A ROBBER'S GOOD LUCK.

Samuel Clark Gains His Freedom for the Want of Prosecution.

COMPLAINING WITNESS DIDN'T SHOW UP.

Prisoner is a Member of the Twenty-Fourth Infantry—Head of Police in Some Foreign Little Town.

The community of a rule requiring complaining witnesses to appear in court to give evidence for their apprehended robber, who had been taken to the jail, was a good one. The case of Samuel Clark, a member of the Twenty-Fourth Infantry, who was arrested on December 15, 1898, after a hearing on the evidence. Clark, who is a native of Utah, was born in 1870, and is now about 28 years of age. He is a single man, and has no family. He was found lying on the floor of a church, home, buried up with her without even food.

SIGNS OF WEAKENING.

Board of Education May Yield to Popular Demand for a Home Superintendent.

WILL LIKELY NAME HIM TOMORROW.

Opposition Changing in that of Religious Brotherhood—Class Selling for Any Good Non-Member.

The controlling idea of the board of education, which is now in session, is to weaken its determination to find an important superintendent. At first it was a popular demand for a home superintendent, but now it is a religious brotherhood. The board is now in session, and is likely to name him tomorrow. The opposition is changing in that of religious brotherhood, and is now selling for any good non-member.

Christmas Richness.

In preparing for the most things for Christmas, the people are now in a state of excitement. The stores are full of goods, and the people are buying them. The Christmas season is now upon us, and the people are preparing for it. The stores are full of goods, and the people are buying them.
