an, Judge W. I. Snider, Councliman T. R. Black, Attorney Will Ray, and Allen T. Sanford, all of them agreeing that it would be an unwise civic policy to ex-tend the franchise for a longer term. Before adjournment a committee of 109 citizens, with O W. Powers as chair-man, was appointed to work for the de-feat of the franchise petition in the city council, and a resolution was adopted expressing the views of those present. A trolley wire at Main and Fourth South streets snapped yesterday at 4 p. m., and instead of falling to the ground, it curled around one of the other wires and hung there. A Jordan Bridge car conductor tried to get by, and "took chances" on being scorched. The dangling wire broke the front win-dow of the vestibule and came near hitting the motorman, and scraping the length of the car roof sent off a showe of sparks and terrified the passengers The assembly was called to order at 8:30 o'clock by President Thomas Hom-er, who called Judge O.
