It is said that on the day of the funeral the relatives of the deceased received an anonymous letter in which it was stated that an attempt would be made to exhume the remains of Mr. Cowhick. The writer sold he had posi-tive evidence of the plans of the ghouls, and he advised that precautions be tak-take to be advised that precautions be taken to outwit the body snatchers. The letter created a sensation and made such a strong impression upon the relatives of the deceased that orlers were hurriedly given to cement the tasket in the grave, and this was done. Mr. Cowhick had been in failing realth for several years, and it is aleged that physicians in different parts the country differed as to the cause of his filness. Leading practitioners and experts were consulted but Mr. Cowhick secured no relief and grew worse gradually. This difference of worse gradually. This difference opinion, it is said, may have had some thing to do with the alleged attempt to snatch the body for scientific purposes. It is certain, however, that if there was any real intention to secure the body that local physicians had nothing to do with the scheme. Many persons doubt story that a plot was laid to snatch the body, but certain it is that the pre-]

THIS IS FUNNY. Engineer Hood Says Track on Lucin Cut-Off Never Sank.

San Francisco, April 11 .-- Chief Engineer William Hood of the Southern Pacific, who returned from the com-pany's cut off across Great Salt Lake leclares that all the stories of difficulties attending this work that have been telegraphed from Salt Lake in the last few weeks are without foundation. He says the bottom is not sinking out of the lake, that at no time has the "fill" the lake, that at no time has the sunk below the surface and carried with It any engines or cars, and that the building of the cut off is attended with fewer difficulties and mishaps than he anticipated when the work was undertaken.

Woolgrowers of Carbon County Hold Their Annual Meeting.

Rawlins, Wyo., April 9 .- The annual lecting of the Carbon | County Wool Growers' association, composed of $0 members representing 650,000 sheep, was held yesterday. The trustees were instructed to re-lease the Red Desert from the Union Pacific, the old lease expiring on May 1. The voice of the meeting was unanimous in protesting against the setting aside of forest reserves and the extension of old ones in this state. A committee was appointed to confer with the Union Pacific and other car-riers with relation to the increased tariff on wool shipments. Local sheep-men say they are being discriminated against and they will seek to secure the old rate, which has been restored in the case of Idaho, Nevada and Utah wool growers. If the comlitee fails in its florts to have the old rate restored, he matter will be brought to the attengrowers. tion of the interstate commerce commission.
