HAYES IN THE WEST.

His Enthusiastic Welcome by the Californians.

THE PARTY AT BENECIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, 9.—A Benecia dispatch says: The Presidential party arrived here at 10 and was greeted by a national salute by a detachment from the United States Arsenal. At least 2,000 people assembled at the depot, including the pupils of the Benecia schools. The greeting was most enthusiastic. A speech of welcome was made by Hon. L. B. Mizener. President and Mrs. Hayes and party descended from the cars and were joined on the great ferry boat by the entire assemblage who accompanied them across from South Benecia. The town and shipping in port are gaily decked.

AT OAKLAND.

The President reached Market St. Station promptly at half-past 11, and was met by a deputation of citizens and escorted to his carriage. The other members of the party were seated in carriages and driven to the Court House, escorted by the Oakland Light Cavalry as a guard of honor. Dais had been erected along almost the entire length of the Court House, decorated handsomely with bunting and flowers as was the hall of records immediately opposite. When the party reached the Court House they were ushered in through a side entrance and thence out upon the platform. The crowd that choked the entire street met the gaze of the visitors. Hiram Labbs introduced the President, who was then escorted to the front by the Mayor who delivered the address of welcome.

The President stepped to the rail and spoke substantially as follows:

Mr. Mayor and Fellow Citizens,—I am glad to meet you. I was told that my presence was especially desired to-day because there is to be a celebration of the admission of this great State into the Union. It occurred to me that instead of being called upon as a speaker I could expect to be entertained with something of the history of the State. However, anyone instructed in the history of our country is expected to know something of the history of California. I find, though, that I am so expected to speak, I am not sorry for this. It has been said that a man who does not have much regard for his ancestors will not be likely to leave much for posterity. Though this State is rather young to talk much of ancestors, yet I am glad to see it commemorating the pioneers. I am glad to join with you in this pioneer celebration of the admission of California into the Union.

The President then referred to the fraternal feeling of the people in the east for the people of this State. He continued: They expect you to build an empire here that shall dominate the commerce of the Pacific. I doubt not that you will meet their expectations. He spoke of how most of the families had a son or daughter in California, and the consequent interest taken in the State. He also referred to the prosperity existing and enjoyed by a great portion of the country, and hoped we would come into that prosperity which is now blessing the rest of America.

Having concluded, Gen. Sherman was introduced and made some pleasant remarks, referring to his own California experience.

Secretary Ramsay followed in a well-timed speech, thanking the people for the reception and speaking of his early experiences in Minnesota, and concluded with an eloquent tribute to the people.

Governor Perkins made a short speech, after which General McCook was called for and spoke briefly.

General McDowell made a few remarks, and the party were then escorted to their carriages, which filed into the line of procession. With the President were Governor Perkins, Mayor Blethen and Hiram Lubbs. The procession formed on the east side of Broadway and thence marched through the principal streets in the following order: Police first, artillery regiment, California Pioneers, Oakland Light Cavalry, Veterans of the Mexican War, Veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic, Roulett Cadets, McClure Cadets, Native Sons of the Golden West, Haywards', San Leandro, Alameda and Oakland fire departments, Gen. Sherman, Sheehan and staff, Senator Booth, Congressman Page, Governor Perkins and staff, and the municipal authorities of Oakland. The Veterans of the Mexican War surrounded the President's carriage in its course through the streets. All Oakland is out on the streets, which are elegantly decorated with flags, evergreens, etc.

AT SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, 9.—The President and party lunched in Oakland to-day, at the residence of Ex-Surveyor General Houghton, where Mrs. Hayes remained during the afternoon, receiving ladies, while the President, at the termination of the ceremonies, proceeded to the ferry-boat escorted by reception committees, and the Oakland Light Cavalry. Meantime throughout the streets of the San Francisco line of march, thousands had gathered, securing advantageous points to witness the procession, while the space at the foot Market Street presented a lively scene, crowded with spectators, and which the police, and a squadron of cavalry with some difficulty maintained an open space for the movements of the cortege. City officials, consular representatives, officers of the army and navy, and carriages, were admitted to the ferry docks and the gates were kept closed to keep out a press of people. At 3.40 the ferry steamer having the President and party on board reached the slip and a landing was effected. The President, advances, between the lines formed by the naval and military officers and consuls to where Supervisor Stetson was waiting to welcome him on behalf of the city, while a salute of artillery, cheers of the crowd and music of the band announced his advance. Introductions being made, Mr. Stetson, after a brief address, presented the President, with the engrossed resolutions of the Board of Supervisors welcoming and extending to him the freedom of the city. Col. T. B. Jackson followed on behalf of the citizens, and upon him the well-timed remarks of the President replied to the addresses simply by the inclination of his head and handshaking, and after a few moments conversation, was conducted to a carriage drawn by six handsome bays, Messrs. Stetson and Jackson accompanying him. Gen. Sherman and Secretary Ramsay occupied a second carriage. Others were taken up by officers of the army and navy, consuls, Governor Perkins and staff and guests, and the gates being opened the carriages filed out. The President was received with enthusiastic cheering from the immense crowd which surrounded the dock.

