have become perfected in the operation of the novelty and altogether some very artistic effects are the result.

There was a tourist out at Saltair yesterday who came very near los-ing his pocketbook and contents con-sisting of $100 and two railroad tickets. If he had done so in all probability he would have placed the blame where it did not rightly belong. It appears that he went out to Saltair in the af-that he went out to going into the ternoon and prior to going into the water he gave the major portion of his valuables to his wife to keep. When valuables to his wife to keep. When he was undressing he found that he had omitted to relieve himself of his pocketbook. After prospecting around for a likely spot to cache it he finally pushed it into a crack under the seat and then went into the water. Of course he forgot all about his pocketbook and returned to town, About o'clock all the employes around the bath houses were sent into convulsions expenses were paid, amounted to bath houses were sent into convulsions $1,2$3,427, which was an increase of by an urgent request from town over the telephone for the missing pocket-book. They searched high and low for it with no result. Then Manager McAlister turned things upside down to no effect., Finally the tourist came out on the last train and went after his property himself. He found the wallet where he left it and nearly tore it in pieces in trying to get it out of the crack-and then he went home growling at everybody save himself.

Manager McAlister has received the invoice for the new bathing suits which are expected to arrive next week in time for the hot weather.

ATTACKED BY A NEGRO.

Thrilling Experience of a Woman Who Was Hunting Her Husband.

An unknown negro made an attack upon Mrs. Della Frazier of 346 south Third West some time after last midnight, and was prevented from accomplishing his dastardly purpose by the screams of the woman and her pluck in striking her black assallant over the head with the but end of a revolver which she carried.

Mrs. Frazler had been down town looking for her husband, who had failed to show up at the proper time, and stopping at Powell's saloon on State street she made inquiries concerning

When she reached the corner of Third South and First West, the negro spoke to her and told her he had seen her at Powell's saloon, and further stated that he knew where her husband was. Mrs. Frazler says she paid no attention to him, but started on her way home. She had gone but a short distance when she discovered that the wretch was following her. She started to run, but the lowing her. She started to run, but the negro caught up to her just as she neared her home. Before she could get into the house the fellow selzed her in his arms. She screamed for help and struck the negro a blow on the head with her revolver. She would undoubt-edly have shot him but the shooting iron was not loaded. The negro became alarmed and ran

The Eldredge Bros. Live Stock com-pany filed articles of incorporation this morning to carry on a general live stock business, principally in Utah and Canada. The capital stock of the com-pany is $150,000, divided into 1,500 shares, and the general office is to be at Woods Cross, Davis county. The directorate is made up of James A. Eldredge, president; Clarence Eldredge, vice presi-dent; A. A. Eldredge, secretary and treasurer; Horton A. Eldredge and Ben Argyle.

At a meeting of the creditors of the American Fork Co-op late yesterday afternoon at the Z. C. M. I., it was announced that a majority of the out-of-town creditors have been heard from and that they are favorable to the proposition made by the American Fork people to pay 60 per cent of the indebtedness in cash in full settlement of the several merchandise debts. This will now be done and the company will re-build their store and continue the business. They are at present doing business in a small store owned by them. Colonel Webber stated today that everything looks favorable to the American Fork Co-op and that he sees no reason why the business should not be carried on most successfully.

The board of public works met this morning and opened bids for the materials and construction of sewers for the year 1901 and for the construction of headgates and intakes and lay-ing of vitrified supply pipe for the tanks in City Creek canyon at the head of the main supplying distributing dis-tricts Nos. 3 and 4. The clerk was instructed to make an abstract of the bids to be submitted to a meeting of the board at 7:30 Monday evening. The board will recommend final estimates submitted by City Engineer L. C. Kelsey on watermain extensions, construction of tanks, repairing of Eagle Gate and on cast iron pipe. The only bidand on cast iron pipe. The only bid-der on the headgates and intakes was Keifer & Rush. On the sewer con-struction Keifer & Rush was the only bidder on the complete work. The N. P. Glann Construction company bid on the construction, and the Red Wing Sewer Pipe company, the Salt Lake Hardware company, the Blackmar & Post Pipe company and the Union Sewer Pipe company bid on the pipe alone.

Non Suit Resisted.

In the case of Andrew P. Anderson vs the Holthusen Mercantile company, in which plaintiff is suing for $10,125 damages for injuries claimed to have been sustained in a fall of the company's elevator, plaintiff brought out evidence that employes were allowed to and were in the habit of riding on the freight elevator. Judge Powers and Attorney Straup then moved for a nonsuit on the grounds of contributory negligence on the part of the plaintiff and testimony which went to show that he was aware that the elevator was in a dangerous condition. After the noon recess Judge Zane and Attorney S. B. King made arguments against the granting of the non-sult.
