NEARING THE END.

Europe Face to Face With the Partition of the Turkish Empire.

MORE RIOTS IN CONSTANTINOPLE.

The Sultan Believes a Note from the Ambassadors, that Makes Him Tremble.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 30.—Rioting was renewed in the Galata quarter of this city Monday. A sharp battle took place between the troops and the Armenian rioters. It lasted only a few minutes, however, and a number of the revolutionists fell beneath the bullets.

The ambassadors of the foreign powers held a conference and sent a strong joint appeal asking the sultan to suppress the disorders without delay. No reply has been received from the Sublime Porte as yet.

Just before the departure of the leaders of the invasion of the Ottoman bank on Sir Edgar Vincent's yacht, after they had negotiated with the Turkish officials and surrendered upon condition that they should be allowed to leave the country, they announced to the dragomans of the different embassies that they intend to continue the agitation until the rights of the Armenians should be recognized by the representatives of the foreign powers. Members of the different embassies have received another circular letter from the Armenian revolutionary committee making a similar announcement.

It will be remembered that several days before the raid upon the Ottoman bank by the Armenians, threatening letters of a similar character were received by the representatives of the powers, but the foreign diplomats stationed in Constantinople paid no attention to these warnings.

Already several claims for damages to property have been received at the British embassy, the property destroyed being owned by British subjects. As an indication of the number of persons who perished in the riots, it is stated that 700 dead bodies were buried in the Christ cemetery alone. The British charge d'affaires, Sir Michael Herbert, has made special representations to Tewfik Pasha, Turkish minister of foreign affairs, concerning the case of two Americans who were brutally killed just in front of the guardhouse and before the eyes of the members of the British embassy.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—The Daily News in an editorial comment this morning says: "Europe is now to face with the opposition of the sultan and the partition of Turkey."

WILL USE FORCE.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to the Daily News from Constantinople gives a personal interview with Frank Rattel, who was left in the place of Sir Edgar Vincent as a hostage during the negotiations between the American bankers in the Ottoman bank raid and the Turkish officials. The dispatch says: Mr. Frank R. Rattel stated that the invaders had him to be intended to seize the Credit Lyonnaise office and explode a bomb there. It was a part of their plan to raide the Voivoda police station at the same time. The bombs were to be exploded at the police station simultaneously with the attack upon the Credit Lyonnaise.

The mobs consisted entirely of the lowest classes of Constantinople and its suburbs. It is now estimated that over 4,000 persons were killed.

Stamboul has been covered with revolutionary placards, evidently posted by the young Turkey party. Serious trouble is expected Monday, the anniversary of the sultan's accession.

A dispatch to the Post from Constantinople says: Members of the Armenian revolutionary committee threw a bomb in the premises of the Credit Lyonnaise and the tobacco syndicate Saturday night. The amount of damages is not reported.

WARNED THE SULTAN.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—A dispatch in the Times from Constantinople says that the joint note of the ambassadors of the powers, asking the Sublime Porte to suppress the disorders in Constantinople without delay, calling to save the desired effect, the representatives of the powers suggested a joint telegram warning the sultan that he is discovered the Turkish empire by entering the subterranean of anarchy by the encouragement of the incipient terror and the police. It is said that the sultan trembled when he received this warning telegram.

Neither the members of the diplomatic circles nor rational observers doubt that an armed mob in Turkish town previously organized for possible risk. It was noticed that less than two hours after the insane attack on the Ottoman bank by the Armenians the mob that filled the streets of Galata overpowered the Turkish city and Turks in parties from 100 to 150 strong, apparently, ceased the fighters from Stamboul.

In commending again the rapidity with which the mob overpowered Constantinople after the attack upon the Ottoman bank, the Constantinople correspondent of the London Times says that all of the mischief could not have been done without organization and without the connivance of the authorities.

CRETAN REFORMS.

ATHENS, Aug. 30.—The scheme of reform proposed to the government of Crete and sanctioned by the sultan, in addition to consolidating the power of the governor, the Greek general, is not to shall be a Christian; the reorganization of the gone of crime by European officials, the independence of the judiciary of Crete, and regulations of autonomy with the payment of a tribute to the sultan, also provides that the Cretans shall be allowed to tax Turkish imports for the purpose of levying a fund which shall be applied to the erection of the victims of the recent disorders.

PERUVIAN ELECTION.

It is Expected to Result in a Revolution.

LIMA, Peru, Aug. 30.—Via Galveston, Tex.,—The latest reports from Chile are to the effect that the legislative and executive officials have resolved to attend and take part in the meeting of Congress called for today for the purpose of declaring who has been elected President. There is considerable anxiety as to the result.