The line of procession was at once formed and took up its line in the following order: Platoon of police, Grand Marshal Menzes and aids, Grand Marshal Taggart, of Oakland, and aids, the society of California Pioneers, Grand Army of the Republic, Second Brigade of the National Guard, consisting of the First, Second and Third regiments of infantry, carriages containing the President and suite, officers of the army and navy, State officers, members of committee, foreign consuls, municipal officers and invited guests, Gatling battery, light artillery, battery A., First battalion cavalry, National Guard, First regiment artillery, National Guard.

The route of the procession was up Market to California, to Sansome, Sutter to Montgomery, to Washington, to Kearney, to Market, to Sixth, counter marching to the Palace Hotel. All along the route the buildings were handsomely decorated with flags, banners, drapery and evergreens, and flags were flying from every staff and festooned across the streets. Immense crowds lined the sidewalks and packed at the street corners. The President, standing uncovered in his carriage, was greeted with a continuous roll of cheers and waving of handkerchiefs from windows and housetops.

On arriving at the Palace Hotel and on entering the court yard, the President and party, with but little delay, were conducted to their rooms to seek much needed rest, where they will be allowed to remain undisturbed till later in the evening, when a serenade will occur. The same apartments which were devoted to the use of General Grant at his recent visit have been refitted in elegant style for the occupation of the President. The weather during the day was most propitious, clear and warm, with a light breeze, and the reception passed off in the most satisfactory and enthusiastic manner.

IN THE EVENING.

During the evening the streets around the Palace Hotel and great court and galleries, have been thronged with people, listening to the strains of the band, and awaiting the appearance of the President. The court is beautifully decorated with flags, shields, banners, festoons and evergreens, and with six tiers of arched galleries, flashing with gas and electric lights, and crowded with gaily dressed people, it presented a brilliant appearance. About 9.30 President Hayes made his appearance on the lower balcony and was received with cheers and clapping of hands. In a few brief words he thanked the audience for the kind reception of the day and evening, excusing himself from a speech on account of fatigue. General Sherman then made his appearance, in response to loud calls, and entertained the crowd for a few moments with some of his dry humor, and introduced to the people Mrs. Hayes, who bowed her acknowledgements and retired. Demands were made for the governor and others, but no speakers appearing, the throng slowly dispersed.

POLITICAL.

Nomination.—Speculations, Etc.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., 9.—The republicans of the Seventh Congressional District renominated Wm. Godschalk.

Montgomery, Ala., 9.—The republicans of the Fourth Congressional District nominated J. O. Smith. J. T. Waite was renominated by the republicans of the Third Congressional District.

Jersey City, N. J., 9.—The republicans of the Seventh Congressional District renominated Lewis A. Brigham.

Altoona, Pa., 9.—General J. M. Campbell was nominated by the republicans of the Seventeenth Congressional District.

Chicago, 9.—The Times says: The prominent democrats of Chicago declare they have excellent reasons for believing negroes are coming here from the south in large numbers, and being distributed by republicans to points in Indiana where they will do the party the most good. The Hoosier democratic committee have been notified of the alleged facts.

Quincy, Ills., 9.—Wm. W. Morrow, chairman of the Republican State committee of California, in this city to-day, states emphatically that California and the Pacific Slope is sure for the republican ticket. Colonel Morrow left here at the age of 15. He has come back now to look after the grave of his father, who is buried at Columbus, in this county.

Cleveland, O., 9.—The republican county central committee have issued a column and a half address to the republicans of the United States for the purpose of removing the impression which misrepresentations have caused to go abroad, that the fluctuations in Garfield's vote during nine successive elections were due to any but general causes.

San Francisco, 9.—The republican convention of Washington territory met at Van Couver yesterday, and nominated Thos. H. Brents delegate to Congress. The contest in Clark County has made a split in the party, which threatens to prove disastrous.

The returns of the charter election complete are as follows: For adoption 4,145; against, 19,207.

The Fearful Canada Fire.

QUEBEC, Quebec, 9.—There has been no further destruction of buildings by brush fires in this vicinity, but a great deal of lumber, bark and grain were burned. About 100 families are made homeless and destitute in the ranges of St. Helena, St. Theodore, St. German, St. Charlotte and St. Vallerien. The estimated loss is $200,000. Fires are still raging and the inhabitants are bravely endeavoring to subdue them, but with little success.

