SONG

FOR THE FEMALE RELIEF SOCIETY OF SMITH-FIELD: ON THE OCCASION OF A MEETING AND BALL.

What are the noble rights,
For which proud woman fights,
Upon this earth?
Unfraught with strife or fear,
The sacred rights most dear,
To woman granted here,
Embrace all worth.

To be an honored wife,
And lead a virtuous life,
To her is giv'n;
Her offspring pure to raise,
In wisdom's hallow'd ways,
Teach them our God to praise,
And, live for Heav'n.

Not feating hands to soil,
With good and useful toil,
Ne'er counted vain;
Obeying God's commands,
Adorn'd and mask she stands,
In works of her own hands,
Chaste, neat and plain.

Not one alone hath rights,
The Gospel all unites
To make us blest;
While charity we claim,
We freely grant the same,
Perfection is our aim,
To know the best.

In unity and peace,
Which daily doth increase,
And wide extend;
With power to relieve
The poor who need or grieve,
While blessings we receive
From God our Friend.

Thus would we humbly live,
To Thee all honor give,
Whom grace bestows;
We hear Thy Prophet's voice,
We in his words rejoice,
Thy light is still our choice,
Though fiends oppose.

Where Truth alone is taught,
And Wisdom only wrought,
Thy Saints would be.
May we our souls prepare
To dwell in glory there,
Celestial works to share
And worship Thee.

Sung in the time of "God Save the Queen"

The Assembly is Asked to Organize a Force to March on Paris!

Another French Constitution being Framed!

A Plan of Attacking Paris Decided upon!

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Testimony before the committee on Southern outrages.

WASHINGTON, 30.—The Senate select committee on southern outrages has been engaged for several days taking the testimony of various persons from Mississippi and South Carolina. It will probably make a supplementary report before Congress adjourns.

Some dissatisfaction exists among the members at the neglect of Speaker Blaine to appoint the standing committees for the House.

Fred Douglas had an interview with the President yesterday, and strongly favors the annexation of Dominica. He says the Dominicans are far superior to the Haytians. The government of Hayti is no republic, but the worst form of despotism, and regrets Sumner's course. He thinks Sumner will change his views after reading the report of the commissioners; if not, then, Douglas regards his opposition as factious, and Sumner as the worst foe of the colored people on the continent.

ILLINOIS.

State capital.

CHICAGO, 30.—A bill was introduced into the Illinois Legislature yesterday, to provide for the submission to the vote of the people a proposition to remove the State capitol from Springfield to Peoria. One of the arguments against its remaining at Springfield, is the fact that the grounds of the New State House are so small; and it is alleged a ring of speculators have got the adjacent property for the purpose of selling it to the State at exorbitant figures. The City Council of Springfield will, therefore, pass an ordinance, guaranteeing to the State the additional ground necessary, free of cost. In the meantime the Peorians are active in their efforts to secure the removal; but the general impression is that the movement will fail.

CALIFORNIA.

The Truckee fire—Two miners killed.

SAN FRANCISCO, 30.—The fire at Truckee destroyed almost the entire city, including a hundred and twenty buildings, all the business portion of the town and the Chinese quarters. The infant son of W. H. Hill, proprietor of the Kennebec hotel, was consumed in the flames, but no other lives are known to have been lost. The town was the depot of a great lumber district of the Sierra Nevada, and will probably be quickly rebuilt. The Central Pacific freight depot was destroyed. The offices of the Western Union Telegraph and Wells, Fargo & Co. were saved.

Duncan and Thompson, two miners, were caught by a cave in the mine Shoddy Run, near Alta yesterday, and were dead before they could be dug out.

FOREIGN NEWS.

FRANCE.

Business stopped—Another constitution

PARIS, 30.—A dispatch from Marseilles says the authorities have suspended action for the present, because the national guard refuse service, and all business is stopped.

The manufacturers having asked the authorities to be allowed to resume work, the authorities replied "Certainly, but the workmen must be kept with their arms stacked, as a conflict is very probable."

VERSAILLES, 29.—The deputies of Vosges, Meurthe and Este have proposed to ask the Assembly to send commissioners to the departments to organize a force to march on Paris. The government has dissuaded the legitimist deputies from meeting.

It is stated a Bourbon fusion has been accomplished, with the Count de Chambord at its head, and that its chiefs are framing another constitution with a parliament on the model of England's.

Gen. Barrol supersedes Vinoy.

General Chassette has armed 8,000 Bretons.

PARIS, 30, noon.—The Nouvelle Republique demands action on M. Assy, for his speech of yesterday.

It is stated that Delescluze has resigned, his colleagues declaring his position incompatible with that of a deputy.

At the sitting of the sub-central committee, General Duvall proposed the disarmament of the unadhering nationals. Assy said the republic had formed a committee of public safety and ran no danger, for its opponents would be shot.

The Journal de Paris says the national guards of the city cost 300,000 francs daily.

The city is quiet.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Picket firing.

LONDON, 30.—Outposts have been placed on the roads to Versailles by the Commune, to prevent reconnoisances. There is great disorganization in postal and other departments. The nationals demonstrated yesterday in favor of the Commune in Place Hotel de Ville.

The Liberte says four thousand English have arrived in Paris, and there is in the city also the head of the London detectives.

A slight rising in Perpignan has failed.

The Times special, from Versailles says, after negotiations and several telegrams from Berlin, Fabrice has consented to increase the Paris garrison to eighty thousand. Vinoy is still in command.

The Telegraph's special says there was picket firing during the night between the national and governmentals on the Versailles road. The government has consulted Ducrot, Leflo, Chanzy and Trochu, and has decided on a plan of attacking Paris. Thiers admitted the Germans were evacuating irregularly and that too many Germans were in France.
