

HOLY MURPHY GOT TWENTY YEARS

Judge Armstrong Again Gives a Highwayman the Limit of The Law.

TEN YEARS FOR A SOLDIER.

Royal Morrison Pleaded Guilty to Burglary and Was Speedily Sentenced by the Court.

Twenty years for robbery and 10 years for burglary are sentences imposed upon two defendants by Judge Armstrong today in the criminal division of the district court. William Murphy, who, with Frank Colyer, held up and robbed J. W. Adams on the night of Dec. 26, 1904, was given 20 years in the state prison at hard labor for his crime. He was tried and found guilty by a jury on Wednesday, but Colyer has not been tried yet, his case having been continued for the term.

Adams and a friend were walking home on the night in question and as they neared the corner of Second and Second West streets, they were confronted by two men with revolvers. Adams was relieved of $1.35 in coin and a watch and chain valued at $75. The case was reported to the police and the holdups were found in a rooming house and were identified by the victims of the robbery.

When Murphy was asked by the court if he had anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced upon him he replied that he had not been given a fair trial and said that the witnesses had purchased their services during the trial. He proceeded to enumerate a number of statements of some of the witnesses which he claimed were untrue. Dist. Attorney Loomis responded that the witnesses mentioned were not material to the state's case at all and would have made no difference in the verdict even if they were as defendant had stated.

Judge Armstrong told the defendant that he should have informed his attorney of those matters during the trial so that he could have had witnesses in his behalf, as the court would have given him every opportunity to get witnesses. Sentence was then pronounced upon him as above.

MORRISON PLEAD GUILTY.

Royal Morrison, a soldier, was arraigned upon the charges of burglary and petit larceny and entered pleas of guilty to both. He waived time for sentence and was sentenced to 10 years in the state prison. He was charged with burglarizing the Salt Lake Hardware store on the night of Feb. 28, 1905, and stealing two revolvers of the value of $10. He had nothing to say why judgment should not be pronounced against him.

$30,000 FOR A LEG.

John Hunter Seeks to Recover Damages From Utah Fuel Co.

John Hunter filed suit in the district court today against the Utah Fuel company to recover $30,000 as damages for personal injuries alleged to have been received by him while employed in one of the defendant's mines on Oct. 10, 1904. He alleges that he was assisting in timbering the mine when he fell and broke his leg and was otherwise injured so that he will be a cripple for life.

DR. BEER CASE.

Has Been Dismissed on Motion of County Attorney Hanson.

The case of Salt Lake county against Dr. W. P. Beer has been dismissed by Judge Ritchie upon motion of Assistant County Attorney Hanson. The action was brought to recover for board and care of the defendant's father at the county infirmary. It was shown by defendant that he was not responsible for his father's action in going to the infirmary, and had done all he could to care for him at his home.

JUDGE DIEHL'S COURT.

George Russell Arraigned and Pleads Guilty—Case of Mrs. Douglass.

George Russell, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, was arraigned before Judge Diehl this morning, and entered a plea of not guilty. The case was set for hearing on April 12.

The case of Mrs. M. I. Douglass, charged with assaulting Mrs. Lottie Martin, will be heard before Judge Diehl on April 17. Mrs. Douglass is charged with assault with intent to commit murder. It will be remembered that Mrs. Douglass shot Mrs. Martin, claiming that the latter had been too familiar with Mr. Douglass.

EASTERN STATES REUNION.

The Eastern States reunion will be held at the Twenty-second ward meetinghouse, on Third North, between Third and Fourth streets, on the north side of the street, Saturday, April 8, at 7:30 p. m. All Elders and friends from that mission are invited to be prompt. Take Oregon Short Line car.

INNOVATION IN PASSENGER EQUIPMENT.

The Denver & Rio Grande Railroad company is now building a number of open-top observation cars to be attached during the summer months to daylight trains running through the Royal Gorge, Grand canyon of the Arkansas, canyon of the Grand river and the Black canyon of the Gunnison. These cars are of modern construction and have a seating capacity for 72 persons, low sides but no tops, being entirely open, thus giving a free and unobstructed view of the scenery of the Rocky Mountains. These cars will be completed and placed in service not later than June 1 of the present year.

TWICE INJURED IN THIRTY DAYS

James Conchor, an Employee of the Yampa Smelter Company, Brings Suit.

NOW SEEKS TO RECOVER $8,000

Was Hit by an Electric Ore Car and Later Struck by a Boulder.

In the federal court yesterday afternoon James Conchor filed suit against the Yampa Smelting company for damages in the sum of $8,000. The plaintiff alleges that he was twice injured in the defendant's premises within a single month, the first time to the extent of $3,000 through the starting of an electric ore car without proper notice to plaintiff, and the second time to the extent of $5,000 through being struck on the skull by a boulder from a defective ore chute. The suit is for $8,000 on the two counts.

BAMBERGER BEHIND IT.

Salt Lake Man to Open a Resort in Ogden Canyon.

It is probable that the Winslow resort in Ogden canyon will soon become the property of Simon Bamberger and will be connected with his interurban railroad now being built north from the Lagoon to Ogden.

Mr. Bamberger has an option on the Winslow property good for sixty days, and in an interview has given it out that he intends to complete the purchase, he has spent the past two days in Ogden looking over the grounds, and especially the canyon property, with a

QUESTIONS OF LOVE, RICHES AND OF THE FUTURE PUT TO ANNA EVA FAY.

