FRAGMENTS.

Another fine day.

LEAD quotations: per 100 lbs., $3.70.

The District Court held no session to-day.

SALT LAKE STATE QUARTERLY CONFERENCE to-morrow, at 10 a.m.

MATINEE at the Theatre to-morrow afternoon—"Rags and Bones."

C. R. SAVAGE, Esq., returned yesterday from his trip to California.

SEE the programme of the concert in the Theatre on Monday evening.

BUCKLE & SON advertise an immense stock of spring and summer goods.

AN entertainment comes off in the Eleventh Ward meeting house this evening.

McCORMICK & Co. received to-day two bars of Stormalist silver, value $3,450.

WELLS FARGO & Co. to-day received twenty-four bars of Ontario bullion, value $17,750.93.

SILVER quotations, corrected daily by Wells, Fargo & Co.: New York, $1.06 1/2, London 48 1/2.

The "Adelina Mazurka" is the name of a new piece of band music composed by Jos. J. Daynes.

The Utah Central folder is printed in carmine and blue ink, and presents a handsome appearance.

IN "Across the Continent" to-morrow evening, Oliver Byron will be supported by Miss Kate Byron and a full company.

The Salt Lake Bicycle Club give a performance this evening at the Pavilion. It will doubtless be an interesting affair.

L. D. & A. YOUNG have just put up a new sign at their place of business, 116 S. East Temple Street. The letters are painted gold, with carmine border.

The Byron Combination plays this evening in Ogden, and give two performances here to-morrow, "Rags and Bones" as a matinee and "Across the Continent" in the evening.

YESTERDAY a greyhound about four months old was stolen from the premises of Mrs. Josephine Young, in the Eleventh Ward. Two unknown men were seen to open the gate and take the dog away.

DWYER'S large show window has just been filled with tastefully arranged boxes of elegant stationery, Easter and birthday cards, and almost endless variety of other articles in the stationer's line.

The auditorium of the police court was well filled with Chinamen this afternoon to witness the trial of E. J. Page and M. Quarry, charged with shooting a Chinaman in the neck, the weapon used being an air-gun. J. D. LONAX is assisting the prosecution, and Geo. R. Maxwell conducts the defense.

SEVERAL of our city exchanges announced that the Quarterly Conference of this State would convene this morning and last three days, but they are doubtless by this time convinced of their error. They should have noted the statement of the News which appeared the evening previous.

We were shown to-day a copy of the "Farmer's Day Book and Ledger," by Mr. A. S. Heydon, who is canvassing for the work. It is a simple, complete and systematic method of keeping all accounts that are necessary to be kept by any farmer, and so arranged that very little writing is required, the headings and all necessary instructions being printed. See the agent's advertisement elsewhere.

LOCAL NEWS.

NOTICE.

The circumstances of the time rendered it desirable that the orders of the Priesthood and the Saints generally should assemble to worship the Lord and learn wisdom at His hands. To this end our State Quarterly Conference, which convenes to-morrow at 10 a.m., should be recognized and attended, that we may counsel together in the interests of the Kingdom, and that the Lord has laid upon our shoulders.

ANSUS M. CANNON,
 President of State.

A Fine Portrait.—We were to-day shown a very striking likeness of Apostle Franklin D. Richards, in India ink, by Brother Paul Hammer, of this city. The picture is exceedingly life-like, and we consider it the best portrait we have seen of this apostle's work.

Broken Arm.—To-day, while Reinald Anderson, of the Eleventh Ward, was on his way home from school during the noon recess, he stopped to play at leap frog with some boys, and while jumping over one of them, Frank Browning, fell to the ground, breaking his arm. He is the son of Mr. R. R. Anderson.