The election recently held in Chile was one of the stormiest ever held in a country noted for stormy elections. Senor Errazuris, editor of one of the leading newspapers of Chile, was the candidate of the conservatives. Senor Federico Errazuris has been a member of several Cabinets cabinets and he is regarded as one of the most brilliant of the political leaders of South America. The candidate of the opposition was Senor Bayes. It was reported that Senor Errazuris expended more than $500,000 in his campaign. Senor Reyes, on the other hand, announced that he would not spend one cent. On account of the closeness of the vote, it is feared that a revolution may be attempted, no matter which candidate is triumphant. There is little talk of a third or compromise candidate.

Cubists Attacked by a Mob.

OMAHA, Aug. 30.—The Cunnell Bluff high school nines returned from Oakland, Iowa today, where they attended the reunion of the Pottawattamie Veterans association and an annual experience with a monstrous crowds of delighted visitors to Oakland for three days viewed the ottile. The rooters was unintelligibly considerable and about all the heroes they did every away. The received a warning that a mob had been organized to tear their band down, smash up their accouterments and company property, and run them out of camp, supposed to be a plan of the rival militia organization. There were twenty-eight members of the company present and they prepared to defend themselves and the states's property in their possession.

A few minutes before 5 o'clock this morning a mob appeared 200 strong, armed with all kinds of weapons. The militiamen had their guns at their side line which met the hoodlums with their guns. The rioters did not have their carpenter they would have used them with good effect. Jewell, Cuslis Sapp met the leader of the gang and warned him away. The warning had the effect of attacting the attention of the leader to the young officer and he was promptly attacked and knocked down. The rioters clubbed their guns and rushed in the melee. The leader of the mob was capture headlong in the mêlée that followed and several of the rioters received bruises and black eyes that rendered those members temporarily useless. The assault of the mob was becoming so aggressive and desperate the cadets were on the point of resorting to the use of their guns when a halt occurred.

THE POWERS AGREE.

The Armenian Question to be Settled Before Long.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to the Standard from Berlin says: It is announced from Vienna that the Russian czar and Emperor Francis Joseph and the statesmen who followed the recent political conferences said there arrived at an agreement which will probably settle the Armenian trouble without interference of the existing treaties. Prince Lobanoff is reported to have said: "We have enough to do with our own Armenians. We do not want to have their number increased."

In New Oil Fields.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 30.—In the new oil fields of Tennessee and southern Kentucky the Standard Oil company during the past week controlled two large storage tanks in the Gray river, thirty-five miles west of Burkhardsville on the Queen & Crescent railroad, which will hold nearly 41,000 barrels. Oil lines are laid to wells within one mile of the tanks, which include the Rob's Bar well, which opened up the field by making a flow of a barrel a minute of oil, worth $1.15 per barrel. The other wells are the Lacy, the Buck House, Boiles, Akin and Hone's No. 1 and 2.

Well Known Actor Dead.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Charles Stanley Bennett, a straphanger and pianist of international reputation, died today at the Players' club in this city.

Mr. Bennett was born in Pittsburg, Pa., in 1841. In 1870 he secured a position with Harper Bros. as translator. In 1880 he went to Paris and, during the six years that he remained in that city he was honored by receiving the gold and silver medals for best draughtsman and illustrator. In 1887 one of his paintings was purchased by the French government. In 1891 Mr. Bennett established a studio in this city.

Satolli's Successor.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Cardinal Satolli has received word from Rome that his successor, Father Martinelli, now agent of the Augustinians, will arrive in Washington on or about September 20th. The new delegate will sail from Genoa on the Palos September 5th. There will be no formal installation on his arrival. He will enter at once on the duties of his office under the direction and guidance of Cardinal Satolli, who will remain his guest at Seton-a-scalle.

Cardinal Satolli will leave Washington on or about October 10th and sail for Europe October 17th, according to present plans.

The Hawaiian Trade.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The directors of Hawaiian trade from San Francisco to New York is commented on by Consul General Ellis Mills, at Honolulu, in a report to the state department. He says the exports this year are almost double those of last year, reaching $6,740,000 for the year, against $4,000,000 last year. Of this $4,000,000 in sugar, of which $2,457,500 has been carried around Cape Horn, direct to New York, instead of going via San Francisco.

Satisfied With the Brooklyn.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 30.—The fighting cruiser Brooklyn has returned triumphantly to her dock at Cramp's shipyard. After leaving Boston the two forward engines were uncoupled in order that tests may be made of the ship's sailing properties under various conditions. Naval officers state that the result of these observations will show that the Brooklyn is the most economical cruiser afloat.

Mrs. Lease and Socialism.

