EVENING NEWS.

Monday, - Feb. 26, 1883.

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

The High Council will meet at 7 o'clock this evening, at the Council House.

About fifteen missionaries leave for the Southern States to-morrow morning.

The Home Missionary meeting of the Stake will be held on Wednesday evening.

It will be seen by our congressional report that Senator Edmunds is still pushing his little bill.

The 36th Quorum of Seventies will hold their regular monthly meeting at the Court House, at 7 o'clock on Monday evening.

The Utah Central track was under water below Juab, hindering the passenger trains for a couple of days. Traffic is resumed to day.

Write it on your heart that every day is the best day in the year. No man has learned anything rightly until he knows that every day is doomsday.—Emerson.

Mrs. Benedict lost, between the residence of Mrs. M. M. Barratt and that of Dr. Benedict, a parcel of lace wrapped in a blue vail. The finder will oblige by leaving it at this office.

Monthly meeting of Alert Engine Company No. 3, will be held at Fireman's Hall, Salt Lake City, on Wednesday, Feb. 28, 1883. All members are requested to attend.
HENRY BROWN, Sec'y.

The officers of the Mutual Improvement Associations meet at 7 o'clock to-night, at the Council House. The General Superintendent has important business to communicate.

The immediate prospect is that spring weather has come "to stay," and that a speedy increase of temperature will rapidly advance vegetation, and finally result in an early termination of Spring, notwithstanding its present backwardness.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Damon and Pythias. — Damon and Pythias will be performed at the Opera House, to-night, under the management of Mr. John S. Lindsay, who will peform the leading role.

Fined.—This morning Chris. Sands was before Justice Spiers for being delirius with drink and creating a disturbance. One of his antics was to break in a door. He was fined fifteen dollars.

Postponed.—We are requested to state that on account of the Council House being otherwise occopied to-night, the meeting of Brother Stephen's music class of young men and young ladies is postponed till to-morrow night.

An Old Friend Returned.—With the noon train to-day Mr. Phil. Robinson, well known in this city as former correspondent here of the New York World, whose able letters on Utah affairs are familiar to the citizens here, arrived to-day. We bid him welcome.

Lecture.—Dr. Romania B. Pratt will deliver a lecture this evening at the Eleventh Ward School-house, under the auspices of the Y. L. M. I. Association. The subject to be treated is Embryology." The lecture will begin at 7 o'clock, and is for ladies only.

An Eminent Jurist.—At noon to-day Sergeant Ballantine, one of the most eminent among English jurists, arrived in our city. The name of the gentleman is familiarly known in every part of the civilized world. We wish him a pleasant sojourn in Utah.

Frozen Hands.—Last night Chas. Ross, stage driver between Kelton and Marsh Basin, came down on the train from the north. During the late cold spell he had his hands badly frozen, while engaged in his vocation, necessitating the amputation of five fingers, three from the left and two from the right hand.

Large Payment.—To the vendors of the Mammoth Mine, payment was made to-day, at the London bank of Utah, of $35,000, sent from London by the Syndicate who have taken over this property. Thirty-five thousand dollars more were paid last week at the mine and smelting works, for the January pay roll.

Home Again.—F. S. Richards, Esq., of the Utah Delegation to Washington, returned last evening accompanied by his wife, and were heartily welcomed at Ogden. Although returning a little sooner than expected, the news of their arrival was soon circulated, and they were serenaded at their home in the evening. Mr. Richards has done splendid service for the people of Utah at the seat of Government

Hard Times.—According to the Idaho Democrat times are pretty hard just now at Boise. It says:

There are many hungry men in Boise to-day, worthy laboring men, craving work for food, with nothing for them to do. They should be furnished with a little something to eat until the ground softens so they can go to work grading. Two or three citizens have suggested the opening of a soup house for their relief.

