been purchased by G. H. Patten & Co., at Portland, and upon investigation they were referred to the owner. A committee of ladies discovered that one of their number had committed the theft, and they immediately turned him in to the police, and found him guilty and punished him by doing him back and forth in a rooming house for ten days, the time expiring today when he was given a sentence of 15 days in the town jail and then pardoned by the committee. The owner was compelled to pay the amount the money he had lost by the transaction.

The little town of Klamath, thirty-five miles north of San Diego, Cal., was terrorized Saturday night, Tuesday, by a party of about twenty men, who got up at 2 o'clock in the morning and, with wild shouts and howls, unloosed the 45 caliber rifle and began firing into the houses, the hotel, directly across the street from the town. The men's plan continued for several hours, during which time they were heard to be shouting and firing into the houses, the hotel, directly across the street from the town.
