

COL. ROOSEVELT SLAYS THREE LIONS

Each One of Them Was Brought Down With a Single Shot
From His Mighty Gun.

KERMIT ALSO KILLED ONE.

During the Greater Part of the Day
He Was Busy With His Camera.

Nairobi, British East Africa, May 1.—Four lions are trophies of ex-President Roosevelt's camp in the Mau hills tonight, and the 200 or more native followers are rejoicing with the American party in the celebration of the unusual good luck.

The lions were bagged yesterday and Col. Roosevelt's mighty gun brought three of them to earth, each on the first shot. Thus one of the former president's fondest ambitions has been realized, and he is proud, too, that the fourth jungle king fell before the rifle of his son, Kermit, who, however, took three shots to kill his quarry.

Both father and son are jubilant. It was their first lion hunt and so magnificent a kill was far beyond their expectations; but lions have been plentiful in the hills for the past month, and the English hunter, W. V. Salous, has been out for several days laying plans for their extinction. How well he succeeded can be seen by the results of yesterday's chase.

Mr. Salous accompanied the former president, who also was attending to the usual routine of hunters. Usually the hunters go into the jungle with considerable trepidation, but as Col. Roosevelt's reputation as a hunter had reached here long before he arrived in person, the hunters on this occasion were exceptionally enthusiastic. They seemed even eager to play a part in the first hunt of the distinguished American.

The caravan started early Thursday morning from the ranch of Sir Alfred Pease, on the Athi river, and proceeded slowly to the Mau hills. This range is open for wide areas, but in places is covered with dense growths, where game is plentiful. The first night in camp was without special incident, no attempt being made to go after lions, although their call was heard now and then during the night; but at dawn the camp was astir, and the drive speedily organized. The native hunters set out in all directions, under the instructions of the "head man," armed with all sorts of noise-making devices, which could not but arouse any game within earshot. Some of the beats proved blanks, but by daylight no less than 10 kinds of game had been bagged.

Kermit, during the greater part of the day, did more effective work with his camera than with his gun, allowing Mr. Roosevelt the much-prized shots.

Details of the actual shooting were not brought down to Nairobi today from the camp, but it was declared that in each case a single bullet from Mr. Roosevelt's rifle sufficed to bring down his lion. From this it is regarded that Col. Roosevelt is living up to the reputation which he has gained here of being a crack shot. All the lions were of normal size, and after the natives had dragged them together in the grass, they executed the usual dance around the trophies.

The party plans to go south tomorrow, with the hope of bagging one or

RECHAD EFFENDI, HEIR TO TURKISH THRONE, WHO WAS LONG A PRISONER

Rechad Effendi, the heir to the Turkish throne, is a weaker character than Abdul Hamid. For years—in fact, during the greater part of his life—he has been virtually a prisoner in his palace. It was not until Abdul Hamid was forced to recognize the constitution that he took any cognizance of his brother other than to keep spies about him. Under the Moslem law the sultan's brother next of age is the heir to the throne. Rechad Effendi was born in Constantinople in 1844.

WOMAN'S NIGHTMARE

No woman can be happy without children; it is her nature to love them as much so as it is the beautiful and pure. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass is so full of dread that the thought fills her with apprehension. There is no necessity for the reproduction of life to be either very painful or dangerous. The use of Mother's Friend prepares the system for the coming event, and it is passed without any danger. This remedy is applied externally, and has carried thousands of women through the crisis with but little suffering.

Book containing information of value to all expectant mothers mailed free.

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored my health and strength, and proved worth mountains of gold to me. For the sake of other suffering women I am willing you should publish my letter."

—Mrs. CHARLES BARCLAY, R.F.D., Graniteville, Vt.

Women who are passing through this critical period or who are suffering from any of those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not miss sight of the fact that for thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills. In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

more grateful. The chances are Mr. Roosevelt's good luck will continue, for natives and settlers from all sections report game as very plentiful.

MRS. BARNEY, SOCIETY WOMAN WHO DANCED FOR THE PRESIDENT

COPYRIGHT BY HARRIS & EWING

President and Mrs. Taft were the chief guests at the opening of the musical play "About Thebes," which was presented for a week at the Belasco theater by the young members of Washington's smartest society set. The play was written by Mrs. Albert Clifford Barney, who is a remarkable versatile woman. She can do almost anything from turning out canvases for the Paris salon to writing fantastic plays, but Washington society did not know until "About Thebes" was produced that she was an excellent stage dancer. The advance notices of the play and the program had considerable about "Mme. Clifford, premiere dancer brought from Paris especially for this engagement," and of course every one was surprised when Mrs. Barney appeared in the role of the French dancer. Mrs. Barney owns a mansion in Sheridan circle and is one of the most popular hostesses at the capital.

