DISTRICT COURT HEARINGS.

John Radeliffe Sues Again for Habeas Corpus-Bamberger Gets Right-of-Way.

Ogden, April 23.-John Morgan, painter, employed in the Southern Pacific shops in this city, was held up, sandbagged and robbed by three mask ed men last evening at about 9 o'clock, as he was on his way home from work.

According to the information furnished the police by Morgan, he was passing along a building at the corner of Twenty-third street and Wall ave nue when suddenly three men jumped out in front of him and one of them drew a gun in his face and commanded him to throw up his hands. In-stead of compling with the request Morgan attempted to knock the rob, ber's gun out of his hand and in return ed an ugly blow from as andbag

As Morgan sank to the ground the other two robbers seize him, quickly earched his pockets and relieved him of $60, which constituted his wages for the month and which he had only received the day before. During his encounter with the men Morgan was able to get a good description of the men which was given to the police and will be of great aid in the matter of following up certain class.
