TERRITORIAL DISPATCHES A Strange Affair.

Monday evening a lecture will be NEPHI, Feb. 13. delivered under the auspices of the Enitor Deseret News:

Yesterday morning, at Mona, Mr. Williams, J. P., on going out of doors discovered his dog with a young child, that had apparently been dead several days, naked and frozen solid. It is supposed by some there has been foul play in the matter. The child was buried the matter. The child was buried last evening. The county authorities, on learning the particulars, this morning are making arrangements to have the affair thoroughly examned into.

A large and influential body o Roman Catholics in this city, of Irish birth and descent, have revolted against priestly domination in secular and social affairs. The Bishop insists they shall have a priest at their head and be subject o clerical control. The revolters refuse, and say they will manage their own affairs in their own way. They intimate that there is a pro-per sphere for the Church, and that in this case it has passed beyond that sphere. The progress of the feud will be watched with interest. -Cleveland Herald.
