Foraker resumed his state erose examination he said he had been on friendly relations with Sentator Sherman had summor and, in fact, had never been on any other terms with him that he knew of. He said not know Senator Sherman was in the country when he got the forged paper. He had not method the head of the said had not been supported by the said of the Foraher wanted to get hold of a pager to get square with Rein Butter-worth and witness agreed to get it for him. It was not to be published, but to be shown around political headquarters, etc.

The chairman ashed if witness had precured the forgery. Wood replied that he had getten up a pager for Foraher and if he could make anybody believe it was genuine all right. He believed he was being "played" and housed the politicians would get along without his help hereafter.

This closed the examination, and paper that would injure Campbell in the campaign.

Wilmest replied that that was woods' testiness. He had not the slightest doubt of the grantienness of McKinley's, or indeed any of the signatures.

Grovenor asked if Governor Campbell, before the campaign, had not borne a good regulation.

Wilmest replied that be did not know him until he was nominated. From that moment he heard no end of stories about him and ended by getting a had option about him.

Growenor—As if he was not surprised to see that Senstor Sherman had signed such a paper.

Witness rapiled that his mind had been so prepared, after believing Mcarguments on the Springer Okla homa Territory till were heard by the House committee on territories today.
