PATENTS obtained for mechanical devices, medical, or other compounds, ornamental designs, trade marks, and reissues, assignments, interferences, and all matters pertaining to INVENTIONS THAT HAVE BEEN REJECTED by the Patent Office may often, in most cases, be successfully prosecuted by us. Being opposite the Patent Office we make closer searches, and secure patents more promptly and with broader claims than those who are remote from Washington.

INVENTORS would do well to send us a model or sketch of your device; we make examinations free of charge, and advise as to patentability, free of charge; and we make NO CHARGE UNLESS PATENT IS SECURED.

We refer to officials in the Patent Office, and to inventors in every State in the Union. Address, in German or English, C. A. SNOW & CO., Opposite Patent Office, Washington, D. C.

Emancipation Anniversary.

WASHINGTON, 16.—This afternoon the colored district militia paraded in honor of the anniversary of the emancipation proclamation, and called on Marshal Douglass, who said he was glad to receive them, and still more glad that they were celebrating a day which never should be forgotten by their race. The late war was waged in the interest of slavery, but resulted in giving liberty to the negro and the last gasp of the Confederacy was, "Help, Pompey, or I sink!" The change has been miraculous, and he hoped they never would prove unworthy of the gift. He was glad to meet them, glad to see them clad in blue, with eagles on their buttons and swords by their sides, and hoped their arms never would be used except in the right.

Will be Dismissed.

Four hundred employees in the printing and engraving department will be dismissed this month.

Can't Sit For Want of Funds.

Chief Justice Waite announces that on account of an insufficient appropriation the court will be unable to sit after May 15th, and will, therefore, not hear causes later than May 7th.

Protection of Visitors to the Yellowstone.

The government, represented by the War Department and the Post Office Department, is making every preparation for the protection of visitors to the Yellowstone during the coming summer. Gen. Sherman is in favor of extending it, and some time ago asked the Postmaster-General to extend the mail service to the Yellowstone, and will himself visit that section during the warm weather. In obedience to the general demands, the Post Office Department has ordered a tri-weekly mail service from Bozeman and Fort Ellis, Montana, to Tongue River, on the Yellowstone, a distance of 350 miles. The contract has been awarded to S. S. Huntley, at $34,000 per annum, the service to begin on May 1st.

The Reno Case.

Major Reno, recently tried by court martial on a charge of insulting the wife of a brother officer, and sentenced to be dismissed from the service, has forwarded to the War Department a request for delay in the presentation of the case to the President, he claiming that he has additional evidence which will tend to mitigation. The request was granted.

Hayes and His Southern Commission.

The President has no intimation as to when the Commission will return. The opinion is expressed that they may return by Saturday or Monday. The troops will doubtless be withdrawn, as the intimate friends of the President say it is not to be expected that he will pursue in Louisiana a course different from that in South Carolina, but it is an open question when it will be best to act. It is the desire of the President that the Commission shall have the fullest opportunity for the completion of their work.

Case of Suspended Animation.

BENNINGTON, Vt., 16.—Doctor R. H. Green Hoosick, of New York, was thought dead, and his body placed in a vault about two weeks ago. As he had narrowly escaped burial while in a trance several years since, his wife was requested to visit his body until no doubt of death existed. It is now stated that last Saturday signs of life were noticed and the body removed from the vault. The attending physicians pronounce it a case of suspended animation.

Dramatic Surrender of the Hostiles.

SPOTTED TAIL AGENCY, Neb., 15.—About 1,000 northern hostiles made a formal surrender of their arms, ponies, &c., to General Crook, at this post, yesterday. Their entry was very dramatic, circling Spotted Tail's camp and discharging their guns in the air, which called forth the whole force of that chief to greet them. After which their head chief delivered a short speech before General Crook, indicating his desire for peace by laying his rifle at the General's feet. Among the chiefs surrendering are "One Who Touches the Clouds," and "Roman Nose," whose village was destroyed at Slim Buttes last summer by Captain Mills.

Decline in Securities.

NEW YORK, 16.—The warlike advices from Europe, to-day, and the decline in securities at London and Paris had a great effect in the gold room. Early sales were 7, but subsequently there was an advance to 7⅛, and later a decline to and closed 7⅛.

Oakey Hall the Brains of Tammany Ring.

Tweed's friends declare that Oakey Hall was the organizing brains of the Tammany Ring, receiving at first ten and subsequently five per cent. as his share; that this was paid through Watson, now dead; but the fact is provable by Woodward if not by Tweed.

Anna Dickinson Abruptly Closes Her Engagement.