Stealing.—Last evening officer Salmon noticed two young men emerge from Madsen's second hand store on Commercial Street, and suspecting that something was wrong, went into the store and learned that one of them had sold a pair of pants for $1.50. The officer, on examination, found that the goods had been stolen from M. H. Lipman's store on Main Street, and promptly arrested the parties. This morning the accused, who are aged widows, named as Frank Hild, of Valentine, Nebraska, and Wm. H. Jones, of Denver, were tried before Justice Speils, and found guilty. They were sentenced to pay a fine of $30 each and costs, and in default of payment will work it out on the streets.

Almost a Calamity.—On the evening of March 10th, Sister Ann W. Peart, of Rasphold, Rich County, an aged widow, lady, went to spend the evening with her nephew, Levi O. Peard. After having been there a short time, she happened to look out of the window, and saw that her own house was on fire. All hands were quickly fighting the flames, which were quite extinguished. It is supposed that a spark had fallen from the stove into the wood-box, from the house being a very dry one, and the box of wood standing close to the wall, the fire soon reached the roof. In the excitement Sister Peart got her right hand burned quite badly, but feels thankful that she still has her comfortable home.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

—Advises from New Mexico state that the cattle of that Territory have wintered exceedingly well.

—Saturday evening the Laramie fire department elected Mr. Phil Brophy chief engineer. He has been a public officer of that town for several years and enjoys a good reputation.

—The professors and teachers connected with the Colorado State University number in all forty, and the average attendance of pupils during the last five years has been between four and five hundred.

—A big cattle sale is reported from Wyoming. Col. A. T. Babbitt has purchased from Loomis & Andrews their entire herd of cattle, running on the Belle Fourche, including range and ranch, for $300,000.

—A Chinaman named A. Len hung himself in the penitentiary at Boise, last Sunday. He was sent up from Alturas County, November 16, 1883, for ten years, for murder in the second degree. He had killed another Chinaman.

—An oil well eight inches in diameter and 150 feet in depth, which has recently been bored near Dallas Station, on the Williams-Lander state line, throws a stream of oil four feet above the surface, and yields over 100 barrels per day.

—Mr. C. W. Wymer, an employe at the Colorado smelter at Butte, met with a painful accident last Monday while at work on the striking machine. He was holding a piece of iron while his partner was manipulating the hammer. There was a mistake in the signal to stop and the hammer came down once more than was intended, catching Mr. Wymer off his feet, and mashing his left hand. He was taken to the Miner's Hospital, where Dr. Whitford found it necessary to amputate the second finger.

—A very remarkable mine of natural soap has been discovered near Rock Creek Station, in Wyoming. The vein is about 300 yards wide and four feet thick, and extends to an unknown distance into the hill from which it crops out. The stuff is known as mineral soap, but has been pronounced by an expert to be silicate of alumina. When put in boiling water it will float like a cork, and exposed to the air shrinks away to almost nothing. It does not stick from contact with water, and is fuller's earth, but swells out exactly like sponge and resembles blaine mangle, being translucent at the edges. One can put lard oil on his hands and with this natural soap wash it off as clean as with the manufactured article. It will also wash the dirtiest and greasiest wool clean and white, and has been frequently used by the residents near by for washing hands and for other purposes.

—Simpson Found Guilty.—The time in the District Court yesterday afternoon was occupied until a late hour in delivering the arguments in the case against Thomas Simpson. One of the main points of the defense was, that before a verdict of guilty could be found, it would be necessary to prove that the alleged first marriage was entered into in accordance with the laws and statutory regulations of the country where it was said to have taken place. It could not be shown that the marriage was lawful in that country. It could not be considered lawful here.

Judge Zane was quite brief in his charge to the jury, but did not acknowledge the position of the defense to be correct, and instructed the jury that it was not necessary to prove the legality of the first marriage by certificate, or record, or eye-witnesses of the ceremony. If the evidence was sufficient to show that they lived together and acknowledged the relation of husband and wife, then the jury would be justified in assuming their marriage to be a fact. After being out about three and a half hours, the jury entered with a verdict of guilty, but unanimously recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the Court.

