

WHAT WILL BE HARRY THAW'S FATE?

His Petition May be Granted and He Be Permitted to Go Absolutely Free.

MAY BE DECLARED INSANE.

Petitioner Left Courtroom on Last Day of Taking Testimony With Jaunty and Satisfied Air.

White Plains, N. Y., Aug. 6.—Harry K. Thaw's latest struggle to regain his freedom will end tomorrow. The submission of testimony in his hearing before Justice Mills closed today, and all that remains is the final arguments of the attorneys. Justice Mills will file his decision with the county clerk Thursday, Aug. 12.

Several possibilities confront Thaw. The court may grant his plea and make him absolutely free. It may decide that he has not established his sanity and refuse to interfere, in which case the state authorities will probably send him back to Matteawan hospital for the criminal insane. But Justice Mills has further discretionary powers. He may feel that Thaw's mental condition is still in doubt, and for that reason delay a final order, meanwhile paroling Thaw in the custody of some officer or placing him on his own recognizance in the care of his family. Or he may declare Thaw insane, but moved by his mother's complaint regarding his surroundings at Matteawan, send him to some other hospital not peopled with criminals.

Thaw left the courtroom with jaunty step. The strain of the past four weeks during which he has submitted personally to 14 hours of cross-examination was not apparent. At no time has he expressed anything but satisfaction with the results and confidence in the success of his case.

The evidence presented in behalf of Thaw was not dramatic outburst by his mother, Mrs. Mary Conley Thaw.

Her last words were a denunciation of Dr. Atty. Jerome. Earlier in the day she had read a list of names distinguished in New York society. They were guests, she said, at a dinner she gave at New York which Harry attended before his marriage.

"I brought in the names of those who attended that dinner to my son," she said, "because of the statements of Mr. Jerome regarding the company Harry was accustomed to keep. I do not have any special enmity toward Mr. Jerome, but he certainly has not behaved in this matter in a gentlemanly way, nor in a Christian way. Mr. Jerome always talked about Harry's being a gentleman, but he is a scoundrel, when he knows as well as any one that my boy never went to the tenderloin until he met a certain person."

Mrs. Thaw's testimony was frequently interrupted by sobbing, as she described Harry's surroundings at Matteawan. "That place seemed to me like a vestibule to the infernal regions," she said.

The principal new witness today was Roger O'Meara, formerly chief of police of Pittsburgh. He corroborated the stories about Stanford White.

The greater part of the day was devoted to a re-examination of Thaw's alienists. Jerome attacked the examination with every device of the skilled cross-examiner. He roused the ire of Dr. Britton D. Evans by asking if he was the subject of the denunciation of medical expert witnesses delivered yesterday by Governor Franklin Fort of New Jersey. Dr. Evans is superintendent of the New Jersey state insane hospital at Morris Plains.

The expert replied that he declined to go into personalities.

Dr. Isham G. Harris of the Poughkeepsie state asylum, also received a grilling. Both alienists stuck to their assertion that whatever Thaw's mental condition might have been when he shot Stanford White, he was now sane. They left the stand unshaken.

DELMAS DENIAL.

New York, Aug. 6.—Delphin M. Delmas, who was one of Harry K. Thaw's counsel in the first trial for the killing of Stanford White, tonight denied that at any time during the Thaw trial he had demanded the doubling of his fee.

fee, with the alternative of quitting the case.

Mrs. William Thaw testified yesterday that she was told by one of the lawyers on the eve of the opening of the first trial that Mr. Delmas would drop the case unless he was paid a larger fee and accordingly, she said, $50,000 was promised him instead of the $25,000 before agreed upon.

"Mrs. Thaw's statement is most unwarrantable and unjust," Mr. Delmas declared in support of his position. He quoted a letter from Clifford Hartley, who, he said, made all the arrangements with the Thaws for his employment in the case. This letter, dated today, follows:

"Dear Mr. Delmas: There is absolutely not the slightest foundation for Mrs. Thaw's statement. It is untrue, as I made the arrangements concerning what you were to be paid with you and her as far back as October, 1906, when it was agreed that you should have $50,000. Harry K. Thaw was to pay $25,000 and she was to pay you the balance. I still have her letter in regard to the subject."