Miss Anna Dickinson abruptly closed her engagement with the Eagle Theatre, to-night, owing to her dissatisfaction with the management. She will not play again until she appears at the Fifth Avenue Theatre early next season in a star engagement, for which Augustus Daly has arranged with her. Boucicault puts his opinion against the New York critics and says Miss Dickinson's play and acting are good. That they show no excrescence requiring excision, and only a few lacks, which will readily be supplied. Her houses have materially improved since her recent plucky appeal to the public, and she discontinues her engagement chiefly because the manager has recast parts with inefficient support. Her friends put against the verdict of the New York critics the fact that she has engagements and applications from leading theatres more than filling the entire coming season. That she has been unfavorably, not to say unmercifully, dealt with here is undoubtedly true.

The Nicholls Government, Resolutions of Confidence and Good Will.

NEW ORLEANS, 16.—The Nicholls senate, to-day, passed the following joint resolution and preamble, which are part of the plan of adjustment:

Whereas, The people of the State of Louisiana, after years of suffering and misrule, have with supreme satisfaction seen the wise determination of President Hayes, as expressed in his inaugural, and already happily executed in South Carolina to restore the local self-government of the southern States and peace and prosperity to the whole country by its return to the rigid following of wise principles of constitutional government; therefore,

Be it resolved, &c., First—That we cordially endorse the policy of the President, as enunciated in his inaugural. We pledge our hearty co-operation and support in the execution thereof.

Second—That the execution of the policy in Louisiana will prove a source of inestimable blessings to her people, lift up their burthened spirits, heal their wounded prosperity, renew their wasted fields, bring happiness to their homes, and give to their whole people, without distinction of race or color, future progress as well moral as material.

Third—That as an earnest of our endeavors, we hereby solemnly declare that it is and will be the purpose of the government of the State of Louisiana, represented by Francis J. Nicholls as its executive head, first to accept in good faith the thirteenth and fourteenth constitutional amendments, in letter and in spirit; second, the enforcement of the laws rigidly and impartially to the end that violence and crime shall be suppressed and promptly punished, and peace and order prevail, and the humblest laborer upon the soil of Louisiana, throughout every parish in the State, of every color, shall receive full and equal protection of the laws in person, property and political rights and privileges to the promotion of kindly relations between the white and colored citizens of the State upon the basis of justice and mutual confidence. The education of all classes of the people being essential to the preservation of free institutions, we declare it our solemn purpose to maintain a system of public schools by equal and uniform taxation upon the property as provided in the State constitution, which shall secure the education of all the children of white or colored citizens with equal advantages; desirous of healing dissensions that have disturbed the State for years past, anxious that citizens of all political parties may be free from feverish anxieties of political strife and join hands in honestly restoring the prosperity of Louisiana, the Nicholls government will discountenance any attempt at persecution from any quarter or individuals for past political conduct, that the governor will be requested to forward a copy of these resolutions to the President of the United States.

Coroner's Inquest on the St. Louis Fire.

ST. LOUIS, 16.—At the coroner's inquest on the Southern Hotel fire over the body of Kate Nolan, a servant, it was decided to admit one reporter from each city paper and the Associated Press, and a few others.

Joseph Pulitzer, a boarder on the fifth floor, in the hotel, testified to hearing the shrieks of women and meeting volumes of smoke when he opened his door, but he heard no alarm of fire. He believed the women's cries saved a hundred lives. He never saw so many appliances for preventing fire as the Southern Hotel had.

J. Russell, chief engineer, repeated his statement already telegraphed as to the fire in the store room, his attempts to subdue it and its rapid progress. There was no special watchman in the basement, but there was one on the office floor whose duty it was to watch the whole house. He reached the engine room at 1.25. The fire was then so fierce that no fire department in the world could have subdued it.

Thomas Haley, fireman, and a number of other employees, corroborated Russell's testimony. Haley testified that he saw a pot washer go, about 8 o'clock, to the store room door with a lighted paper in his hand apparently looking for the key hole of the door. He supposed he had a right there and did not interfere. Adjourned.

No more bodies were found, today, but considerable property was found.

Members of the Nicholls House in Caucus.

The members of the Nicholls House are in caucus, to-night, considering the adjustment of the proposals, which are, that the present organization of the legislature shall remain intact; the roll to be called to be the same as that called by clerk Trezevant on the first day of the assembling of the Nicholls legislature, omitting the names of seven members who have since been seated, subject to contest. The House roll will include sixty-two democrats and fifty-seven republicans, one democratic member having died. It is understood that this arrangement is satisfactory to the commission and to the conservatives of the House. The commission, it is stated, advised the President of the acceptance of this plan by the Nicholls government, and will await the President's approval before submitting the matter to Packard.

