FIFTY-FIFTH YEAR.

GOVERNMENTAL CHANGES IN RUSSIA

Imperial Manifesto to be Issued Immediately Instituting a Parliamentary Regime.

A LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

Will Consist of Two Houses, the Gosudarstvennaya Douma and the Gosudarstvennaya Sovet.

UPPER HOUSE TO BE PREDOMINANT

Plan Involves Responsibility of Ministers—Emperor Retains Right of Veto and Dissolution.

St. Petersburg, June 6.—The details of the epoch-making battle of the Sea of Japan which are drifting in here through the foreign press, and even the question of peace or war are almost ignored in contemplation of the more absorbing internal situation created by the sudden elevation of Gov. Gen. Trepoft to the office of assistant minister of the interior, making him virtually dictator with the dark vision of a policy of reaction and repression. Yet the Associated Press was informed on high authority today that Trepoft's appointment only tells half the story and that there is a brighter side to the picture. As intimated in these dispatches last night it will come in the shape of an imperial manifesto, which will possibly be issued tomorrow, the emperor's birthday, or on Thursday, the festival of the ascension, and will immediately realize the popular demand for a parliamentary regime by creating a legislative assembly consisting of two houses. The lower house will be called the gosudarstvennaya douma, "imperial douma," and the upper house gosudarstvennaya sovet, or the present council of the empire. While the emperor will enjoy a preponderance of power the lower house will also have legislative functions, and the right to interpellate ministers. The plan also involves the responsibility of ministers. Delays in the elaboration of the machinery of the assembly will be obtained by the employment of the law of 1884, under which land owners and property owners in the cities and villages, including peasant elect representatives to the zemstvos, which will have jurisdiction on a property basis. The emperor retains complete control of the legislative assembly, with the right of veto and power to dissolve assemblies and order new elections.

The assembly will be presided over by a member of the emperor's household. Members of the assembly will be elected for three years. Ministers and chiefs of bureaus will be members ex-officio. The legislative assembly should the above formation be carried out, as there is every reason to believe, it is the prediction of the Liberals at the opening of the year that the emperor of Japan would give a constitution to Russia, appears about to be realized. But if the iron hand of Trepoft is to be gloved in velvet, it is not unlikely that the Russian emperor did not couple Trepoft's appointment with the issuing of the manifesto as the announcement of the appointment of the former will be a positive has created something like public consternation. The press seems dazed. Most of the papers are unhesitatingly and fully what it means and refrain altogether from comment but those which speak do so in a strain of the gloomiest forebodings, seeing in the appointment that the Russian people are again to be under the yoke of the yoke of the police. The Slovo says: "It is possible that the convocation of an assembly is a large responsibility that a new and heavier police regime will be used to stifle the people's protest, for the government to attempt to break through the policy of reaction and not Russia and inevitable consequences—a popular revolt, bloody strife and civil war. Possibly this is only a nightmare, a horrid dream, but if so the government must forthwith dispel the doubts regarding its intentions concerning the convocation of a national assembly."

Miss Meeting of Tailors Called.—New York, June 6.—A mass meeting of the Brotherhood of Tailors has been called to demand a reduction in hours, but it is likely that a strike of the 50,000 members in this city will shortly follow. The members are largely employed in sweatshops. They say they were promised a nine-hour day last year, but are compelled to work 10 hours or more and can earn only about $10 a week.

DR. ALICE B. STOCKHAM

Circulated Improper Literature By Mail and Express.

Chicago, June 6.—Judge S. H. Bethel, in the federal court, has directed a verdict of guilty against Dr. Alice B. Stockham, 71 years old, and Edward B. Beckwith, manager of the Stockham Publishing company, charged with circulating improper literature by the mails and express.

In deciding the case, Judge Bethel said: "When the laws were framed, it was not believed the general discussion of the marriage relation was advisable. If the persons believe they are right in teaching these subjects to the young may learn of them, they should have their doctrines interwoven in the law of the land. What we have to do is to uphold the law as it stands."

