Shot.—On Sunday, at Franklin, while he was under the influence of liquor, Tom O'Grady drew a pistol on Mr. Fancher. The latter took the weapon from him and shot him in the back of the head, inflicting a scalp wound, three inches long. O'Grady is foreman of the surface hands on the Utah Northern railroad extension. He will recover.

Acknowledgment.—

Brother Joseph H. Dean requests us to publish the following, which was handed in by him this morning:—

"I herewith return my sincere thanks to my brethren and sisters who have so liberally donated of their time and means to assist myself and family on our mission to the Sandwich Islands, and I assure them that the same is thankfully received and duly appreciated."

D. R. Fisman, assignee, vs. J. Bateman et al; motion for a new trial overruled.

The People, &c., vs. Fred. Carter et al; decision of the Justice of the Peace declared to be erroneous and void.

Returned Home.—

This morning we received a call from Elder John Alger, of St. George. He returned yesterday from a mission to Missouri and Indiana, to go on which he left St. George on the 9th of May and this city on the 6th of June. He preached in the two States named wherever he got an opportunity, but, as a general rule, the school-houses and other public halls were closed against him, compelling him to do most of his preaching in a private capacity. He baptized three persons, and brought a party of five with him. They are, William Billington, wife, son, daughter and mother. Some others purpose coming out to Utah from Missouri in the Spring. The family above mentioned will accompany Elder Alger to St. George.

Grand Opening.—

Mr. James Dwyer had his grand opening for the holiday season last night. There was a perfect rush to see the splendid display of goods, lasting from about six o'clock till ten. There is probably no exhibition in the line equal to it between Chicago and the Pacific Coast. The most important and imposing department is the stock of books, comprising those of the best standard and other authors. Book presents for the holidays are among the most sensible, and are, when of the right kind, always in good taste, and perhaps more than presents of any other form, complimenting an appreciation of his or her good taste and inclination by the donor.

The toy department is also well stocked with an apparently endless variety in that line, too extensive for enumeration. The display is light, and is the best advantage by gas-light, and is well worth a visit.

Heliotypes.—

Good pictures are silent but intelligent companions. They express an unuttered eloquence. They are a fitting adornment to every home, "be it ever so humble." James R. Osgood & Co., of Boston, have placed a high order of this species of adornment of the homes of the poor within the reach of their inmates. By the process of Heliotype engraving they reproduce the art productions of the greatest of living and dead artists. This species of reproduction retains all the delicacy of light and shade of the original pictures, and the specimens are really beautiful. These pictures are sold at the low figure of one dollar each, whereas a picture of the same merit and beauty by any other process would cost the purchaser from five to ten times that sum.

Mr. James Dwyer is special agent for the Heliotype pictures in Salt Lake City.

Scenes in the House.

NEW YORK, 11.—The Times' Washington special, describing a scene in the House, says: Alex. Stephens created quite a sensation by making a pretty long speech. Stephens occupies a rolling chair on which a small desk is fastened, and which he propels about the arena in front of the clerk's desk. As he proceeded with his remarks the members left their seats and crowded the arena, until Stephens was entirely surrounded by attentive listeners. It was a novel spectacle to see this famous invalid rocking himself to and fro and speaking from the centre of a ring of spectators, his thin, shrill voice ringing out with a clearness and distinctness that enabled him to be heard all over the hall.

Postures and Remarks.

The World's Washington special says Patterson proposes to return to South Carolina in January and make arrangement for his trial and admission to bail. He says he believes there is a change in the public sentiment there which will insure him a fair trial.

Smalls, the colored Congressman from that State, who was convicted and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary, turned up quite unexpectedly in his old seat in the House, yesterday, having been admitted to bail for the present to allow him to clear up his affairs.

The Liquor Shop Excitement.

The excise places still continue. Hundreds of places were closed and many arrests made. There is much local excitement. The dram shops of Jersey City and Brooklyn are doing a thriving business.

