Dr. Oronbyatekha, the Indian for whose education the Prince of Wales made provision while on his tour in Canada, has proved himself well worthy of his royal benefactor. He has distinguished himself in the University, become a master of the Science of Medicine, and a learned and eloquent speaker. He is directing his abilities toward the improvement and advancement of his own people, the "Six Nations," of Brant.

Washington, 27.—The Senate arms committee this morning examined Herman Funke, of the house of Herman, Baker & Co. The witness having been asked as to the sales of arms in October, 1870, said he became acquainted with the facts by a North German house, and came to Washington and called on Baron Gerolt, whom he informed that he would buy on the required terms, if he (Gerolt) would guarantee to him the same margin as this government demanded from purchasers. The baron replied that he could not do so, having no such authority, as the time for receiving bids had WASHINGTON, 27 .- The Senate arms ity, as the time for receiving bids had been postponed. The Laws of Domestic Storm :- House

There are periods in life (says the Pall Mall Gazette) when blood relations seem born to harass and bewilder each disour other. Where is the son, who on arriving at age has not gone in the very opposite direction to his father's wishes, either with regard to calling, opinions, or marriage? Where is the father who has not waked up some morning to the conviction that with the best intentions in the world the paternal relation is a in the world the paternal relation is a failure? If he is a philosopher, he will submit to the inevitable with a good grace, and urge: "Yes, it is all very well to dream when my son lay in his cradle, how happy I should be if he ever grew up to be a man. To have him as a friend, companion, and adviser. Ah! life would indeed be worth having. But how differently things turn out to what one expects.

The Pull Moll Gazette says: "The success which has marked the exportation of small-pox from the United Kingdom to the United States, free of duty, must have surpassed the most sanguine hopes of those interested in the Society for the Diffusion of Diseases."

Nouns ending in ey form their plural time or other wait?

But why should we lose faith in our relations if, when weighed in the balance they are found wanting? In nine cases out of ten ther? is a very inadequate basis for domestic discord, conjugal, parestal, or fraternal. The beginning and end is most often disappointment. A wise man will never let his wife know that he has fallen off his ideal. The wise woman will never show that she does not think her husband a hero.
