TUTT'S PILLS

TORPID BOWELS and DISORDERED LIVER.

From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Eructation of food, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, a feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored Urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through these three "scavengers of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. TUTT'S PILLS cause no nausea or griping nor interfere with daily work, and are a perfect

ANTIDOTE to MALARIA.

TUTT'S HAIR DYE.

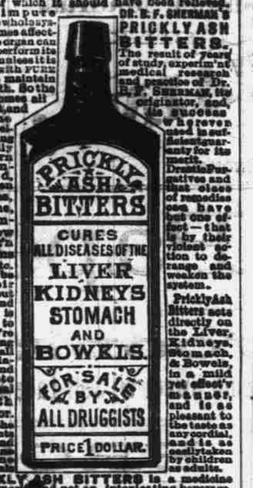
GRAY HAIR OR WHISKERS changed instantly to a GLOSSY BLACK by a single application of this DYE. Sold by Druggists, or sent by express on receipt of $1. Sold everywhere. Office, 44 Murray St., N. Y.

THE LIVER AND ITS FUNCTIONS.

IT has become a well established fact that the large portion of disease to which the human family is subject arise in the first place from some derangement of the Liver. This organ, next only in size and importance to the heart, is of the most important. The venous blood, on its return to the heart, passes through this organ, and in its passage takes impurities, as also the elements which are necessary for digestion as well as for the purpose of the removal of waste material in the system. From this it is evident that the Liver is liable to get out of order to a greater or less extent, and when this occurs it is impossible for it to properly fulfill its office of removing all objectionable matter from the blood, but allows it to pass through, carrying with it the poison of which it should have been relieved. With impure blood the whole system becomes affected, and no organ can properly perform its function unless it is supplied with PURE BLOOD to maintain its strength. So the Liver becomes all important, and when one becomes aware of being continually tired, worn out, languid, with loss of appetite, sick headache, sour stomach, sallow complexion, constipated bowels, etc., they may be sure their Liver is out of order, and a remedy is required to assist nature in its work of throwing off the accumulations. To restore this to its original Strength and Vigor. For this purpose no compound of this kind has ever been offered to the public that has given such entire satisfaction as

DR. C. F. SHERMAN'S PRICKLY ASH BITTERS.

The result of years of study, experiment and research, and the medical practice of Dr. C. F. SHERMAN, the originator, and who for many years has been unsurpassed in his success in curing diseases of the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach, Bowels and Blood. Prickly Ash Bitters acts directly on the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach, and Bowels, in a mild yet effectual manner, and is so pleasant to the taste as to be used as any cordial, and is as much relished by children as adults.



PRICKLY ASH BITTERS is a medicine of rare merit and not an intoxicating beverage, and being purely vegetable in its composition can be used at all times with perfect safety. It is not claimed as a cure-all, but for derangements of the organs mentioned, it is a specific and as a BLOOD PURIFIER ranks above all other preparations. Ask your druggist for it, and give it a fair trial. If he has none on hand, ask that it be ordered for you.

To Dyspeptics.

Dyspeptics should avoid anything which they (not others) cannot digest. There are so many causes for and forms of dyspepsia that it is impossible to prescribe one and the same diet for all. Nothing is more disagreeable or useless than to be cautioned against eating this or that, because your neighbor "So-and-So" cannot eat such things. If we would all study the nature and digestion of food, and remember that air and exercise are as essential as food in promoting good health, we could easily decide upon the diet best suited to our individual needs The diabetic should abstain from sugar and anything which is converted into sugar in digestion, such as all starchy foods, fine wheat flour, rice, macaroni, tapioca, liver, potatoes, beets, carrots, turnips, parsnips, peas, beans, very old cheese, sweet omelets, custards, jellies, starchy nuts, sweet sauces, wine and liquors. He may eat oysters, all kinds of fish, meat, poultry and game, soups without any starchy thickening, lettuce, cucumbers, watercresses, dandelions, young onions, cold slaw, olives, cauliflower, spinach, cabbage, string beans, ripe fruit of all kinds without sugar, cream butter, milk sparingly, gluten, flour, oily nuts freely salted, eggs, coffee and cocoa. The corpulent should abstain from fat as well as sugar and starch. A diet of whole-wheat, milk, vegetables, fruits and lean meat will produce only a normal amount of fatness; while an excess of sweets, acids, spices and shortening keeps the system in an unhealthful condition. Those who can digest fine flour, pastry, sugar and fat become loaded with fat, but are neither strong nor vigorous. Thin people with weak digestion should also avoid such food; for thin people are often kept thin by the same food which makes others fat. If they cannot digest the starch, butter and fine flour, the system is kept in a feverish, dyspeptic state; they become nervous or go into consumption for no other reason than that the life is burned out by a diet which only feeds the fire and does not renew the tissues. "Men dig their graves with their teeth; not only by drinking whisky and using tobacco, but by eating food loaded down with inflammatory materials."

The Value of a Voice.

To-day I saw a woman who had made a severe sacrifice to art, and had not been fairly recompensed for it. She was Clara Louise Kellogg, and she had just returned from Europe. She is a good-looking woman, and not too mature to be Marguerite in Faust some more, only she hasn't the voice for it. It is said that out of the many suitors which a successful prima donna is sure to have she selected one to love, but that, believing the theory that matrimony and motherhood were destructive of a voice's best qualities, she sturdily refuses to wed. Nevertheless, her vocal organ has given out, and she is neither a singer nor a wife. She has fortune enough to live luxuriously, however, and comeliness sufficient, I should say, to win a husband if she still has any desire for one. She was then going to Saratoga to wear a number of fine dresses that she had brought from Paris.

Was she right about her avoidance of a wedding as a protection to her voice? No. Experts say that she injured it by a false method of singing; and as for the marrying, look at Nilsson, who is a widow, Gerster and Albani, who have husbands and babies, and Patti, with two spouses. Highly hazardous property is an operatic voice. Campanini had a tenor worth $1,000 for every performance. He brought it to America, and zealously guarded it against the changeableness of our erratic climate. But he incautiously exposed it to the rigors of our whisky, and it has sustained serious and possibly irreparable injury. He is one of the few Italian singers who are Italian. He was a blacksmith before he became a public singer. He is a whole-souled, winsome fellow in private life, and speedily made boon friends among New Yorkers, who are ready to begin drinking, but are reluctant to stop. Most Italian artists who come here, stick to maccaroni and red wine. Campanini found delight in doing as certain Americans did. Consequence: His singing last season was marked by several disastrous breakdowns.—New York Cor. Albany Journal.

Pay As You Go.

The best of all rules for successful housekeeping and making both ends of the year meet is "Pay as you go." Beyond all countries in the world, ours is the one in which the credit system is the most used and abused. Pass-books are the bane and pest of domestic economy—a perpetual plague, vexation, and swindle. Abused by the servants at the store and house, disputed constantly by housekeepers and dealers, they are temptations to both parents to do wrong. "I never had that." "We neglected to enter this," "I forgot to bring the book." "Never mind, we'll make a note of it," and so it goes. But the worst of it is that housekeepers are tempted to order what they have not the means to pay for, and when the time for settlement comes they are straightened. A family can live respectably on a very moderate income, if they always take the cash in hand and buy where they can buy to the best advantage. Then they will be careful first to get what is necessary. Extra comforts will be had if they can afford them. But it is bad policy to buy on credit. No wise dealer sells so cheaply on credit as for cash.

Mr. Frank Devine, 347 First Avenue, New York, states, that he was afflicted with acute rheumatism and was cured by St. Jabobs Oil, the Great German Remedy.