A young man named Lessier, while endeavoring to save a family named Christie, was hemmed in by the fire and was terribly burned. His recovery is doubtful. Charles and Lorenzo Warner, of this place, went with two other men on the morning of the 6th to their property in St. German to endeavor to save hemlock bark. While piling in a patch of cleared ground they were hemmed in by the fire and their provisions and provender for horses burned. They were obliged to remain till this morning when they managed, at great personal risk, to escape.

In St. Theodore parish, the passage of the fire was so rapid that in one case where a corpse was laid in a house ready for burial, the family was obliged to bury the body close to the house to save it from being burned and flee for their lives, leaving everything to the fire.

The latest reports from St. Helena state the fire is still raging in that vicinity and that several houses have been destroyed.

Interesting Items from Mexico.

WASHINGTON, 9.—Private advices received from Mexico to-day state that President Diaz has been elected to the Senate from the State of Morelas. Benitz, one of Gonzales' most prominent opponents for election to the Presidency, has been chosen a member of the House of Deputies from the State of Pueblo. Leading opposition papers concede the election of Gonzales, although some of the opposition still hope the election will be thrown into the House of Deputies and Benitz or Gen. Mejia chosen. There seems to be no possibility of such contingency, however. It was feared at first that Garcia de la Cadina, Governor of Zactesas, might incite revolution in that State, but no outbreak has occurred there nor any where else of any consequence. The press of the country of all parties condemn revolutionary measures and declare that Mexico has passed through her revolutionary period. There is marked activity in trade in American machinery and in mining.

Postal Route.

The Postoffice Department has ordered service on the recently completed railroad between Battle Mountain, Nevada, to a point on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad and Austin, Nevada, distance about 100 miles due south from Battle Mountain, in lieu of stage service. The new service is to commence on October 1st.

The Contest.

CHICAGO, 9.—Byrne has now the lead over both horses and men and Krohne is rapidly overhauling his equine competitors. The men are, as a rule, fresh and in good spirits. The score stands: Horses—Bethmans, entry 348; Betsey Baker, 324; Rose of Texas, 330; Dunn's entry, 331; Speculator, 295, drawn.

Men—Byrne, 354; Krohne, 337; Colston, 317; Schoch, 301; Connolly, 225; Cole, 208; Jackson, 150.

The test race attracted a large crowd this evening, and betting was heavy, the spectators taking sides in favor of the animals or the men according to their confidence in the endurance of one or the other. The men are encouraged to keep on by seeming that the horses do not gain much. They were put through on the gallop to-night, however, and piled up the laps very rapidly. At 11 o'clock the score stood:

Horses—Bethman's entry, 395; Betsy Baker, 389; Dunn's entry, 385; Rose of Texas, 380.

Men—Byrne, 396; Krohne, 373; Colston, 356; Shoch, 333; Cole, 237; Connelly, 234; Jackson, 163.

A Leadville Pastime.

DENVER, 9.—The Republican's Leadville special says: At 3 o'clock this morning Thomas Morgan, former assistant superintendent of the gas works at St. Joseph, Missouri, fatally shot Richard Stevenson, a former deputy sheriff of Kansas City. Morgan had escorted Stevenson's wife, who had returned to her mother on account of ill treatment to one or two parties. Stevenson became jealous and insulted Morgan and was immediately knocked down by one of the latter's friends. Stevenson followed Morgan around town, it seems with murderous intent, but when they met the latter was too quick.

Emmett Drunk Again.

NEW YORK, 9.—At an early hour this morning, J. K. Emmett, the actor, was found helplessly drunk in the street. When taken to court, Emmett was in a terrible condition and could scarcely talk with the Judge. He was remanded until he could get over the effects of the liquor. His son was in court and helped his father into the prison hospital.

Off for a Clam Bake.

Forty Californians, including many members of the Territorial pioneers, started for Glen Island this morning, to attend a clam bake and other festivities, in honor of Admission day.

A Northeaster.

LONG ISLAND, 9.—The northeast storm is very severe. The track of the New Jersey Southern Railroad, between Highland Station and Seabright, was hid away, and suspended all travel from New York via Sandy Hook.

For 12 hours the coast has been swept by a northeast gale, blowing at the rate of 60 miles an hour. Old surf men say it is the severest September gale that has visited the place since 1854. The damage along the shore is great.

Indian Fight.

MESILLA, New Mexico, 9.—This morning, Gen. Buell sent out for the bodies of the men slaughtered near Fort Cummings, and at 2 o'clock this afternoon, the Apaches attacked the cavalry, killing one soldier and wounding two. Buell rushed forward his whole force and fighting commenced with the Indians in an open plain. Gen. Dudley is coming up with the infantry.