"Take your troubles to Anna Eva Fay," has become an axiom with thousands of ladies in the cities to which the little mystic makes regular visits. One would have thought that the troubles of the years since Miss Fay was in Salt Lake had been allowed to accumulate, to be included at the matinee for ladies given at the Grand theater Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Fay was in excellent form, and answered hundreds of the queries as fast as her tongue would deliver the messages. They were of all natures, and ran the gamut of womanly hopes and fears. Not a few of those who attended had come more out of curiosity than with any serious belief in the marvelous powers that have puzzled the scientific world for so many years, but as the answers began to flow, names being called seemingly at haphazard through the audience and answers to be given to queries which had been written in private and carefully guarded, doubt gave way to surprise and every woman present became intent on her own troubles and vexations and hopeful of assistance from the mysterious source.

"Will my husband come back to me?" "Should I accept the man who has asked me to be his wife?" "When will I be married?" "What must I do to regain his love?" "Where is my boy?" "Will my investment pay?" "Will John do well at Goldfield?"—all these and dozens of others of the same import were answered by Miss Fay yesterday afternoon, in every case to the evident satisfaction of the inquirer. Others inquired for missing property, diamonds, watches, purses, and were told where to find them or what disposition had been made of them. In cases where the search was to be continued at a distance specific addresses were given.

In every case the answer showed an intimacy with the affair that could but provoke the greatest wonder. Questions were asked that the inquirers felt confident that not another human knew the least about, but the answers made them feel that Miss Fay had perfect knowledge of the whole affair.

The idea of the special matinee for ladies to permit the women to lay their troubles open without the presence of any rude man has proven wonderfully popular elsewhere, and if the opening is to be taken as a criterion, Salt Lake is to be no exception to the rule. It is now quite the thing in many cities to form parties to attend the meetings, and society leaders invite their favorite friends as their guests. Another such will be given tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon.

THE EXCOMMUNICATION SERVICE OF FATHER GOPON.

The picture illustrates the solemn function of the Orthodox church at which Father Gopon, the leader of the great industrial uprising in St. Petersburg, was deposed from his sacerdotal office and excommunicated from the church. At this impressive and unusual ceremony Father Anatole, the aged metropolitan of St. Petersburg, officiated, and the service was conducted with all the splendor of ritual that is so characteristic of the Greek communion. The disciplined ecclesiastic was not present to witness his theological degradation.

view to ascertaining its possibilities as a pleasure resort.

Concerning his plans Mr. Bamberger says: "I do not want to go into the canyon in order to take any business or pleasure from anyone already up there, nor do I intend to build a hotel because there is already one hotel up there, but I will make a resort which will afford a place of entertainment and thereby build up the business which is already up there. I think that I have shown that I can conduct a strictly up-to-date place, and that is what I propose to do in the Ogden canyon. It may be a year or two before I get started as I would like to, but time will do it. I will make arrangements to run a bus line from the end of my proposed car line at the mouth of the canyon to the resort. The cars will run every hour and this will enable the teams to make a trip between cars and accommodate all the people who choose to go there. "My engineers are now on their way into Ogden and will soon complete the remainder of their survey. The actual construction of the road will be started as soon as the survey is completed. I have just about thirteen miles of road yet to build."

PERSONALS.

Dr. W. H. McNery has returned from southern California.

H. G. Moore, a prominent vehicle manufacturer of Racine, Wis., is a guest at the Knutsford.

Mat Thomas returned yesterday from Evanston, where he went on a business trip for the Utah Association of Credit Men.

John McDonald of Blackfoot, Idaho, is in the city to invest money here, and the Tuttles are showing him about the town.

James C. Leary is back from the northern part of the state where he reports the live stock and agricultural outlook as very promising.

Elder Ben E. Rich, president of the Southern States mission, and Elder J. A. McKee, president of the Colorado mission, are in the city for the purpose of attending conference. Both report the work in their respective districts progressing nicely.

C. S. Carter, the well known Vernal sheep man, is at the White House hotel, having come over on sheep business. He reports the conditions over in Utah county as all that could be desired, with about the fine shape, and the prospect of a record breaking wool clip in June next when shearing will commence.

T. W. WINCH CASE BEFORE DIEHL.

Preliminary Hearing of the Un-savory Scandal Started Up This Morning

BISHOP WARBURTON EXCUSED.

Was Called as Witness for Prosecution, but He Acted as a Minister of the Gospel.

Before Judge Diehl this morning, the case of the State vs Thomas W. Winch came up for preliminary hearing. Winch is charged with adultery with Martha Lake, the 20 year old sister of defendant's wife. The young woman with her year-old child, was in court and accused Winch of being the father of the child.

Miss Lake said: "Our relations began two months after my arrival here from England, and were continued for some time after. After my condition became known, my sister came to me and told me to keep quiet and deny everything. She said she was going away from time to time, and that while she was away I might live with Tom. Yes, Mr. Winch is the father of this child."

Bishop Warburton of the First Ward, was called for the prosecution, but was not permitted to testify, because of the fact that Winch had made statements to him, and said statements were made by the defendant to Bishop Warburton and the latter acted in the capacity of a minister of the Gospel. The case was then continued until this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

A singular coincidence lies in the fact that associated with Atty. "Mat" Thomas, attorney for the defense, is ex-Senator Arthur Brown. The latter declared that he was not the defendant's attorney.

"I am interested in the defendant," said the senator, "simply because he cuts my lawn, and has been employed by me for some time, and I want to assist him in any way that I can."

OPERATIONS AT HOSPITAL.

Several Out-of-Town Patients Arrive At the Keogh-Wright.

C. J. Black of La Grande, Or., was operated upon this morning at the Keogh-Wright hospital for a tumor on the face. Among the other out-of-town people who are at the hospital is Miss Irene Hendrickson, who was operated upon this morning for necrosis of the bone, and Mrs. James Benning of Iowa, Ida., who came in from the north for treatment.