EDINBURG, Ind., Aug. 30.—Mrs. Mary E. Lease of Kansas, in an interview after her speech here, said she had espoused socialism as the coming form of government, and that will be the campaign, begin a propaganda for socialistic principles. She has abandoned all hope of entering the ministry. She will stump the states of New York and Pennsylvania for Bryan. She says she proposes to take up her permanent residence on the Atlantic coast. She does not like Tom Watson and says if he is patriotic and a gentleman, and has the welfare of silver at heart, he will withdraw from the Vice presidential race. At present she thinks him the greatest menace to Bryan's success.

The Philippine Island Rebellion.

MADRID, Aug. 30.—The official telegrams received here from Captain-General Blanco, governor of the Philippine islands, announce that 1,000 rebels took the field against the Spanish forces for the purpose of bringing about a revolution. The insurgents were badly armed and easily defeated. Troops are now in pursuit of the insurgents. Governor Blanco, however, estimates the reparation number at least 4,000.

SPAIN'S TROUBLES.

Cuban Insurgents Charged with Many Acts of Cruelty.

HAVANA, Aug. 30.—Guerillas from Figo, Spain, connected with the Lusitania division, overtook the insurgents Castillo and Banderas. After sharp fighting the insurgents were dislodged from the trenches. They left five dead on the field behind them as they retired with their wounded. Seven of the troops are said to have been wounded in the engagement.

Insurgents lurking in the outskirts of San Antonio de Los Banos, province of Havana, recently fired into the Spanish hospital occupied by yellow fever patients. A hysterical panic resulted among the patients, and the excitement in consequence of the stories by the insurgents was with difficulty suppressed.

An aged Spaniard named Fellow Mendez, a peaceful citizen residing in the town of Managua, the father of a large family, was forcibly captured in the suburbs of the town and hanged by the insurgents, as the Spanish officials report.

A Mazzatlo correspondent is authority for the statement that the insurgents last week dragged Jose Bittendange, another peaceable Spanish citizen, away from the British plantation of Media Leeta and hanged him to a tree in the vicinity of that town. Beside his became excited and while he was swinging in misery they mutilated his body in a frightful fashion with machetes. His wife, a native of Cuban, was assaulted and finally insulted shamefully, the only excuse given for this outrage being that she had been guilty of the offense of marrying a Spaniard.

A WAR OF EXTERMINATION AT HAND.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—A dispatch to the World from Madrid says: The rebels must be defeated before the end of the year, so Premier Canovas has cabled to General Weyler, explaining that the Sunday interview was taken alarm at the developments of a recent interview between United States Minister Taylor and the Duke of Tetuan, Spain's minister of foreign affairs.

Gen. Weyler cabled back to Madrid that in the future he must report to extreme methods.

"Do as you please," replied Senor Canovas.

Torrasion General Weyler determined to hear shortly an edict forbidding the grinning of the assassin's cigarettes.

When that edict appears war will begin in earnest. Cubans will convey kills and wounds, the Spanish troops will be in silver and lowes. The Cuban mine will be dyed red by both sides for Weyler will send Gomez's trenches and mines upon a campaign of extirpation. Cuba will be made desolate by fire and sword. The torch will be applied by negroes and insurgents alike to everything which might give aid and comfort to the enemy. Everything outside the military lines will be shot without challenge.

There was a panic in political and financial circles when it was known Weyler's intentions leaked out. The Marquis of Arcenguiz, the chief of the conservative party, was immediately in consultation with Premier Canovas and arrived yesterday from the Conchanco sugar plantation, where he was making extensive preparations for next week's campaign. Members of the conservative leaders was held. Protests and petitions of great influence were made. After a long and heated discussion, in which General Weyler's supporters were denounced without stint, resolutions were adopted in this sense:

First—That a committee composed of the Marquis of Arcenguiz, Puigcerdi Delgadoles and Palanco Sanchez visit Weyler and try to prevail upon him not to leave the edict.

Second—If he persists in his delopinion to issue the edict, that the government at Madrid be urged to recall Weyler to Spain.

These unanimous resolutions are the talk of the city, as it is well known that Spanish rule in Cuba always has been upheld by and in control of the conservative party, especially in times of war, and that the party's constituents are to effect here.

THE KINTERDEON.

Festival to Open in Denver Tomorrow and Tuesday.

DENVER, Aug. 30.—The national Kintergarten festival will open in the Arlington park pavilion on this city next Tuesday at 1:30. There will be seven sessions in all, the last being on Friday morning.

Arrangements have been made by which discounts will be received with 3,000 trained voices, and 600 soloists have come from all parts of the country to take part in the entertainments. Some of these singers are among the foremost in the United States.

Of the pavilion it is said that great success has been achieved in its erection. The soundingboard is reported to be perfect, and the same is true of the acoustic properties of the vast hall, which will seat 10,000 people.