The sentence will not be pronounced until to-morrow at 2 p.m., giving time for a motion for a new trial, which we understand will be made.

Grand Army of the Republic.—The delegates to the Utah department of this organization met in Ogden this yesterday. At 10 a.m. the council of administration met and transacted the routine business, and at 2 p.m. the general encampment assembled. The election of officers resulted as follows: Department Commander, H. C. Ward; Council Secretary, J. C. Cannon; E. Sells, Salt Lake; Junior Vice-Commander, George M. Parsons, Hailer, Idaho; Medical Director, M. M. Bane; Council of Administration, R. Smith, J. E. Hudson, S. C. Goodie, of Ogden; George M. Parsons, and J. Broderick, of Idaho; Representatives to the national organization, M. D. Freeman, D. & E. C. Allen; alternate, Dr. A. S. Coulson, Ogden; Committee to procure a suitable testimonial to be presented to H. C. Wardrich, in appreciation of his valuable services as adjutant general the past year, with power to draw on the department quartermaster for $100. E. M. Byrom, Salt Lake; L. E. Stevens, S. M. Preshaw, Ogden. A resolution of condolence for the afflicted condition of General Grant was passed, standing. The installation of officers took place, and all of the business was rapidly transacted in order to permit the Salt Lake delegates to return home by the evening train.

Murder in the Second Degree.—The case against Thomas and Frank Tidwell, father and son, and Joseph Anderson, who were recently indicted for the murder of Augustus Sorenson, has occupied considerable time in the First District Court at Provo, but a verdict was rendered last evening.

The killing took place, as our readers may remember, at Cisco station on the D. & R. G., in Emery county, last November. The case was prosecuted by Assistant District Attorney Varian and defended by Arthur Brown.

The jury after being out several hours returned a verdict finding Thomas the second degree, and Joseph Anderson guilty of voluntary manslaughter.

They will be sentenced next Monday at 2 p.m. but the defense proposes to move for a new trial. There is a strong feeling in Provo against the criminals, especially the Tidwells, who have borne a bad reputation for many years.

Stricken by Paralysis.—A communication received by us from Elder J. E. Taylor contains the painful intelligence that his brother-in-law, William N. Goodman, now residing at St. David, Arizona, was stricken with paralysis three weeks ago. Strong hopes were entertained at first that he would rally, but his condition was very critical at the time of writing, he having lost his speech entirely, and seemed to be gradually sinking.

Brother Goodman has many friends in this city, who will be shocked to read this sad news. He was an occasional correspondent of the DESERET NEWS during his residence in Minersville, and since his departure to his present location, a little over two years ago. We deeply sympathize with Brother Goodman's family in their affliction.

COURT BUSINESS AT PROVO.

GRAND JURY DISCHARGED.

BEAVER, Utah, March 13th, 1885.

Editor Deseret News:

The grand jury were discharged last evening. They found nine indictments under the Edmunds Act. There have been no arrests yet.

The case of the People vs. Lazenby, for larceny, is now being tried. This is the first case before the trial jury this term.

PERSONAL.

C. R. Savage and John Reading returned yesterday from their trip to California.

Arthur Brown, Esq., who has been in Provo for several days engaged in the Tidwell's case, returned this morning. E. E. Cummings, Jr., leaves to-day for the north.

Brother C. D. Fieldsted, of the Presidency of the Seventies, is in town, on his way to his home in Logan. He has been traveling for some time in Sevier and Sanpete Counties in the interests of the Seventies. He attended the recent conference in Maui and Richfield, and has enjoyed his trip very much.

G. A. R. Camp Fire.—Preparations have been going on for some time to make this event, which takes place this evening, at Castle Hall, Walker Opera House, the camp fire of the season, as it marks the first occasion on which the Ladies' Relief Corps have had the whole arrangement and direction of the affair in their own hands. A large number of invitations have been issued, and a very enjoyable reunion is anticipated.