WIDOW FILES HER APPLICATION FOR HUSBAND

New York, Aug. 7.—An Indianapolis widow has written a letter to Commissioner of Immigration Williams requesting that she be placed on file at Ellis Island for a desirable husband.

The widow, whose name will be given to any unattached male person who is in earnest, writes that she has been informed that the benevolent government is furnishing brides for immigrants, and asked the commissioner to please place her name on the list of eligibles should any immigrant be seeking a mate of mature years.

She describes herself as an unencumbered widow, aged 35, five feet, six inches tall, weighing 160 pounds, of good appearance, and address, accomplished, domesticated, thoroughly healthy and of amiable disposition.

BARRICADED DOORS TO SHUT OUT DEATH

Lathrobe, Pa., Aug. 7.—Following the death last Monday of her aged husband, John Gardner, a Civil war veteran, Mrs. Gardner has lost her reason, refusing to admit any one to her home near Ligonier, and having interfered with the funeral and burial.

She was alone with her husband when he died and is possessed with an idea she could protect herself from the entrance of death if she barricaded the house. She fastened the windows, drew the shades, bolted and locked the doors and piled furniture against them and then lighted lamps.

She dragged the body of her husband from a bed to the floor. Wednesday she appeared on the streets and when asked regarding her husband's health, she said he was dead or sleeping, and that she could not arouse him.

When neighbors went to the house, they saw the body on the floor and sent for an undertaker. He was refused entrance, but returned later with a constable. The woman refused to have any preparations made for the funeral. When neighbors came to comfort her, she drove them from the house. The body was taken from the place and the funeral was held at the Methodist Episcopal church at Etna. The widow did not attend but locked herself in the house and would admit no one. The case is being investigated by the authorities.

ADVISED TO SIAM.

New York, Aug. 7.—Jens Sverson Westengard of Chicago has been created an adviser to the Siam government according to a cablegram from Bangkok. Mr. Westengard, who is now in Bangkok, where he has been serving for two years as assistant general adviser, will start for America within a week to make a short visit to his old home.

After completing the course in the Chicago public schools, Mr. Westengard, who is 35 years old, took a degree at the Harvard law school in 1898. He conducted a banking and real estate business in Chicago until he was appointed to the position in Siam. His work there has been so satisfactory to the king and the government that his quick promotion has followed.

OLD MAN WAS TORTURED NEARLY TO DEATH

Sharto, Wis., Aug. 7.—Details of cruelty to an old man suspected as a thief, were brought out in a trial here yesterday. Accused of robbing Andrew Johnson, a farmer, of a trial purse containing $73, Frank Allen was tortured almost to death at Cataract, Wis., on July 21. He was hanged to the rafters of a barn by a crowd of Johnson's friends.

Eight men were arrested, two of whom are physicians, and seven are now being tried for the crime. They are Andrew Johnson, Edward Mayfield, Frank Young, Dr. Hedron, Amusing pocket book was found. The Frank Masterson.

Dr. Wilbur Davis was discharged yesterday and went on the stand for the state. He told the story of the torture. According to him, the men caught Allen near Mayfield's barn, and after beating him until his face was unrecognizable, took him into the barn and hanged him by the neck to the rafters.

Dr. Hedron held his pulse and when his physical condition required attention, ordered that he be let down for a brief rest. He was hanged in this manner three times, the last time being taken down unconscious.

After being with difficulty brought back to life, he was taken to the river to be ducked. Near the river the crowd, Baumeister Mengel and mob then turned Allen over to a justice of the peace, who ordered him out of town.

MIDSHIPMAN WHITING'S NOTABLE PERFORMANCE

Washington, Aug. 7.—The navy department has received a report of a notable performance by Midshipman Kenneth Whiting, in command of the submarine Porpoise, now in Manila. For the purpose of demonstrating the possibility of an escape from a submerged submarine, through a torpedo tube, Midshipman Whiting, who is an expert swimmer, had his vessel levered to the bottom of the bay near Cavite.

Far under the water, probably 60 or 70 feet, Whiting crawled into the torpedo tube. The end of the tube in the bow was closed behind him. The tube in a submarine is closed or opened on the outside by a port, which is moved by powerful machinery.

When under the water there is a great pressure against the port cover, and it takes a lot of power to make it swing out and upwards. When it does swing, there is a great inrush of water, filling the tube as the torpedo flies out.