Not He.—A day or two since the city papers made a note of the fact that a party named Robert Brown had been arrested for drunkenness, disorderly conduct, etc. Some person placed a marked copy of a paper containing the item, at the door of Brother Robert Brown, the bookbinder employed at the Juvenile Instructor office, as if to intimate that he was the person. We need scarcely state that he was not the party, and that he is a sober and respectable man.

A Cosy Car.—To No. 3 yesterday was attached a special car built at Omaha for Supt. Doddridge, of the Oregon Short Line. It is a little "daisy" and would fill even the hearts of newspaper men, who are used to comfort and elegance, with a large wad of admiration. A complete kitchen occupied one end of the car; in the center are four elegantly arranged berths, two on each side, and a small but finely appointed drawing-room occupies the remainder of the interior.—Boomerang.

A Distinguished Party.—This morning, after a brief stay in Salt Lake, a delegation of high dignitaries from the Japanese Empire, left for Washington, having a mission of importance to communicate to the embassador at the Capital. On the way to this country they stopped over for some time at Honolulu, and were present at the late coronation of the King of the Sandwich Islands. Yesterday they visited a number of leading points of interest, among them the Assembly Hall and Tabernacle. They manifested much eagerness to gain information concerning the community of Latter-day Saints, about whom they made inquiries, and appeared greatly interested with the explanations that were given.

His Excellency M. Sugi, is Imperial Minister, a highly cultivated gentleman, who was educated in this country, at Ann Harbor, Michigan. The names of the other members of the party are M. Ishiboshi, Secretary of the Legation; Michinori S. Nagasaki, Secretary of the Imperial Household; K. Kakinchi and Prof. K. Sugi, attaches.

The delegation stopped at the Walker House, and were conducted around the city by Mr. Firth, a prominent official of the C. B. & Q. Railroad.

The Robbers.—Yesterday deputy sheriff Polk, of Elko, Nevada, arrived in this city for the purpose of taking Ormus Nay, the wounded robber who was at St. Mary's Hospital, to Nevada. Nay has progressed remarkably since the operation was performed upon his shoulder a month ago. Mr. Polk left with his prisoner on the afternoon train to-day.

The band have been indicted for an assault with intent to rob the Central Pacific express car, and for assault with intent to kill.

Frank Hawley, the other robber who was wounded, is recovering, but is yet unable to get about.

The desperadoes have a fair prospect of being sent to the penitentiary for a long term of years.

Assembly Hall Services.—Yesterday afternoon Elder George G. Bywater delivered a discourse tending to show that men would, when brought to the supreme bar of justice, be judged according to the deeds done in the body and the spirit of the particular age in which they lived. He also held that although the Latter-day Saints claimed to have the most advanced and perfect system of religion extant they were not boastful in consequence, but gave all honor to the Eternal Father, from it emanated. While they claimed to have a divine system they did not ignore the fact that all other religions incorporated an amount or degree of truth, by which they were held together.

Funeral Services.—The funeral services over the remains of Sister Helen Condie were held in the Fourth Ward Meeting House at eleven o'clock on Saturday, Bishop Sperry presiding. The opening prayer was offered by Bishop Thorn and the funeral discourse was preached by Prest. Jos. E. Taylor. Remarks were also made by Bro: James Watson and Bishop Sperry, both of whom testified to the exemplary character of the deceased. The benediction was pronounced by Counselor Thos. Corlies. A large procession followed the remains to the Cemetery.

Number Five.—Number five of the current volume of the Juvenile Instructor is out. Its contents are:

The Beaver, (Illustrated); How Paper Car-wheels are made; Chapter for the Little Ones, (Illustrated); An Incident on the Plains; Our Rights, by Lycergus; An Interesting Incident, by A. E.; Disraeli's Maiden Speech; To a Snow Bird, by J. C.; Items of Experience, by A. M. C.; Editorial Thoughts; The Reformers; The Declaration of Independence, (Illustrated); History of the Church; Early Reminiscences, by J. H. H.; A Noble Example; The Eve of Revolution, by J. H. W.; Hark, Listen to the Trumpeters, Music by L. D. Edwards.