Among the witnesses for the defense was the Rev. Hiram W. Thomas. In the federal court, he has directed a verdict of guilty against Dr. Alice B. Stockham and Edward B. Beckwith, manager of the Stockham Publishing company, charged with circulating improper literature by the mails and express. It was asserted by Dr. Stockham and her witnesses that she has been in the business several years and never had been questioned by the government in regard to mailing what she sold to be medical advice. She declared she received hundreds of letters from persons who had read her books, thanking her for helping them.

RUMORED ASSASSINATION OF CZAR NICHOLAS IS GROUNDFLESS

St. Petersburg, June 6.—The rumor circulated on the Berlin bourse of the assassination of Emperor Nicholas is groundless.

Berlin, 2:45 p. m.—It is reported on the bourse that the Russian emperor has been assassinated. A private telegram to this effect is said to have been received by Mendelssohn, bankers to the Russian government. No details have been received.

Berlin, June 6, 2:45 p. m.—It is reported on the bourse that the Russian emperor has been assassinated. A private telegram to this effect is said to have been received by the Mendelssohn, bankers of the Russian government. No details are obtainable.

Up to the time of the closing of the bourse the report of the assassination of the Russian emperor was without confirmation.

Berlin, June 6, 3:41 p. m.—The Mendelssohn deny most positively receiving a telegram regarding the assassination of Emperor Nicholas. The report otherwise was not traceable.

New York, June 6.—The Associated Press is unable to confirm the Berlin rumor of the czar's assassination. Cabled inquiries to various capitols fail to elicit corroboration of the report and in the absence of news from St. Petersburg it should be accepted with great caution.

Head On Collision On Salt Lake Route.

Two Men Killed and Several Persons Hurt Near Riverside, California, Today, on Passenger Train Which Left This City on Sunday Night—Nothing Known of Accident at Local Offices of Company.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 6.—Two men are dead and others are injured as a result of a collision between the west-bound overland passenger and a news-bound overland passenger on the Salt Lake route about four miles from Riverside today.

The passenger coaches bearing Ohio delegates to the convention of the Knights of Columbus in this city, were attached to the overland, but some of the passengers in these coaches were injured.

The dead are: Los Angeles, brakeman on the overland; top of head crushed in and death instantaneous.

Selzer Norman, brakeman on newspaper train; crushed under the wreckage.

Mail Clerk Frank W. Shott was thrown from the train and three ribs were broken.

Brakeman Carey was thrown more than 60 feet, falling on the ground, which was crushed. Brakeman Norman was thrown under the wreckage and crushed to a pulp.

Several persons were injured by flying splinters and broken glass.

The failure of Engineer P. D. Gillett of the Overland to observe orders is alleged to have been the cause of the wreck.

The westbound overland mentioned above left Salt Lake on Sunday evening. In addition to the regular equipment there were two additional sleepers carrying the delegations of Knights of Columbus to attend the convention at Los Angeles, consequently it was a very heavy train. The accident occurred on the right of way of the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake road, and not on the Joint Santa Fe track, as was at first supposed.

The first information the local headquarters had of the collision was when Superintendent Van Housen was shown the above dispatch this afternoon. He went to the scene of the accident, but he could throw no light on the affair.

Trainmaster Smith, when seen, stated that the train was stopped in half a mile and the engine and boiler were damaged and were broken, but the fact that the train was only delayed 20 minutes would indicate that there was no bad accident.

At local headquarters here it was denied this morning that the alleged wreck was caused by the spreading of the rails. One gentleman said: "The wheels were jammed on a rail that was bent and broken, but the fact that the train was only delayed 20 minutes would indicate that there was no bad accident."

Miss Emma Ramsey Soon to be the Bride of George G. Morris.—Miss Emma Ramsey, the well known Salt Lake singer, returned home from an extensive eastern trip last night, and today made the interesting announcement that she has abandoned her career as a professional singer to become the wife of George G. Intimate friends have been advised for some time that this event was scheduled to take place, but the public is given its first information with this publication.

