HE PROSPERITY FAIR SNAP-SHOTS FROM I

TONIGHT AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BUILDING.

MUST BE SUBMITTED TO PROVO RESIDENTS

Depot like Contensersy is Subject To a Special Direction.

give the Denver & Rio Grande West-that the council was to overstep its authority ing an exclusive franchise to the all company to use a certain without a popular vote, and a mine order was asked.

cause which was dismissed and the plaintiff declined to almand compaint is reinstated with disto oversule the demurrer and the railroad company a chance were the complaint.

Tomight, it o'clock, all aboard, Sultair court says in conclusion, that

DARWIN CENTENNAKY.

Utah Academy of Sciences Celebrates

The Occasion With Program. The Utah Academy of Science last night celebrated the contempary of Darwin at the public library, the program being entirely in line with the life work of the great English scientist.

Papers were read as follows:
The program for last night included several papers, the topics, with the speakers being:
"Deswin, the Man," by Prof. W. W.

"Factors in Zoological Evolution," by Dr. John Sundwall, U. of U.

"Factors in Botanical Evolution," by Dr. C. T. Vorbies, U. of U.

Following these addresses, a general discussion, led by Dr. E. D. Ball of the Utah Agricultural college was held.

The program for this afternoon meeting, which will be held in the public library hall, is as follows:

"Fac Adaptation of Insects, With Special reference to Arid Conditions," Dr. E. D. Ball.

"Philippine Birds," Chaptain Joseph Dr. E. D. Ball.

"Philippine Birds," Chaptain Joseph Dr. E. D. Ball.

"Thoney Ants," S. O. Garrett of the Salt Lake High school.

"Orbital Glands of Amphibians," P.

G. Snow.

Why not spend Arbor day at Taonic