The Surrender of Plevna—Wild Excitement in London.

The Herald's London special says: This day will witness one of the wildest excitement in London. All the morning papers print a dispatch from Bucharest, dated last night, which declares that Osman Pasha surrendered Plevna on Sunday and that all the Turkish fortifications are in the hands of the Russian and Roumanian armies. All the people are in a state of anxiety and hope of the friends of Turkey in England will come to an end to-day. A cruel and crushing blow has been dealt to the big and panegyrists who have for a month past been telling of the prowess of the Turkish troops. Osman will cease to be a hero, although reports from official Russian sources speak of his courage in the hour of defeat. Still he has failed, and the Turkophiles of England will never forgive him. Strange to say, the blow will cause a shock, although it has been expected for days. Only last evening it was the subject of almost universal discussion which usually took the following form: "After Plevna what?" To-day the people of England must make up their minds. It will be interesting to know what the verdict will be.

Mexican Affairs—Diaz' Power on the Decline.

The World's Washington special says: It may be asserted with absolute confidence that there is no foundation for the report which is in circulation as to the approaching recognition of Diaz as the lawful chief magistrate of Mexico. No action has been seriously contemplated by the administration. Great efforts are making to induce the administration to consider the claims of Diaz, but it is well understood by whom these efforts are inspired and what their real object is. The news from Mexico indicates that the Diaz' government is losing and not gaining strength, and after abdicating our relations so long in abeyance with it, the administration is not likely to be pacified in coming to any definite action at this late time of the day.

The Utah Ring Representative.

A Washington special says: Judge Joseph C. Hemminger, of Salt Lake City, has arrived here to represent the Gentile interests before Congress. He bears credentials which invest him as the representative of the entire Gentile element of the Territory, which has raised money by subscription to maintain the delegation at Washington until the desired legislation shall have been secured. Judge Hemminger expects his colleagues after the holiday recess. He was sent at this time in order to have the necessary bills presented as early as possible. He has come prepared to remain through the session. He says the Utah Gentiles ask nothing but regulating elections and the elective franchise. The general features of the bill prepared by the Gentiles are: First—Providing for a secret ballot, which is now denied. The present system is that when a ballot is received from the election, it is numbered, a corresponding number entered in a book and the electors name written opposite, so that the vote he polls may be known to the priesthood.

Second—A provision repealing the Territorial law giving the right of suffrage to women.

Third—Prohibition against holding office, and the right to vote at any and all elections, by polygamists.

Fourth—A law against polygamy which will leave no loophole for the Mormon leaders to crawl through.

The judge says this law, a draft of which is ready to go before Congress, provides a penalty for continuing in polygamy, and makes the evidence of cohabitation evidence of a polygamous marriage. He thinks the prospects for success are good. Judge Christianity has charge of the bill.

Collapse of the Senator Royall.

The Star and Herald, of Panama, says the revolution in Ecuador collapsed after eighteen hours fighting in Quito, where it estimated 400 persons were killed and a large number wounded.

Turkish Prisoners, etc.—

Special advices from Bucharest put the number of Turkish prisoners taken at Plevna at 40,000, and the number of guns captured at 400. The ground which was the scene of the sortie was literally covered with the thousands of dead and dying. Osman Pasha himself was severely wounded before he would consent to surrender. His valor, which is described as desperate, is everywhere the theme of the press. The sufferings of the Turks in the beleaguered town were awful. Gold, disease, and famine decimated the ranks and reduced the soldiers to living skeletons. To aggravate the sufferings there was no doctors and no medicine could be obtained. There has been an important rise in all classes of Russia securities on the London Stock Exchange, and they maintain great firmness notwithstanding large realizing sales have been thrown upon the market. The general tone of the London press is to urge the government to seize the present opportunity for mediation, and while it may yet not be too late, Sofia may be captured before long, and that accomplished, no important obstacle remains to the rapid advance of the victorious Russians to Adrianople.

