TEACHER'S INSTITUTE.

Utah County Pedagogues Meet in the Mountains.

HEADWATERS OF THE DIAMOND, WASATCH RANGE, Utah Co., Utah, June 13, 1887.

Editor Deseret News:

As per instructions from the county superintendent, the teachers of the various school districts of this county met at Spanish Fork, Friday evening last, preparatory to starting on our mountain trip. While there a miscellaneous concert, interspersed with dancing was highly enjoyed by all present.

Promptly at six o'clock on Saturday morning the

was on the move towards its destination. In traveling up Spanish Fork Canon traces of the old Spanish trail are still discernible in places where the Rio Grande and wagon roads have not obliterated it rugged remains. Strange contrast: Here, not half a century since, painted savages of low type, full of degraded tastes and habits, were lords of the hills and kings of the valleys. Here they often met in mortal combat, Shoshones and Utes, warring for the possession of some "Minnehaha." In their nightly orgies the mountains resounded with the triumphs of inglorious victory, while the pale moon looked down upon diabolical scenes of writhing agony and bloody carnage. Now can be seen the "Little Giant," loaded with products and passengers from every clime, winding through the narrow defile and bearing marks of the highest civilization yet attained. Numerous wagoners, too, pass to and fro daily in various pursuits of an industrial and peaceable nature. The ancient sites of the Indian wigwam has long since been ploughed up and farms, unrivaled for fertility, dot the bottom of the once bloody gorge across a ravine, from where the Institute is now in session, a not many years since was fought between the early settlers and the thieving aborigines, in which the brave boys of Utah were victorious.

Leaving the main fork of the cañon we ascend the easy and continuous grade of Diamond Fork, passing several well tilled farms with a prospective abundance next harvest. Herds of cattle are seen browsing on either side and on the brow of yon declivity, close by, a dozen or so fat looking deer boldly assert their rights to life and liberty under the protecting ægis of the law. Not so with the speckled trout, dreading the near approach of the day, when the merciless angler may without fear or favor, break into their domestic relationship—they have gone to parts unknown, along the upper part of the route is grand, marvelous and sublime. Here nature seems to have lavished her highest artistic powers in an endless variety of forms, in imitation of man's progressive achievements from the artificial caves of Europe's remote inhabitants to the everlasting pyramids of Egypt, the walls of Babylon, the Coliseum of Rome, the tottering temples of the Incas and the half-hidden castles of Britain. A huge mastodon-head nearly perfect—is descending to quench his thirst, and close at hand is a loving wife still weeping o'er the grave of her departed husband, whose skeleton remains are visible from the roadside, standing upright in a miniature catacomb. Here are mammals, birds, fishes, reptiles; unique architectural and mechanical designs, grotesque images, and saints of yore kneeling at sacred shrines.

THE SCENERY

We are now established and

PROPERLY ORGANIZED,

for two weeks' work and pleasure in a beautiful shady grove, through whose thick foliage the sun's rays scarcely penetrate.

In my next I will give an account of the work, etc., done to that date.

Respectfully,
JOS. A. REES.

PACIFIC COAST NOTES.

CULLED FROM LATEST WESTERN EXCHANGES.

The Santa Barbara, Cal., Independent says: Messrs. Gould, Barker and others are building a dam at the headwaters of Cold Spring Cañon that will have a capacity of several millions of gallons. It is a stupendous affair, and the embankment, consisting of stone and cement, is about thirty feet wide.

Advices from Eagle Creek, Graham County, A. T., June 8, say that Deputy Sheriff Miller, of Apache County, killed Ike Clanton at Pegleg Wilson's ranch while Clanton was resisting arrest. Clanton was a notorious desperado, and belonged to a gang of horse-thieves. He was at the head of the Tombstone gang in early days.

The Portland Oregonian says: The flood in the Columbia has washed out some of the wheels at the Cascades, and rendered others useless, and owing to the amount of drift running, those who fish for this market with seins are unable to use them. A few salmon are caught at Oregon City, and they are about all the fish now coming to this market.

On the evening of June 9th, about 9 o'clock, Oscar Kelty went to the house of his father-in-law, Mr. Glanden, in Salem, Or., and asked to see his wife, who had left him. He was shown into the parlor and asked his wife to live with him again. She refused, when he pulled out a revolver and shot her through the head, the shot proving fatal a short time afterward. Kelty then shot himself in the breast and ran away to a neighbor's house. His wound is a bad one, but he will probably recover.

A dispatch dated Grimes' Landing, Colusa County, Cal., June 10, says: Last night a Chinaman attempted the robbery of the residence of L. B. Tucker, near this place. A rope was adjusted to the door-knob outside and securely fastened to a projection to prevent any one from passing out. Mr. Tucker grapled with the Chinaman and tore three shirts from his person and received a cut on the hand, while Mrs. Tucker was cut in the temple with a sharp instrument. A warrant will be sworn out this morning, and Mr. Chinaman corralled, if possible.

A dispatch from Salem, Oregon, dated June 8 says: The engineer of the California express discovered a man lying alongside the track a mile below town this evening on a small bridge. The brakes were applied, but the train could not be stopped in time. When the engine reached him he raised his head and was struck in the forehead by the pilot and knocked into the ditch. The train was stopped, and the man, who was still alive, was picked up and brought here. He was found to be S. Vincent, who, being childish, had wandered off down the track and fallen in a fit. He lived only a short time.

The Contra Costa Gazette of a recent date says: A couple of catfish recently caught by Charles Perry, superintendent of Mr. Black's salmon cannery at Martinez, were full of salmon spawn and minnows. This ought to settle the question of whether or not the introduction of catfish into our rivers was a serious blow at the salmon industry. The bay, rivers and sloughs are now filled with catfish, and they undoubtedly feed upon salmon spawn and newly-hatched salmon. Between the cannery men and fishermen, who, as a rule, have not scrupled to catch salmon by the wholesale, both in and out of season, and the sea-lions and catfish, that industry is already a thing of the past.

Inflamatory rheumatism subdued and cured by St. Jacobs Oil.

DON'T BE IMPOSED UPON

By your grocer with Cheap Soaps; insist on having "Colorado Star" or "Denver Best." These are full weight and pure.

Brace up.

You are feeling depressed, your appetite is poor, you are bothered with headache, you are fidgetty, nervous, and generally out of sorts, and want to brace up. Brace up, but not with stimulants, spring medicines, or bitters, which have for their basis very cheap, bad whisky, and which stimulate you for an hour, and then leave you in worse condition than before. What you want is an alterative that will purify your blood, start healthy action of Liver and Kidneys, restore your vitality, and give renewed health and strength. Such a medicine you will find in Electric Bitters, and only 50 cents a bottle at Z. C. M. I. Drug Store. 3

How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.

As a general family remedy for Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever use anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.