The news that she has come back to Utah to remain permanently will be hailed with delight by all who know her, and friends of both herself and Mr. Morris will join in heartfelt congratulations for their happiness and prosperity. The exact date of the wedding has not yet been determined, but it will be sometime in the latter part of June.

Prominent Resident of Springville Succumbs to Acute Peritonitis.—(Special to the "News.") Springville, Utah, June 6.—Philip H. Boyer, proprietor of the Boyer hotel, died here at 6:30 this morning of acute peritonitis. While working in the field yesterday morning Mr. Boyer was seized with cramps and returned home in the afternoon, in bad condition. Drs. ## GRADUATED FROM COUNTY SCHOOLS

Two Hundred and Thirty-one Pupils Formally Leave the Grammar Grades.

SCENE OF BEAUTY AND SPIRIT.

Inspiring and Impressive Program of Exercises and Presentation of Certificates at Assembly Hall.

Before an audience which packed the Assembly hall, both in the galleries and on the main floor, 231 graduates of the schools of Salt Lake county this morning formally severed their ties with grammar school grades, and received diplomas entitling them to enter the High schools and preparatory schools of the state. The occasion was the twelfth annual commencement of the county schools, and in point of number graduated and the excellence of their record it surpassed any of its predecessors.

The young graduates, dressed beautifully in June gowns and robes, with the darker suits of the boys, lost in the background, filled the choir loft and west ends of the galleries, while in front of them on the stage sat the county superintendent and members of the day.

LONG PROGRAM.

The program opened with a selection on the Assembly hall organ by Prof. Clark of the county schools. It was followed by an invocation offered by A. C. Cummings of Wilford, and then by "The Philharmonic" sung by the graduates with great effect.

WELCOMED THE PARENTS.

Trustee Joseph Hilliard bid the large audience welcome to the exercises of the day, in a few well chosen words in which he pointed out the pride Salt Lake county felt in being able to bring successfully through her schools, the large number of graduates who were to receive their diplomas today.

DR. TALMAGE TALKS.

He was followed by Dr. James B. Talmage, who made an address to the graduates, on the significance of the day, and its meaning to the lives of each of the children whom it affected. Like brides who marry in June there are never enough June graduates to make these commencement days so comprehensive, he said, as that is the case in other months. It is the children who participate in it, reaching the goal of hopes long held. Dr. Talmage then, with a few words, commended the children with the idea that this was not a day marking an accomplishment, but a day marking a beginning of opportunities to work and right life's battles.

He concluded by expressing the hope that that final commencement which several of the graduates will witness, will be as fraught with good tidings and of honor as this which marked the first step into the field.

OTHER EXERCISES.

A piano solo by Miss Eva Youngdale was beautifully rendered, and received hearty applause, which did not cease until the young lady played an other number.

Miss Emma Perry, in a clear, firm voice, delivered the valedictory, which spoke on the part of the graduates, their thanks to teachers and parents for the opportunities afforded them to carry on their work. It concluded by forecasting the effort each should make to justify the expenditure made in their behalf.

Trustee C. C. Crapo made the final speech of the day, following a prayer by Miss Hortense Spencer, of Taylorville.

He discussed the educational outlook, declaring that the present tendency was too much towards giving the student the belief that he was receiving manual labor and common work. The future policy of the school, he declared, was to make students effective in house-keeping, in some labor, or in other useful work.

U. OF U. ALUMNI.

Will Hold Meeting Tonight and Elect Officers for Ensuing Year.

The alumni of the University of Utah will hold their annual business meeting at 8 o'clock this evening at the Museum building preparatory to the reunion and banquet tomorrow evening at which the present graduating class will be welcomed into the association.

Among the business features that will occupy the attention of the members this evening will be the election of officers for the ensuing year. President Richard W. Young of the association is anxious to have the meeting at 8 o'clock, as the evening's meeting as possible.

