LEGAL NOTICE.

In the Probate Court in and for Salt Lake County, Territory of Utah.

In the matter of the Estate of Jacob Jensen, Deceased.

Order appointing time and place for settlement of final account and to hear petition for distribution.

ON READING AND FILING THE PETition of Christian Jensen and Daniel McRae, Executors of the last will of Jacob Jensen, deceased, setting forth that they have filed their final account of their administration upon said estate in this Court; that all the debts have been fully paid, and that a portion of said estate remains to be divided among the heirs of said deceased, and praying among other things for an order allowing said final account and of distribution of the residue of said estate among the persons entitled.

It is ordered that all persons interested in the estate of the said Jacob Jensen deceased, be and appear before the Probate Court of the County of Salt Lake, at the Court Room of said Court, in the County Court House, on the 23rd day of June 1887, at 10 o'clock a. m., then and there to show cause why an order allowing said final account and of distribution should not be made of the residue of said estate among the heirs and devisees of the said Jacob Jensen, deceased, according to law.

It is further ordered that the clerk cause copies of this order to be posted in three public places in Salt Lake County and published in the DESERET EVENING NEWS, a newspaper printed and circulated in Salt Lake County, three weeks successively prior to said 23rd day of June, 1887.

ELIAS A. SMITH,
Probate Judge.

Dated May 21st, 1887.

NOW AND THEN.

How dear my soul to thee!
These noble mountains, grand
That guard our inland sea,
In Zion's hallowed land.
They speak of God and love
In no uncertain voice
And point to Heaven above
To make our hearts rejoice;
And hope and trust and pray
"The morning star and bright"
Will soon appear, alway
To rule, direct aright.
Are we prepared to meet
The dawn of that great morn
With holiness replete
Or wickedness forlorn,
When in His glory bright
The Sun of Righteousness
Shall rise in power and might,
To punish and to bless!
Our fate is in our hand!
How shall we then acquit
Our sojourn in the land,
When truth and justice sit enthroned with mercy mild?
"According as we sow
So shall we reap." Reviled
And taunted as we grow
The seeds of holiness;
We then, Ah yes! shall reap
The fruits of righteousness.
Nor shall we pine or weep;
But joy shall be our lot
In that eventful day;
And pain we shall know not,
Nor grief nor misery.
To those, this left shall be
Who in their day of grace
Did sow eternally;
Death! Misery! Disgrace!

HOME EMPLOYMENT.

Establish Enterprise and Furnish Labor at Home.

WELLSVILLE, Cache County, June 18th, 1887.

Editor Deseret News:

This town possessed of many natural advantages, if its resources were developed, is to-day partially depopulated by the exodus of so many of its citizens to find work at a distance. This has been a drawback to this town for a long time, retarding its material progress and checking its enterprise. Now, to remedy this evil should be the aim of our population who wish to see our country grow and its varied resources developed. To accomplish this we should co-operate in sustaining and patronizing every article that is made at home, and to lend the help of our means, influence and patronage to secure the success of home enterprise. Talk will not remove the cause of our financial distress. It needs an active, determined and vigorous effort to create something which we can export—a something that will give employment to the people and create a home market for the products of the soil.

There is not a town in the country that could not establish some kind of an industry.

SOMETHING

ought to be done to change the present state of affairs for it is a shame to the country to see all the youth and vigor of our towns fierce to go to great distances to find employment. They are thrown into a class of society and circumstances which have a degrading tendency, and sometimes cause them to return to their homes tainted by evils that injure the society in which they dwell.

Let us endeavor to create all the labor we can at home, provide employment for the youth, that they may call out of the elements an existence, and by so doing beautify and build up the country, making it more desirable to dwell in. There are means sufficient to start enterprises in our midst, and in many instances lying idle and unemployed. We think this should be organized and put to work to bless the community.

Who will give us the start? is the query of an OLD TIMER.

A TERRIBLE FATALITY.

TWO LIVES LOST IN THE JAY GOULD MINE.

On the 18th inst., three men, Charles Williams, Dan Sheehan and one named Hudnut, were changing shifts in the Jay Gould mine. They were ascending the shaft and were covered with water pumping to keep the water out of their eyes and off their backs. Sheehan was a new man and very nervous. He was standing at one side of the bucket, and it is supposed, became excited and lurched to one side. The other two in trying to right the bucket, lurched it too far the other way, and the bucket left the skids. It was carried forty feet while off the skids, when it struck the 800-foot station and Williams and Sheehan were raked off, while Hudnut clung to the bucket and reached the surface. Williams and Sheehan fell 150 feet to the bottom of the shaft. The former was picked up dead and Sheehan lived until evening, his injuries being mostly internal. The Butte Miner of the 19th adds that an inquest was held and a verdict returned exonerating the mine owners and accounting for the fatality by unavoidable causes. The bodies were taken into Helena and buried from the Catholic Church.

Twenty millions of dollars in a village does not make that village rich if it is all owned by two men; but if that amount is spread evenly all over the village then it is different. Money in the hands of one or two men is like a dungheap in a barnyard. So long as it lies in a mass it does no good, but if it is only spread evenly on the land now everything would grow. Money is like snow. If it is blown into drifts it blocks up the highway and nobody can travel, but if it lies evenly distributed over all the ground it facilitates every man's travel. Wealth is good if diffused, but not if hoarded.—Henry Ward Beecher.

DEATHS.

DABLING.—At Wallsburgh, Wasatch County, Utah, of pneumonia, June 6th, 1887, George Dabling. Deceased was born at Worksop, Nottinghamshire, England, Oct. 4th, 1824; embraced the Gospel July 20, 1850; was ordained an Elder March 8th, 1853, and labored in the Lincolnshire Conference until 1855 when he emigrated to America. He resided in the State of Maryland for seven years and arrived in Salt Lake City, Oct. 17, 1862. He moved to Midway, Wasatch County, in 1868, where he resided until February, 1876, when he and his family were called to go to Arizona where he staid two years. He returned to Charleston and staid there two years, when he moved to Wallsburgh where he resided until his death. He has filled the office of Sunday School superintendent at Midway for several years. He also held the same office at Sunset, Arizona, and in Wallsburg. He was a High Priest, a true Latter-day Saint, and died in full faith of a glorious resurrection. He leaves a wife and one son with a family to mourn his loss.

DYSPEPSIA

Up to a few weeks ago I considered myself the champion Dyspeptic of America. During the years that I have been afflicted I have tried almost everything claimed to be a specific for Dyspepsia in the hope of finding something that would afford permanent relief. I had about made up my mind to abandon all medicines when I noticed an endorsement of Simmons Liver Regulator by a prominent Georgian, a jurist whom I knew, and concluded to try its effects in my case. I have used but two bottles, and am satisfied that I have struck the right thing at last. I felt its beneficial effects almost immediately. Unlike all other preparations of a similar kind, no special instructions are required as to what one shall or shall not eat. This fact alone ought to commend it to all troubled with Dyspepsia.

TESTIMONIALS:

SALT LAKE CITY, March 20, 1886.

Rocky Mountain Churn Company,

GENTLEMEN:—We have carefully examined your Patent Churn, and take pleasure in stating that we believe it is one of the best inventions in that line ever brought before the public, and we have no doubt but that this churn will commend itself to every practical farmer and dairyman as being a great invention and labor-saving machine. In fact we cannot speak too highly of it.
