A CORRECTION. In placards, posted about town, announcing a gala of the Firemen on the 24th, at Lindsey's Gardens, It is stated, that 25 cents will be charged for admission. This however, through some inadvertence, probably a typegraphical error, is a mistake, as all will be admitted to the Gardens on the usual termsfree. But parties participating in the amusements provided by the Firemen, such as dancing, climbing ropes, greasy pole, jumping in sacks, bobbing for oranges, &c., will be charged 25 cents each, the whole to terminate with a grand illumiwill commence at 2 o'clock, and everything promises a splendid time. Since the Fourth two buildings have been erected to accommodate parties partaking of refreshments, also seats for five hundred visitors &c., making the Gardens a more enjoyable and convenient resort than ever.
