Yesterday's Matinee.-There was a very good attendance at the Theatre vesterday afternoon, to witness the second performance of "Ours" by the Home Dramatic Club, and the general verdict is that the piece was much better played than on the previous occasion. All the actors their parts with fidelity. evinced more spirit, and the piece was rushed through with vim and energy. All did well and the entertainment was highly enjoyable throughout. The scenery and costumes were elegant and the Careless Orchestra music splendid.

The Olympic Games .- The exhibition bade by the Olympic Club in the procession yesterday was one o the best features in the whole line. Their subsequent exercises on the square were witnessed by quite a large crowd and were well appreciatel. The published programme, consisting of races, varying in distance "hupper" should have powder "hin from 100 yards to one mile, long and high jumps, tug of war, etc. was strictly carried out with great credit to the participants.