Gratifying.—Three sons of Mr. Beck, of Tintic, who are deaf and dumb, have been in attendance at the Deseret University department for the education of deaf mutes, in this city, and have made such rapid progress in learning to write that one of them surprised his father by writing to him the following words: "My father, I want a watch." Mr. Beck was so highly gratified, as well as astonished, that he presented the boy with the coveted prize.

Accident.—On Wednesday morning last, while William Bricker was at work on one of the buildings of the Old Telegraph concentrator, at Mt. West Jordan, a board of the scaffold on which he was standing turned over, causing him to fall a distance of twelve feet to the ground, alighting on his shoulder. Dr. Smith, of Union Fort, was sent for, who examined the injured man and found that his collar bone was broken, and his shoulder dislocated. The doctor replaced the shoulder and set the broken bone. Brother Bricker is progressing as favorably as can be expected after receiving such a severe injury.

Home from the South.—We had a call this morning from Elder Wm. H. Kirby, a resident of Fountain Green, who has just returned from a mission to the Southern States, after an absence of rather more than twenty-three months. During the first nineteen months he labored in Georgia, where he traveled through twenty-two counties, and held ninety meetings. For four months he had Elder Samuel Eccles as his companion, and during the remainder of his stay in Georgia, he was accompanied by Elder Mower, they being the only Elders in the State.

Generally speaking, the feeling towards the latter-day Saints and their religion in that region, is one of hostility. The Elders occasionally found it necessary to maintain their feelings towards them, but more frequently they were inclined to persecute them or treat them with perfect indifference. While in Coweta county they attempted to fill an appointment to preach, when a crowd of roughs assembled and disturbed the meeting and began to use violence toward the striking Elder Mower upon the heads, but the Elders managed to escape to the darkness and hide in the woods while the mob scoured the country in search of them, cursing themselves for allowing them to escape, and swearing vengeance against them if they could only find them. They lay secreted, listening to their pursuers until the search ceased, and then made their way out of the County.

The testimonies of the servants of God are evidently remembered by many people of that State, and when they undertake them it is not unusual for them to connect them with the preaching of the Elders. Georgia has been visited by frequent cyclones during the past year, and many people blame the "Mormons" for them, declaring that they never knew of any thing of the kind in that region before. The approach of a cloud now it is common for them to seek refuge in the underground storm pits, which they have very generally constructed for that purpose. Upon one occasion when a storm seemed imminent, the inhabitants of the country district where the Elders were, came running to them for protection; and a member of the Church who lived in that vicinity, but who has lately removed to Colorado, relates that his neighbors frequently assembled at his home when they saw storms approaching, evidently believing that the Saints could claim immunity from the threatened danger, and that if they were with them they also would be saved.

The baptisms and rebaptisms performed by Elder Kirby and companions in Georgia number twenty-six. There are now no Utah Elders in the State.

Elder Kirby came to Colorado in October last, and since that time has been laboring among the Saints of that State who have emigrated from the South.

A good feeling generally prevails among them—much better than heretofore, and many of them have acquired very comfortable homes. There is a room in the San Luis Valley for more settlers. Good new land can be purchased there at $4 or $5 per acre, and there are as good facilities in that region for poor people to make a start and readily acquire a competency as there can be found anywhere. The Saints of there would like to see a few more brethren from Utah come to join their ranks and help to strengthen their settlements.

Brother Kirby's health is not so good as it might be, but he hopes to soon be as well as ever. He is glad to get back, but does not regret having gone upon his mission. He appreciates the experience he has gained, and feels thankful for the chance he has had of laboring in the ministry.

FARMERS, STOCKMEN AND FAMILIES, ATTENTION.

"The Farmer's Day Book and Ledger," a valuable work which all farmers and families should possess. A Brother Goodman has many friends in this city, who will be shocked to read this sad news. He was an occasional correspondent of the DESERET NEWS during his residence in Minersville, and since his departure to his present location, a little over two years ago. We deeply sympathize with Brother Goodman's family in their affliction.
