

COURT NEWS

AFTER LAMOLINE AGAIN.

Second Charge of Petit Larceny is Filed Against Him.

Although John Lamoline is undergoing a five months' sentence in the county jail, recently imposed, following his plea of guilty to the charge of petty larceny, a second complaint has been filed against him charging him with a similar offense.

The acknowledged crime, for which he is now serving sentence, consisted in the theft of a quantity of carpenter tools, and it was while arresting Lamoline and recovering the stolen property that the officers found the evidence of his alleged second offense.

While searching the house for the stolen tools the officers found a bicycle, which had the appearance of having been newly painted, a white color. By turning the handle of the bicycle, it was found that the number identified a bicycle reported by J. D. Lindsay as having been stolen from him on May 4.

The complaint charging Lamoline with the theft of the wheel was filed yesterday, and he will be arraigned on the new charge within a day or two.

STARR ARRAIGNED.

F. G. Starr, charged with having passed forged checks, was arraigned this morning before Judge Bowman, and entered a plea of not guilty. His hearing was set for Tuesday, the 25th.

DISTRICT COURT NOTES.

Joseph H. Haslam brought suit in the Third district court yesterday against his brother James. Haslam sought to restrain the latter from trespassing on his property. He asks for $100 damages and costs because the defendant tore down a fence on the boundary of the property. The land involved is on Sixth West street, near Third North street.

Col. E. A. Wall filed a suit against the town of Brigham this morning in the Third district court to declare an ordinance null and void, which was passed by the city council on May 12, 1929, making it unlawful to throw or dump tallings into Carr Park. It is alleged in his complaint that this ordinance will force him to close down his mill which has been in operation there for several years. He also sets forth in his complaint that he owns water rights in the fork of the Jordan river and that he has been granted an order to show cause why he was made returnable on June 18.

Judge Morse rendered a decision in favor of the defendant this morning in the case of Frank E. Erath, proprietor of the Superior Bakery, against the Royal Baking company. The suit was brought to recover $5,000 damages for the alleged infringement of the Royal Baking company upon "Butter Nut" brand which was made by the Superior Baking company.

M. E. Callahan filed suit against Salt Lake City this morning in the Third district court to recover $475 for damages to his property on Fifth East street. He alleges that on account of the negligence of the city that his ground was damaged by flood waters on May 25 and 26.

The case of Fred Bunker against the Union Pacific Railroad company was dismissed yesterday by Judge Lewis at the request of the plaintiff. The suit was brought to recover $30,000 for personal injuries received at Thayer Junction, Wyo., on Aug. 31, 1928, when he lost his arm while employed as a brakeman.

CHANGE IS INCONVENIENT.

Overland Mail Reaches City Too Late For Delivery Same Day.

Under the new schedule published this morning a change is made in the time when the overland mail reaches Salt Lake City that will be resented by the business interests of the city. Heretofore the mail has reached the depot at 3:30 p. m. and has been in the city for 20 minutes before it is delivered. Under the new schedule the overland mail will not reach the depot until 5:30 a. m. and the postoffice 5 minutes later, too late for delivery that evening by carriers which is likely to prove a very grave inconvenience to business men.

Speaking of the matter today a prominent business man said that the change of late years seem to hit Salt Lake adversely. At one time this same mail reached the city at 1:30, then it was changed to 3:30 and now it comes in too late to be of any use to business men until the next morning.

MISS ALLEN'S RECITAL.

Miss Esther T. Allen and her Sunday school orchestra gave an excellent recital last night in the First Congregational church before an audience that filled the house. It is something just a trifle unusual to hear a Sunday school orchestra give a recital of this nature, but that orchestra of young people gave the Allegro Moderato movement so well as to occasion surprise. The orchestra also played the accompaniment for Mrs. Peters' songs, and several numbers that generally appear on the programs of much more pretentious orchestral organizations. Miss Allen made brief preliminary remarks to the composers on the program and the scope and aim of their works. She was elegantly gowned. Mrs. Peters' fine soprano voice was in excellent condition, and her performance was a delight to the audience. The program was as follows: First violin—Miss Allen, Miss L. McCurtain, F. Kutnewsky; second violin—A. Love, B. Clay, G. Verbrugg; viola—W. Davidson; Miss J. Thompson; cello—Miss M. Matthews; tuba—Charles W. Hall; piano—Miss E. Hall, assisted by Mrs. F. Anderson, Miss E. Crawford, first violin; Miss A. Cowan, second violin; Miss M. Coggle, cello.

Tonight Mr. Clay's N. Nettleton gives a violin recital at the First M. E. church, assisted by his pupils.

George N. Lawrence gave a dinner at the University club last night, the decorations being in yellow tulips and covers laid for the teachers of the Emerson school entertained at an apple blossom luncheon, in honor of Miss Ella Lowenstein, a June bride-to-be. The beautiful new teachers' room was a bower of apple blossoms. From the center of the room hung a huge May basket filled to overflowing with the pretty blossoms. Pink and green streamers extended from the May basket to all the corners of the L-shaped table. Place cards were hand-painted in apple blossoms, and the favors were brides' slippers hand-painted in cupids and blossoms. Covers were laid for 25.

Mrs. O. J. Salisbury entertained at dinner last night in honor of Monroe J. Salisbury, who is playing leading part in "The Mills of the Gods" at the Colonial this week, and tonight gives a box party at the play and a supper afterward in his honor. The party will comprise 30 guests.

Mrs. A. Eusign and Mrs. J.

J. Sears entertained at a delightful luncheon yesterday at her home, the second in a series of three parties. The decorations were in yellow, a cut glass vase set on a mirror and filled with yellow flowers forming the centerpiece and silver candlesticks with yellow and green shades being at each corner. The mystic symbols "L. O." were carried out in decorations, menu and place cards, and their meaning made known only to the guests. Tea cup fortunes were a feature and covers were laid for a dozen guests.

The date of the marriage of Miss Ella Lowenstein and Samuel Joseph Gettleson has been set for June 22. Several pre-nuptial affairs are being planned in honor of the bride-elect. On Monday afternoon the teachers of the Emerson school entertained at an apple blossom luncheon, in honor of Miss Ella Lowenstein, a June bride-to-be. The beautiful new teachers' room was a bower of apple blossoms. From the center of the room hung a huge May basket filled to overflowing with the pretty blossoms. Pink and green streamers extended from the May basket to all the corners of the L-shaped table. Place cards were hand-painted in apple blossoms, and the favors were brides' slippers hand-painted in cupids and blossoms. Covers were laid for 25.

Tonight Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Halliday entertain the Hillside Card club.
