the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Sale Brings $10,000.—The Utah Savings Bank and Trust company has sold to Midway Bank and Charles Peterson of the one story business structures on the west side of Richards street for $10,000 each.

Masquerade Ball.—A masquerade ball was given last night in Federation of Labor hall by the Gilbert orchestra in honor of Mrs. Joseph Gilbert. A feature of the evening was the club singing of W. W. Evans.

Recital Last Night.—A number of the pupils of Miss Mary Olive Gray gave an interesting piano recital last night in Miss Gray's studio. Among the participating were Misses Winnifred and Ella Dyer, Miss Jennie Williamson, Miss Theodora Gray, Miss Margarette Duval and Edward Brown.

Rev. Dodge Here.—Rev. Dr. Dodge of the Chinese mission of the Congregational church who is en route to the Orient, stopped over in this city yesterday, and spoke last evening in the Phillips Congregational church. He will also preach tomorrow morning in the same place.

Another Big "U."—The big letter "U" on the mountain side northeast of the city, which has been washed by the rains and snows of the past season, will be repainted this month by the state University students. They will carry slacked lime from the nearest lime kiln and build a letter solid enough to easily last for a year. The students are to clean up the campus on Arbor day.

To Organizer Company.—Col. Willard Young and ex-City Engineer F. C. Kelsey have applied to the state engineer for 500 second foot of water from the Weber river in Summit county for power purposes. The applicants are promoting a company to furnish light and power for Morgan and the cement works near Crofton. No immediate steps have been taken toward organization of the company.

Certificates Granted.—The state board of medical examiners has granted certificates to the following applicants: Medicine: Alvin E. Wing, Randolph D. T. J. Kinney, city; Robert R. Hampton, city; E. B. Brooks, Stearns; Obstetrics: Mary Davidson, city; Lulu Nelson, Fairview; Ida M. Lane, city; Hulda Thomas, Bonanza; Zilpah Gray, Hill; Vilette F. Eardley, city; Jane Jacobson, Bonanza.

Dance at University.—The medical department of the state University will give a ball next Friday evening, in Museum hall, and the medical fraternity of the city have been invited. The chaperones are Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Kingsbury, Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Gowans, Dr. and Mrs. E. V. Chamberlain, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Ebaugh, Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Plummer, Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Calderwood, Regent and Mrs. Waldemar Van Cott.

Looking Up Record.—Atty. Fred Miller of Spokane, Wash., one of the counsel for Steve Adams of the Western Federation of Miners, who is now in jail at Boise, has gone to Park City to look up the local jail record of his client. Mr. Miller is confident of the innocence of his client, and says he believes the United States Supreme court will not approve of the manner in which the accused federation officials were extradited from Colorado.

Painful Accident.—Capt. M. Woods, while returning from the industrial fair near Bonanza yesterday, met with quite a painful accident. The double-throw broke and fell against the heels of his boots, causing them to run away. Capt. Woods attempted to get out of the vehicle when his clothing caught on the brake and he was thrown against the vehicle receiving a severe bruise upon his head and knocking out several teeth.

Musgrove's Players Coming.—Late today after the dramatic section of the "News" had gone to press, Manager Fryer concluded arrangements with the George Musgrove Australian players to pay a visit to Salt Lake in the near future rendering the famous play "Sweet Nell of Old Drury." The entire company comes from the principal Australian theaters and has just concluded a season of six weeks at the Majestic Theater, San Francisco, where they established a record run for any one play.

Prophecy's Monument Souvenirs.—In the windows of the Deseret News book store are a number of very interesting souvenirs in the form of granite carved weights. They are made from stone taken from a piece out of the center of the lower base of the monument to the Prophet Joseph Smith recently erected at Sharon, Windsor county, Vermont. About 150 paper weights were made from the square block and most of them have been distributed as souvenirs, the remainder about 60 in number are offered for sale to the first comers, the price being $1 each as long as they last.

Funeral of Mrs. Carlson.—The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Donna H. Carlson will be held from the Thirtieth-second ward meeting-house tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. The deceased was 74 years of age. June 18 last, succumbed to heart trouble complications at her residence 1167 Tola avenue, this city, on Wednesday night. She was born in Norway and embraced the Gospel in Christianity in 1876. Ten years later she emigrated to Utah and was a devout member of the Church up to the time of her demise. She had 10 children, seven of whom and her husband and two grandchildren survive her.
