

TELLS OF THE MORMONS.

A West Virginia Governor His Experience and Views Regarding the Elders and Religion.

Osa, Cabell Co., W. Va., August 10, 1896.

As the old saying is, "It is never too late to do good, and we never too old to learn," I feel that I would like to give expression to my feelings...

I had always heard of Utah and the Mormon way, such an outrageous, degraded people, that I was led to believe that they were something different from a white man. It was an evening in August, 1891, that two well dressed men came to my home and applied for entertainment...

I had never heard of Utah and the Mormon way, such an outrageous, degraded people, that I was led to believe that they were something different from a white man.

After this I have had the opportunity of entertaining two different kinds of men, and I have learned a great deal...

One very moral gentleman, I noticed in these gentlemen, that they all seem to be honest, straightforward men, who are not afraid to tell the truth...

In conclusion I will say that I am in sympathy with the Mormons, and always will be, for they are a people who are always doing good to the best of their ability.

Very respectfully, J. D. HILSON.
