ELKS HAVE TIME THE The Great SEMI-Country Paper of the WEEKLY West. NEWS Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News. LOCAL BRIEFS. On Greek Art—Prof. Cummings will lecture on Greek art before the Salt Lake Collegiate institute Saturday evening, at 8 p. m. W. C. T. U. Meeting—There will be meeting of the W. C. T. U. at the Y. I. C. A. tomorrow afternoon, at which br. Paden will deliver an address, and Dr. Paden will deliver an accord. Miss Dunham will render a solo. Postoffice Telephones - Custodian Thomas of the Federal building has renuested the various departments in the building to send in estimates for tele-phone service to be submitted to Washington Married in Clerk's Office-H. W. Cummings of Heber City, and Miss Luella Fowkes of Big Cottonwood, were married in the county clerk's office yesterday afternoon by Deputy County Clerk David A. Smith. Finnan Haddie Was Bad-The case Finnan Haddie Was Bad—The case of the city against B. M. Hoagland, who was charged by the food inspec-tor with selling tainted fish, was heard in the police court yesterday afternoon. Inspector Frazier testified that he had purchased the fish from defendant's establishment, and that it was wholly unfit for use. State Food Inspector Peterson and City Chemist Harms gave similar evidence, and a verdict of guil-ly was rendered against the accused. Judge Diehl deferred a decision in the matter.

In Marshal Spry's Office—United State sMarshal Spry spent his second day in the Federal office today. Yes-terday he received his commission from Judge Marshall, and took the oath of office before Clerk J. R. Letch-er. Soon thereafter the new incum-bent made two appointments, namely, Lucian H. Smyth as chief deputy, and Howard S. Page for office deputy. Mr. Howard S. Page for office deputy. Mr. Smyth has been in his present posi-tion since 1897, while Mr. Page has been in office since April, 1903. No balliffs have yet been named by Marshal Spry.

Jones Mude Get-a-way-Albert P. Jones was tried in the criminal division of the city court yesterday afternoon on a charge of vagrancy, it being al-leged that he resided in a house of questionable character, and associated with notorious men and women. The outdence in the case was by no means with notorious men and women. The evidence in the case was by no means conclusive, and after a somewhat lengthy hearing, the accused was pro-nounced to be not guilty. Jones claim-ed to be the husband of the woman mentioned in the case, and that the house in which they resided was a sep-arate compartment from that portion of the building said to be of rancid reputation. reputation.

member for a long time to come. Not a minute of their time seems to be wasted; the jolly bunch in Los Angeles is taking good care of that, assisted by the chamber of commerce. WITH THE HOME GUARDS. But simply because many members of the local lodge are in California, it should not be imagined that those jeft at home are suffering from ennui. Far from it. The club rooms breach a lively appearance these days, and there are enough of the "best people on nvery appearance these days, and there are enough of the "best people on earth" left in town to make things hum at the Wednesday night meetings. Last evening the usual "Ladies' Thursday" was given. Dancing, cards, bowling and billiards was the order of the even-ing, interspersed with suitable refresh-ments. ments.

perusal of the following from the Lo Angeles Times: Four Utah lodges and one from Ne vada are represented among the visit ors. The whole affair is the "blowout" of Salt Lake lodge No. 85, which planned this little outing to Les An-commerce and the citizens of Los Angeles.

Frederick Warde, the well known actor, himself a prominent Elk, delivered the address of the evening and at the same time took occasion to announce his becoming a resident of Los Angeles. Yesterday Warde purchased a home in one of the outlying towns and proposes to live here during the "evening" of to nye here during the evening of his life. In a sweeping burst of elo-quence Mr, Warde pictured the beau-ties of southern California, with a comparison of the new home of his adoption with the many other lands he had visited in the course of his pic-

The following toasts for the University club's annual banquet were prepared yesterday afternoon by Chairman J. E. Caine of the social committee: "Apology," by Toastmaster Jay T. Harris; "The Toastmaster Jay T. Harris, "The Uni-versity Club." by Hon. C. E. Allen; "Why Is Marriage a Failure?" by Ernest M. Fowler; "George Washington-His Birth-day," by Edward M. Allison, Jr., "The Roof Garden," by Rev. Frank Fay Eddy. The banquet will be held in the duning hall of the club, on the evening of the 21st inst., beginning at 7 o'clock, and it is proposed to make of it the most elegant dining function in the history of the club.

FIRST ANNUAL BALL.

That of Ladies' Auxiliary of Brotherhood of Engineers.

The first annual ball of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the local lodge of Brotherhood of Engineers was held in Unity hall last evening, and about 300 people enjoyed the occasion. The event of the evening was the presentation of a gavel evening was the presentation of a gavel made from a harp once owned by Agu-inaldo, the noted Filipino. The wood was brought from the islands by "Ad-miral" Blake of the Utah Batteries, and the gavel is mounted with a handsome gold band bearing the inscription: "Presented to the G. I. A. Div. 108, by G. A. McClain, Feb. 15, 1906." Mr. McClain was chief engineer of the Salt Lake Brotherhood lodge at the time of the organization of the Ladies' aux-iliary 14 years ago, and the presentation last night was made by the first president of the auxiliary, Mrs. J. F. Belles.

WILL HAVE A BANQUET.

As Susbstitute for High School Seniors' Class Day.

The High School seniors decided yesterday afternon to substitute a banquet for the usual class day exercises. The juniors met also and appointed a committee to propose some substitute for their class day as follows: Will Grow, Banere Grant, Thomas Bult, Scot Kimball, Roy Billings, Elles Yates, May Galbraith, Carrie Sny-der, Alva Sperry and Lester Moreton. The class will decide on one of the sug-gestions made by the committee by ballot.

A Warning.

To feel tired after exertion is one thing; to feel tired before is another. Don't say the latter is laziness-it isn't; but it's a sign that the system lacks vitality, is running down, and needs the toric effect of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

It's a warning, too-and sufferers should begin taking Hood's at once, Buy a bottle today.

The Viavi Co, will give an illustrated health thik free every Wednesday at Room 57 Mercantile Block, at 2:30 p. m.