Packard to President Hayes.

State of Louisiana,
Executive Department,
New Orleans, April 16, 1877.

To President Hayes, Washington.

Sir—It is evident that the commission, sent here by you, and instructed, among other points, to secure the removal of the obstacles to the acknowledgment of one government, and failing in that to accomplish the recognition of a single legislature as a depository of the representative will of the people of Louisiana, will fail to effect either of these results. The first proposition can be obtained by the abandonment of one or other of the claimants to the gubernatorial chair. The second proposition, involving unification of the two bodies of each now claiming to be the legislature of the State of Louisiana, is possible. The plan suggested by the commission that 104 members of the lower House, and thirty-three members of the Senate, whose election is not disputed, should be brought together in one body, and the general assembly thus constituted should pass upon the qualifications of the contested members, and thus re-organized should compose the conflicts in the co-ordinate branches of the government, was acceptable to the republicans, but is said to have been rejected by the democrats. This plan was understood to emanate from the President and to embody his ideas of what was just and equitable. The republicans have indicated their willingness to accede to a reorganization of the legislature on this basis, in deference to the President's wishes, even if in so doing they should waive their undoubted legal rights. It is presumed that from the President's stand point any other settlement would work injustice to one or other of the contending parties, and it is not believed that the administration would sanction injustice. The republicans were willing to submit the claims of their State government to the legislature thus constituted. It is clearly indicated that General Nicholls and his adherents have rejected this proposition mainly because of their inability and fixed belief in the truth of the statement repeatedly made that the Foster-Matthews agreement is eventually in some way to give the government of the State to the democracy. If this belief was removed from their minds perhaps they would not be so defiant, and would accept the adjustment you offer. The reported purpose of the administration to carry out the suggestions of Messrs. Foster and Matthews by the withdrawal of the United States troops is a standing menace to the republicans in this State, and encourages the democracy to emulate the arrogant policy of General Hampton in South Carolina. I have received no reply to my letter of the 5th inst., requesting that the instructions of the commission should be so amended and enlarged as to enable them to enquire and report which of the contending governments is legally entitled to recognition, whether a legal supreme court exists, who compose it, and whether or not there is an armed insurrection against the lawful government. I, therefore, most respectfully renew that request in view of rejection by the political opponents of the seasonable proposition above referred to, made by the President through the commission. Your Excellency cannot fail to prove that in thus expressing my willingness to submit my claims to commissioners appointed without solicitation on my part, or without either myself or any of my friends having any voice in its selection, it at least manifests confidence in the justice of my claims. Under the present instructions the commission is charged with the investigation of matters not essential. Why should instructions be withheld which would enable the commission to report upon matters essential to the ascertainment of the legality of one or other governor claiming recognition from the President, one of which must be entitled thereto under the provisions of the constitution of the country? The commission thus far, in its relations to the republican party, has only suggested methods which directly tend to an abandonment of the contest, irrespective of right or justice. I respectfully submit that the questions at issue in Louisiana cannot be thus settled. Individuals in office are of little consequence when weighed against the rights and liberty of the majority of the people. If the lawful government in Louisiana can be overthrown by domestic violence and with the consent of the Federal Government originally called into existence for the express purpose, amongst others, of preventing such occurrences, what State in the union may not hereafter be subject to similar revelutions? Are the American people willing to see this precedent established? Earnestly requesting your immediate action on the facts presented, I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

S. B. PACKARD,
Governor.

A Sure Cure for the Piles.

A sure cure for the Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. William (an Indian remedy), called Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst old chronic cases of 25 and 30 years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, instruments and electuaries do more harm than good. Williams' ointment supports the tumors, gives instant and painless relief, and is prepared exclusively for Piles, and nothing else. Over 20,000 cured Patients attest its virtues and Physicians of all schools pronounce it the greatest contribution to medicine of the age.

WENT TO THE NOTED HOT SPRINGS.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 27, 1876.

DEAR SIR:—I suffered more or less for years with the itching of ulcerated Piles. I tried remedy after remedy advertised in the newspapers, and consulted physicians in Philadelphia, Louisville, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, and this city, and spent hundreds of dollars, but found no relief and comfort until I obtained a box of Williams' Indian Ointment some four months ago, and it has cured me completely. I had a part of the box left which I gave to a friend of mine who had doctored with many physicians without relief, and as a last resort went to the noted Hot Springs, of Arkansas, for treatment. He informs me that the Indian Ointment has also cured him of the piles. It is certainly a wonderful discovery and should be used by the many thousands who are now suffering with that dread disease.
