San Francisco, Cal., October 31, 1871.
Gold at 10:30, selling at $1.12.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

WEATHER ITEM.—The highest point reached by the thermometer to-day was 50.

PHILIP'S BARRIERS.—To-morrow (Friday) night Phil. Margolis, Esq., will be the recipient of a "barrier." We wish the public to be present in mind, and make it a point to be at the house. The bill for the occasion is certainly one of unusual attractiveness. The entertainment will commence with the excellent Scotch drama, "Macbeth," or "The Tragedy of the Scottish Play," in which the benevolent will personate "Guy of the Gap," Mr. D. McKenna, Sweeney, Mr. J. A. Thompson, Albert, Miss Adams, Laetitia, and other characters by the company. This will be followed by a scene from the "School for Scandal," with Mr. McKenna, as Sir Peter Teazle, and Miss E. Laetitia as Lady Teazle. Mr. Charles A. could then give his skilling act, the entertainment terminating with the mirth-provoking farce, the "Two Guards." In which Phil as John Small. How is that for a bill?

NOT DEFINITELY SETTLED.—The Boston statesman says of the Hawkins case:—"The case presents some points which have not yet been definitely settled, and possibly an appeal may have a somewhat different result."

DISTRICT COURT AT PROVO.—By a special dispatch from Provo, yesterday afternoon, we learn that the mining case pending before Judge Strickland, in which the Eureka Company are plaintiffs and Applegate and Page defendants, promises to be a huge affair. Some half a dozen suits, alleged by the plaintiffs, to have been filed by the defendants, Messrs. Carter, Pritch, Robertson, Roseborough, and Eagle are counsel for the plaintiffs and Messrs. Cooper, Kirkpatrick and Smith for defendants.

CHICAGO ILLUSTRATED.—Mr. James Dwyer has on sale Harper's Weekly and Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper, containing numerous illustrations of the great Chicago fire, also the R. P. Sturdivant company's map showing the burnt district.

A CHANGE MUST COME.—The press of the country, east, west, north, and south, almost universally condemn the course of the judiciary of this Territory, and it is but justice to the country to suppose that the newspapers reflect the national sentiment on the matter. However much most people might desire to see "Morrisonism" abolished, the majority are not willing that "foul play" should be resorted to in order to accomplish it and have ever since an administration might be to such overthrow, and however willing to resort to unlawful means to perform the work, it is scarcely conceivable that such administration would pursue so suicidal a policy as to operate directly in the face of public sentiment. In that it may, the squelching of such a vital institution as "Morrisonism" is, in an up hill job, and the hill is so steep and rough that the top will never be reached.

A turn in judicial affairs here must come soon, and we are not sure that the indications are even now favorably inclined towards a turning point. Besides the national sentiment being in favor of a change, because in favor of fair play, Utah has made extensive and important business connections with every part of the country, and various parts of the world, and consequently, upon the internal condition of Utah large commercial, mining and other interests to a great extent depend. Here then is a question—will the thousands of industrial men having moneyed interests at stake in this Territory permit, without protestation, those interests to be jeopardized by the operations of religious bigots and wire-working politicians? We think otherwise. Should there be any, however, having financial and other interests connected with the Territory, who are willing to stand supinely by and see the "Morrisonism" "driven to the wall," and such suffer loss thereby, it will be the privilege of this class to hold their peace and let nobody hear from them a solitary word, should a crisis come. It will not then be their province to complain.

MINING DISCOVERIES.—Mr. Low, of this city, showed us yesterday a very rich specimen of gold bearing quartz from a discovery a little south of Ogden, where there is plenty of ore.

Another tin mine has been discovered, located and recorded by Messrs. Pierce, Russell and Burroughs. It is situated east of Waterfall Canyon. The lode is 100 feet in width. From an assay of it ore, 70 grains of metal were taken. The mine is now being developed.—Ogden Junction, Nov. 1.

ACCIDENTS.—The following are taken from the Ogden Junction of yesterday:

"Mayor Ward and Mr. George Marsh, of Willard, called to see us on Monday, and gave us the particulars of the accident which happened to 'Eddy,' son of Lyman H. Wells, at Willard, on Sunday, Oct. 2nd. It appears the boy 'Eddy,' as he was called, a little fellow about twelve years of age, took his gun to go out shooting, declaring that if he did not get some game that day he would never go hunting again. When near the railroad, on Mr. Marsh's farm, he dropped the butt end of the gun on the ground and accidentally discharged it, the charge entering the side of his head and coming out of the top. The boy was conveyed home with his brains oozing out of his head. Dr. Ormsby, Jun., of Brigham City, was sent for, who did all that he could for the little fellow, but declared the case hopeless from the first. He still lived, however, and next day Dr. Ormsby, Sen., of Salt Lake City, was sent for, who used his skill to the utmost, but the patient died early on Tuesday morning."

"On Sunday last Simon P. Thompson, aged 14, went with some other boys to hunt ducks up the Weber river. Simon shot at the ducks, the latter flew, and the hunters followed them in single file, when a pistol in the hands of one of the boys accidentally went off and shot Thompson. The ball entered his right arm, and passed downward, and lodged in the fleshy part of the thigh. Dr. Anderson, of Ogden, was called in, who would have extracted the ball, but the parents of the boy thought the operation too dangerous. The doctor dressed the wound, and supplied remedies, and the boy is now progressing favorably."

"On Thursday last, a young man fell from the cars while the U. P. train was in motion, at Evanson. The wheels passed over his thighs, crushing off both legs. Dr. Nails was called in, but medical assistance was of no avail. The young man died in about two hours."

DRINKING AND NATIONAL DECAY.—Wendell Phillips talks thus to the bibulous Bostonians:—"If there isn't statesmanship enough to cure the drinking habits of our great cities, the republic is just as much condemned to go down as the Roman republic was, and your children will live to see the soldier on horseback or the aristocracy, fortified in wealth, who will take possession of the government. Every great city in the United States is ruined today by a mob (Applause). And there isn't a Mayor from the city of Boston to San Francisco, the west, who was not elected by the grog-shops of his own city. Not one. Wendell is slightly mistaken in one instance. We were just this minute shaken hands with a Mayor 'who was not elected by the grog-shops of his own city.' Salt Lake has a temperate city, so far as the imported judiciary will let it be so, and we will say that no Mayor, of all the Mayors who ever were elected, or by this city, was 'elected by the grog-shops of his own city.' Wendell will like to hear that."

ALABAMA.—This is how the St. Louis Journal of Commerce views the situation of Alabama:—"There is something suggestive and alarming in the case, not only to Morrison"
