

SAYS LETTERS WERE FORGED.

Defendant in Keen-Nipper Case
Repudiates Certain Statements Concerning Money.

SAYS HE DIDN'T WRITE THEM.

Attorneys for Plaintiff Attempt to Prove That Defendant Ran a Dive in Boise.

The case of Emma J. Keen vs. Thomas J. Nipper is still on in the federal court. At the hearing today the entire morning session was devoted to cross-examination of the defendant, who was handed the different letters introduced in evidence and indicated the parts thereof which were not his. Mr. Nipper positively disclaimed the authorship of every reference to money, stating that such sentences were not in his handwriting. In one letter the sentence "In great hurry, will send money soon," was said by the witness to be in other handwriting than his. Also in others the statements, "Your money" and "I will pay you but you must go with me," were repudiated by the defendant, although the witness identified the other parts of the letters as having been written by him.

Mr. Nipper denied all knowledge of certain letters marked Exhibits 4 and 5, stating that he knew nothing of them. He identified a certain telegram as one sent to his wife and delivered by her to Judge Richards at Boise, from whom he secured it.

AN UNLEARNED BUSINESS MAN.
Answering questions concerning his education, Mr. Nipper stated that he had very little, in fact he had only had 18 months' schooling in his life. In his early manhood he worked for wages, spending a good portion of his time as a bartender and a saloon man. He sold out his liquor business in Boise to engage in the sheep business, from which he had derived most of his present wealth. In this connection the attorneys for plaintiff endeavored to show that Mr. Nipper ran a dive in Boise, but the question tending to bring this out was objected to by the attorneys for the defense and the objection sustained.

The remainder of the cross-examination was in the nature of an effort to test and break down, if possible, the credibility of the witness, and while he was somewhat puzzled at times in accounting for certain expenditures he is alleged to have made, he made a fairly good showing, aided by the objections of his attorneys.

Mr. Nipper testified that he became intimate with Miss Keen in March, 1892, at which time there had been no talk of probable divorce between him and his wife. He told of his correspondence with plaintiff and of spending between $1,500 and $2,000 in furnishing her office in Denver, which was fitted up in the most approved style, including a bicycle and other necessary incidentals for the use of the doctor, to aid her in her practice as a physician.

The defendant was still on the stand when an adjournment was taken till this afternoon.

INQUEST TO BE HELD.

Family Will Pay All Expenses Into
Inquiry of Death of Griffin.

(Special to the "News.")
Ogden, Utah, Dec. 7.—An inquest is to be held to determine the circumstances and fix the responsibility of the death of Herbert J. Griffin, who was killed in a Southern Pacific wreck at Monticello, Nev., on Monday. The inquest is to be held at the request and the expense of the family of the deceased.

Dr. Padon was arraigned this morning before Judge Howell on charges of obtaining money by fraudulent representations from William Blinford. He pleaded guilty, and was committed to jail for 2 p. m. tomorrow.

DR. PADON REPORTS.

Tells the Ministerial Association of His Trip to Washington.

The Ministerial association listened this morning to a recital from Rev. Dr. W. H. Padon of his trip to the east. The session being entirely executive, no report of what he said was given out by the secretary, but the doctor stated to a "News" reporter that what he said had been practically given in already published interviews with local papers. He stated that he went east primarily to take part in the settlement of his father's estate in Pennsylvania, and then went to Philadelphia to visit with his former church people, and to buy glass and fixtures for the new church edifice in this city, as well as to attend the interdenominational convention at Philadelphia. After that he went on to Washington, Dr. Padon said the attitude of the senate in the case of Senator Blinn, was one largely of indifference, owing to the pressure before it of so many momentous questions, and the matter would not be brought up seriously before the beginning of the new year. At that time the senate will decide whether to have the committee on elections sit in Washington or hold sessions in this city. Dr. Padon said the senate would not differentiate between polygamy and polygamous relations. He found more manifested in the matter of Senator Blinn than he had anticipated.

Another speaker at the meeting of the Ministerial association was Rev. Dr. Henry C. Mable of Boston, who gave information on the progress of Baptist missions throughout the world. At the close of the meeting, about 25 Baptist people sat down to lunch at the Wilson Cafe in honor of Dr. Mable, and a pleasant hour was spent.

CALIENTES ON WANE.

Saloons Are Moving South With the Contractors.

Within miles of track have now been laid beyond Caliente, and to the terminal the contractors are now moving their camps. This is rapidly thinning out the saloons at Caliente. The grading contractors' camps extend 75 miles in the direction of Los Angeles. The watchword of the San Pedro is Calientes is now the watchword of the British army during Kitchener's Khartoum campaign. "Further back!"

MILITIA RELIEVED OF SENTRY WORK.

(Special to the "News.")

Summit, Dec. 7.—Since the visit of Brig. Gen. Canby to this camp there has been a change inaugurated where in the past sentry guard has been relieved from the arduous duty of guarding the company property. The work of the militia has been confined to patrol duty. The building coke ovens and other structures owned by the Utah Fuel company are now being guarded by the armed deputy sheriffs. Everything is now quiet here.

Vice President Kramer arrived here last night and is looking over the situation and making arrangements for the firing of additional coke ovens.

There are 180 miners at work today and 681 tons of coal were dumped on Saturday.

Reports received this morning at the Utah Fuel offices from the coal fields state that Saturday's output was 318 tons in excess of the output for Friday, the heaviest increase being at Winter Quarters. The company is still sending down new men, and its officials appear to be gratified with the situation.

They deny direct Demolli's assertion about the wages actually received, and say that the average miner's wages ranged before the recent increase from $2.25 to $3.75 for all men in the mines. The assertion that "Thal had access to the company's books in making his investigations," is denied also.

STOCKMEN'S PASSES.

The new order relative to the abolition of return passes from market centers for stockmen takes effect Jan. 1 next. The right men say that it is no unusual thing for men desiring to go east to pay shippers of livestock $10 for a chance to go out with the livestock, and men afterwards sell their return transportation. This has made the railroad people very irked.

White There Is Life There Is Hope.

I WAS afflicted with catarrh; could neither taste nor smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it.—Marcus G. Shantz, Rahway, N. J.

CREAM BALM reached me safely and the effect is surprising. My son says the first application gave decided relief. Respectfully, Mrs. Franklin Freeman, Dover, N. H.

The balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50 cts or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.

Amusements

"The Bonnie Brier Bush" company arrived from Denver on time this morning, and is quartered at the various hotels. Mr. Stoddard and his daughter being among the first to get settled. Bob Easton will make his headquarters at the residence of his brother-in-law, Hon. Spencer Clawson, where Mrs. Easton was waiting to receive him. She will go with the company through its California and Oregon tour, returning to Salt Lake from Butte, Genial Bob is as big, handsome, and apparently in as good voice as ever. His friends and admirers will judge of the latter at the presentation this evening at the Theater.

Mr. Stoddard is in excellent form and is glad to get back to the scene of his many old-time triumphs. "The Bonnie Brier Bush" will run from tonight till Friday inclusive, with a Wednesday matinee.

At the Grand last night Held's band drew a good turnout, the features being a selection by four cornets played by Messrs. Held, Zimmerman, Leslie and Johnson. Miss Cluff, the vocalist, made a very good impression.
