

RECEPTION TO MR. NAWARAH.

Blessed by the First Presidency at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jenkins.

A quiet though elegant and pleasant reception was given by the First Presidency last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Jenkins, to honor Mr. H. Nagurny, of Hungary.

The reception was from 8 to 10 o'clock and those present were of course Mr. Nagurny and the Rev. Mr. Ulmer and wife, while several of the gentlemen during their sojourn in this city. All of the members of the First Presidency—President Willard Woodruff, George G. Cannon and Joseph Smith, were in attendance, as were also Lorenzo Snow, F. D. Behunin, Brigham Young, Heber C. Grant, E. M. Lyman and A. H. Cannon, and the wives of the members of the First Presidency, Captain William Young, Bishop George F. Whiting, Dr. H. M. Petersen, Joseph Brown and others. Most of these gentlemen were accompanied by members of their families.

The time was pleasantly spent in social conversation and in listening to various accounts of travel and instrumental music, many refreshments were served during the reception.

AMUSEMENTS.

The CONCORD OPERA CO. will be known in Salt Lake, The CONCORD OPERA CO., as it is now known, opens a two night engagement at the Theatre this evening. The company stands high in the ranks of musical organizations, and as the works to be given enough. The program is new, a genuine wreath of beauty and refinement will be offered.

Gaines City, Rich Co., Utah, March 25, 1894.—The Y. M. & Y. L. M. I. A. held their regular monthly camp meeting on Sunday evening last. Although the roads around town were in a very bad condition, there was no moral or good turnout. The program was very efficiently rendered throughout. H. B. Turley was on for a while, and was present and really rendered, singing all his while his impressive bass voice, which created much interest, shouting forth with fire-piercing the rhythmic note, after which another, sustained, and finally a solo, all of which was well received. The "Gaines W. C." then took the stage, and whistling up with "Home Sweet Home," it was loudly applauded, something that has not been allotted heretofore, and would not have been on this occasion but it is born for the rich in crowds.

Much interest was manifested in these meetings. On Y. M. & Y. L. M. I. A. days the audience was mostly of the young, and the meetings were conducted in a simple manner.

The infant daughter of Brother and Sister A. C. Lillard welcomed to the assembly with a hearty "Hallelujah" when the organist struck the notes of the hymn.

The band stopped to the center of the room, and rendered a solo of the "Hallelujah" hymn, when which was followed by a solo of "Jesus Is Risen." The band stopped to the center of the room, and rendered a solo of the "Hallelujah" hymn, when which was followed by a solo of "Jesus Is Risen."