A telegram was sent from Bucharest, to-day, to celebrate the Russian success at Plevna. Prince Gortschakoff and the Russian and Roumanian authorities were present.

The Czar and Prince Gortschakoff will return to St. Petersburg in a week.

The Czar, after the surrender of Plevna, placed his own carriage and escort at the disposal of Osman Pasha.

Visiting Chief Joseph.

LEAVENWORTH, 11.—Over 5,000 people visited Chief Joseph and his band of Nez Perces, at Fort Leavenworth, on Sunday.

Nominations.

WASHINGTON, 11.—The President sent to the Senate, to-day, the nomination of Henry L. Dodge to be Superintendent of the San Francisco Mint.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Time for Mediation.

LONDON, 11.—The Times urges that the moment has now arrived when mediation between Russia and Turkey is possible, and it is to be hoped that the British government will use all its efforts to that effect.

The French Political Excitement.

A Paris correspondent telegraphs the following: In consequence of the irritation caused by President MacMahon's court of the Duke D'Audiffret Pasquier, the majority of the constitutionalists, whom M. Botbie has asked to join his cabinet, have refused, and at six o'clock, last evening, a failure of his attempt to form a cabinet seemed beyond a doubt, although the parsimonious of the resistance policy maintained all the cabinet would be gazetted to-morrow.

An article in the Legitimist organ, the Union, insists that the royalist senators, before being asked to vote for a second dissolution, ought to be informed as to what it is intended to lead. This is attracting much attention. It is believed the article was inspired by a letter from the Compt de Chambord, who has protested against the legitimists supporting a policy which could only lead to an attempt to restore the Empire, and frustrate the plans of those who wish to represent them as ruling France, by refusing to vote the budget.

It is said the Left purpose to vote a twelfth of the taxes, declaring, at the same time, that they intend thereby to insure the regular progress of reform, without, however, providing for the salaries of politicians who resist the will of the nation.

Eastern War News—Surrender of Osman Pasha and his Entire Army.

At 1.30 yesterday morning Osman Pasha's entire army attacked the Russian grenadier corps holding the line of investment of the left bank of the River Vld, endeavoring to force a passage. The attack was made with desperate energy, and a portion of the Turkish troops did, in fact, penetrate the line of entrenchments and batteries, but all attempts to break through the position of the grenadiers were ineffectual. After five hours' severe fighting the Turks were defeated. Osman Pasha, surrounded on all sides, was compelled to surrender with his whole army. Up to the present time it is impossible to estimate the number of Turkish prisoners or quantity of war materials taken. We only know that everything in Plevna has fallen into our hands. The Russian losses are inconsiderable compared with the result obtained.

The French Minister—The Problem to be Solved.

A Paris dispatch says it is believed if Bismarck's combination fails, a ministry of experienced Bonapartists will take the problem in hand and find a prompt solution.

Reception of U. S. Minister Welch.

LIVERPOOL, 11.—This morning the United States consul and a number of leading merchants boarded the steamer Adriatic to receive United States Minister Welch. After exchanging courtesies, the party proceeded to the landing stage, where the mayor, members of the council and other principal citizens were assembled. As Welch landed, Her Majesty's steamer Resistance and the New Brighton Fort fired salutes, the band played "Hail Columbia," and the assembly cheered.

The mayor formally welcomed the minister. He said he trusted Welch's mission would be productive of the most friendly and agreeable results.

Welch replied, expressing his sincere thanks for the cordial welcome extended to him. He rejoiced at the friendly feeling between the two nations, and would do his utmost to maintain and increase that friendship. The party then drove off in the mayor's state carriage, amid cheers.

RUSSIA.

Celebrating the Victory.

ST. PETERSBURG, 11.—The news of the fall of Plevna occasions great rejoicing here. The theatres are celebrating the victory by additional to the usual programmes. Enthusiastic and popular demonstrations, in honor of the Imperial family and army, are made in the streets and public places, where great crowds are assembled, cheering and singing the national anthem. The city is partially illuminated.
