DESERET EVENING NEWS: SATURDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1901.

ust 25 and 26. It was a time of re-poleing for the Elders as well as the Saints and was greatly enjoyed by all Saints and was greatly enjoyed by all. During our conference we were favored by the presence of Apostle Francis M. Lyman and wife. Presi-dent A. L. Skanchy, of the Scandina-vian mission, and Elder C. C. Larsen, of the Aalborg conference, Denmark. Our visitors were made comfortable in the Grand hotel, where they had the very heat at their disposal.

There was not standing room ob-tainable at our evening session. The speaker in pronouncing the benedic-tion, poured out his blessings upon this northern land that it might become more fruitful and he blessed the people that they might have their hearts open that they might have their hearts open for the reception of the truth. One factor that added greatly to the success of our conference was the ex-cellent singing by our choir under the cellent singing by our crioir under the leadership of Charles J. Olsen. On Monday, August, 26, our Priest-hood meeting was held and we receiv-ed many valuable and timely in-structions from Elders Skänchy and Lyman

We had a wonderful case of healing the day following our Priesthood meet-ing. One of our sisters was sick in bed ing. One of our sisters was sick in bed suffering great pain and agony. She was unable to move a limb of her body, except attended by great pain. The Elders were sent for and annointed her in the name of the Lord. They sealed the annointing and the instant they placed their hands when here they placed their hands upon her head, all pain left her, her strength returned and she was made whole. As soon as the Elders left the room, she arose from her bed and dressed, ate a good hearty meal, the first food she had tasted for two days and later in the evening attended a social given in honor of the Elders. People could not hardly believe their own eyes as but a few hours before they had seen her sick in bed.