Waiting, within the tube, not a hold on the port. The officers inside the vessel turned on the power and the port was swung out. Whiting went with it, clearing himself of the torpedo tube and then let go, flying upward to the surface of the water. He was uninjured by his experience.

LITTLE LIGHT ON SUTTON CASE

Surgeon Cook Thinks it Would Have Been Difficult for Sutton To Have Shot Himself.

BUT BELIEVES HIM A SUICIDE

Lieut. Utley Couldn't Recall Whether Or Not Were Three Men on Sutton When He Was Shot.

Annapolis, Aug. 6.—The reappearance on the witness stand today of Mrs. James N. Sutton, mother of Lieut. Sutton of Portland, Or., whose death is being investigated by the naval board of inquiry here, was the signal for a heated controversy between the lawyers, which ended in a prolonged conference and brought the day's proceedings to an abrupt ending.

Judge Advocate Leonard before proceeding with Mrs. Sutton's examination offered for identification, and to be read in evidence, several letters which he said Mrs. Sutton had written containing serious charges against the officers of the marine corps who appeared as defendants.

"The United States has been put to a large expense in bringing witnesses here from all parts of the world," said Maj. Leonard, "and it becomes my painful duty to offer these letters in evidence in order to enlighten the court as fully as possible on all matters pertaining to this inquiry."

Henry E. Davis, counsel for Mrs. Sutton, objected on the ground that Mrs. Sutton was present, and that the letters in question were irrelevant to the inquiry and of a personal and incompetent evidence.

"It is inconceivable that the judge advocate should attempt to force Mrs. Sutton to such a position before this board of inquiry," said Mr. Davis. "These letters are not offered to assist this court in finding out how Lieut. Sutton met his death. But these letters, containing, perhaps, the extravagant statements of a mother with a stricken heart over the death of her son, should be read before a curious world, is indeed unique and cruel."

Maj. Leonard declared Mr. Davis had misunderstood the judge advocate's position, and asked that the lawyers' remarks implying bad faith on his part be stricken from the record.

"I would have Mr. Davis remember," he said, "that the hallowed grave of a dead son is no more sacred than the reputation of a living officer, and there are many such reputations at stake here."

The judge advocate said the court had the right to inquire upon what grounds Mrs. Sutton had made the statements in the letters.

Mr. Birney, counsel for Lieut. Adams, protested that Mrs. Sutton had consistently tried to avoid her true position, and urged that the letters be read. At this point Commander Hood, president of the board, ordered court closed and went into conference with his associates and the judge advocate.

Later, Commander Hood announced that the letters would be read in closed court tomorrow to the interested parties and their counsel.

Following the completion of Lieut. Utley's cross-examination at the morning session Surgeon T. R. Cook was a witness. He testified that he performed the autopsy on Sutton's body and declared from the nature of the bullet wound it must have been difficult for him to shoot himself, holding the revolver in the ordinary manner. He added, however, that it was his belief Lieut. Sutton committed suicide.

"You testified that you woke up Col. Raven that night and told him Sutton had committed suicide, didn't you?" asked Mr. Davis on cross-examination of Lieut. Utley.

"That is right," said the witness. "What you meant was that you had seen Sutton shoot himself, either intentionally or unintentionally, wasn't it?"

"Yes, sir; not necessarily one or the other. That was my understanding of suicide," replied Lieut. Utley.

Lieut. Utley could not recall that there were three men on top of Sutton at the time he was shot. Besides himself, there was one other man, whom he did not recognize at the time, the witness said.

TITLES OBTAINED FROM INDIANS GOOD

Muskogee, Okla., Aug. 6.—Judge Ralph E. Campbell this afternoon sustained the demurrers of defendants in 30,000 Indian land alienation suits brought by the government. The actions by the government were ordered dismissed. The court held that the titles obtained from the Indians before the act removing restrictions went into effect are good.

LINCOLN PENNIES NOT POPULAR

Philadelphia, Aug. 6.—The order of the treasury department at Washington to discontinue until further notice the coinage of the new one-cent pieces was received today by the superintendent of the Philadelphia mint. The coinage of the new pennies was begun in June and up to the time the order was received today 27,995,000 of the coins had been minted. About 14,000,000 of the coins have already been distributed throughout the country and the remainder will be shipped as rapidly as the demand develops.
