoyed by all. A few appropriate remarks by Bishop Seelye, expressive of his good pleasure and satisfaction with all that had transpired, wound up at a reasonable hour the celebration, ably conducted by Paul Dehline Esq., Marshal of the day.

WM MORRISON, Reporter.

MORONI, SANPETER COUNTY.

Salute and hoisting of the national flag at sunrise, and music by the martial band. At 9 o'clock the band serenaded some of the principal citizens. At 9 o'clock the people assembled at the bowerly and formed into procession as follows:

The martial band, under Capt. W. H. Bradley; Pioneers, under Wm. Draper, Sen.; Bishop and Counsel; Members of the Farmers and Gardeners' Club, with grain, vegetables, fruits and flowers of the best varieties. The "Early Rose" potato was a great show; Hand Cart company, under the direction of John Bailey, (some of the heroes of 1856); twelve young men; twelve young ladies; twelve citizens and school children in large numbers; Cavalry, under P. P. Draper.

The procession marched through the principal streets and back to the bowerly, when the people were seated by the Marshal. After singing and prayer by the Chaplain, Wm. Draper, an oration was delivered by John D. Chase, Orator of the day; after which were songs, toasts and speeches.

At 2 p.m. the people re-assembled to witness foot and wheelbarrow races, and other games; children's dance at 2 p.m.; adults at 7; and danced till 12, which closed the performance of the day.

JOHN KIRKMAN, Reporter.

FAIRVIEW, SANPETER COUNTY.

The 24th inst. was spent very agreeably at Fairview Green. At daybreak a salute of ten guns was fired by a detachment of Capt. Gifford's company. At sunrise another salute was fired for the hoisting of flags. Music by the brass band, which serenaded Pres. Orson Hyde, who was the guest of Bishop R. L. Johnson. At 9 o'clock the procession was formed and marched to the residence of Bishop R. L. Johnson, where they received Pres. Orson Hyde and Bishop Johnson, continuing their march to the bowerly, where all were comfortably seated.

The procession was called to order by the Marshal of the day, James Guymon; song by the choir; prayer by the Chaplain; music by the brass band, and oration by Pres. Orson Hyde, which was eloquent and soul-stirring, some portions very solemn and impressive, others buoyant and full of mirth. After the session the assembly was entertained by songs, recitations, music and short pithy speeches from several individuals.

Afternoon—Dancing in the bowerly by the multitude; select party in the evening; all passing off in a manner highly creditably to the citizens and to the occasion.

MORNING DAILY PAPER.

At the request of many citizens and patrons of the Salt Lake Telegraph, the undersigned has concluded to publish the Telegraph in Salt Lake City, as a Morning Paper, commencing at the earliest possible date.

It is proposed to furnish the Telegraph to subscribers by carriers, who will collect according to subscription, and whose interest it will be to deliver the paper with punctuality and regularity at the houses of their patrons.

The credit system which has heretofore prevailed in publishing papers in this country has been very prejudicial to all concerned. It has been ruinous to the publisher and unsatisfactory to the patrons of the paper. Believing that the growth and advancement of the city demand, we design, if the public will support us, to issue a paper that will contain the news of the whole world, and make such improvements in conducting it as our past experience will enable us to do; and to obviate the credit system we will receive subscriptions by the week, month, quarter, half-year and year.

Subscriptions can now be had in to the office of the Salt Lake Telegraph, in this city, at the following rates:

1 Year,	$12 00
