GALVESTON, s.—A News Dallas spe-cial says: Major W. H. Wilson, archi-tect and civil engineer of this city, left under El Mahdi. It is believed, though without seeming authority, that the proposition has no less a personar behind it than General Stone. In this connection it is worthy of note that gentleman here, who has traveled i the New York World, cautioning the British against sending their army from Suakim to Berber, was misleading and in the interest of disaster to