LICENSE NOT REVOKED.

Evidence Against Murray Saloon Keepers Not Sufficient.

The county commissioners today considered the matter of the revocation of the liquor license of Follow Bros. & Nicholson, who run a saloon on State road about two miles south of Murray, but after hearing the statements of several of the contestants, it was decided that the evidence was insufficient to justify the commissioners in revoking the license and closing up the saloon. It was claimed by the contestants that the saloon had been kept open on sundays, and that it was a disorderly place.

The matter of the revocation of the license of the saloon at Thirteenth and State streets was continued by the board for one week.

BIG SKY SCRAPER FOR SALT LAKE.

Mr. Phipps, Pittsburg Man, to Build Modern Business Block Here.

ON SITE OF CALENA BLOCK.

Los Angeles Investors Are to Use It For Great Department Store and Office Purposes.

HOLMES AND ROWAN ARE IN IT.

Facts Leaked Out Today, but All Details Have Not Yet Been Arranged—Big State Street Push.

It was ascertained this afternoon, that one of the biggest real estate deals in the history of the city had just taken place, and that it was nothing less than the determination of Mr. Phipps, the Pittsburg millionaire, to erect on the site of the old Galena block on the northwest corner of State and Second South streets, a $750,000 business structure of eight or ten stories, of steel and fire proofing construction, with 145 feet front on Second South street, and 127 feet front on State street.

But Mr. Phipps did not make up his mind to do this until, as it is reported, he had benefited from Los Angeles parties, principally, will open there a first class department store equal to anything in the west, with at least a quarter of a million dollars capital invested in the business. Two good friends of Salt Lake, Landford G. S. Holmes of the Knutsford hotel and R. A. Rowan, the well known Los Angeles real estate dealer, are interested in bringing about this happy event, and Messrs. Kelsey & Gillespie of this city are completing the details of the great plan.

BIG BANK CLEARINGS.

Record for Today is Nearly a Million and a Quarter of Dollars.

Today's local bank clearings are soaring high, away beyond the limits of the ordinary, and to the citizen anxious to see the financial transactions of this city assume large proportions, the day's increase has a healthy and prosperous look. The figure of the day is $1,246,354.51, as against $401,923.97 for the corresponding day of last year, or an increase of $744,430.54.

Of this increase $422,000 came from McCornick & Co., alone, and was due to the sale of McCornick's Salt Lake City, originally by the Salt Lake City Railway company, and held by J. R. Cameron, president of the old Rapid Transit company, an association, and now a resident of New York City. These bonds have five years to run at 6 per cent, and were sold at par by W. W. Hildreth, president of the Salt Lake City and Great Basin banks. The purchase is considered as a good investment, and Mr. Hildreth was not slow in taking up the situation and taking advantage of it.

FIRE AT LAS VEGAS.

New Town Has a Narrow Escape From Total Destruction.

(Special to the "News.") Las Vegas, Nev., June 6.—The new town of Las Vegas in the Clark townsite, suffered from its first fire this morning. About 10 o'clock a young man in the employ of "Chop House Bill" attempted to fill a gasoline stove when the oil exploded, setting the whole building afire. There were four buildings burned, as follows: Fuller & Hendrick's real estate office, loss $1,000; "Chop House Bill's" place, loss $1,500; T. B. Stierle and F. W. Williams, barber shop and ice cream parlors, loss $300; Brown's coffee house in a tent building, loss about $200.

H. F. Powers, the solicitor on the Examiner, had the foundation to his building down and his loss on the lumber and the partly constructed building was about $150. At the cry of fire the people responded to the alarm and saved what movable property and material they could carry out. Very little of anything was saved on account of the rapidity of the flames. The First State bank was in danger for a time, but a bucket brigade was organized, and with the aid of wet blankets it and adjoining buildings were saved. The loss was total and complete, because of the insurance companies refusing to take risks in this city.