PREST. SCHURMAN ON BURDEN OF WAR TAXES

Chicago, May 2.—Jacob Gould Schurman of Cornell university tonight addressed the Sunday club of this city. He said, in part:

"In modern times wars are comparatively infrequent. The sufferings of the wounded are small in our own time compared with that they have been. The financial load is enough to make the richest nations reel and stagger. Two-thirds of all the revenues of the United States, it is said, are used to defray the expenses entailed by necessary preparation for future wars."

"Taking Europe as a whole, something like $5,000,000,000 are now in arms, all withdrawn from industrial pursuits in order that they may be trained for war. And their maintenance, of course, is all the time a burden upon the producers of the country. It is estimated that Europe is regularly paying on her standing army from six to seven billion dollars."

"While the wage earners tend more and more to become the advocates of peace, still it is alleged that we are building our navies larger annually. Another factor operating against militarism and tending to render friendlier international relations is the growing intercourse among the nations on the part of the traders, travelers, students and missionaries."

"When we turn from Europe to Asia we feel the greatest need of mutual understanding, appreciation and sympathy. Nothing is more important than an increase of intercourse between them and us."

RADICAL CHANGES IN MIDSHIPMEN'S TRAINING

Washington, May 3.—Some radical changes in the methods of physical training of midshipmen generally in the lines of a reduction of that sort of work which develops star performers who need the training least of all is suggested by the special board detailed by the superintendent of the naval academy. The board is of the impression that real advantage would be gained if physical exercises were increased with opportunity to that end by reduction of some other work, such as drilling.

It is evident, it is suggested, that the policy of the naval academy will be that of consistent and compulsory physical exercise along their individuality prescribed and the hope is expressed by those interested to extend the same system to the naval training stations and to adopt it ultimately as a requirement aboard ships for both officers and men.

The headquarters of the midshipmen's training squadron this year will be at New London and the cruising will be confined to New England waters.

Four thousand men will be required, and 100 miles of road will be completed this season.

Samuel E. Gross, 65, Marries Ruby Louise Haughey, 18.

Battle Creek, Mich., May 3.—Samuel Eberly Gross, formerly of Chicago, was married here yesterday to Miss Ruby Louise Haughey. The groom is 65 years of age, the bride is 18.

Mr. Gross was once an extensive operator in real estate and achieved international fame as the author of a play entitled "The Merchant Prince of Cornville," which he maintained to the "Ideal Husband," was inspired by letters from 100 young women, has followed that effort by a discourse on "The Ideal Wife." Letters from many swains were read Sunday to an appreciative audience.

While the qualifications for wives-to-be were varied and amusing in many cases, it was evident most of the men who wrote to the pastor were serious in their requests. Every man wrote that he did not wish his wife to be a college graduate, nor a club woman, nor a reformer. Neither was it considered essential that she be pretty or talented. What every man wanted was an "old-fashioned girl."

All insisted the acceptable girl be a good cook and neat housekeeper. Only two men wanted a stylish wife. More of them wanted her vivacious rather than quiet. All insisted on her being a "home girl." The prevailing opinion seemed to be against society women, reformers or those interested in politics.

Several men were partial to a clinging vine while others thought it was a good idea if they could get a "sturdy oak"—a woman amply able to keep them well in hand.

ROOSEVELT WILL PAY HIS RESPECTS TO THE POPE

Rome, May 2.—While on the Red sea, April 17, en route to Mombasa, Theodore Roosevelt wrote a letter to Cardinal Sarto, in which he said: "I shall look forward to renewing our acquaintance a year hence, when I shall present my respects to the holy father, to whom I beg of you to give my personal regards."

DR. MANUEL AMADOR DEAD.

He Was the First President of the Republic of Panama.

Panama, May 2.—Dr. Manuel Amador, first president of the republic of Panama, died today of a lingering illness. He was 75 years of age.

Manuel Amador was one of the prime movers in the revolution in 1903 against Colombia, which led to the independence of Panama. He was born at Cartagena and early in life engaged in commercial business. Later he began the practice of medicine, finally becoming one of the prominent physicians of the country.

Dr. Amador in politics was a Conservative, and, in 1896, much against his will, was nominated and elected to the presidency of the Republic of Panama. He never took office, however, for a liberal revolution was started, and succeeded before his inauguration. Afterwards he steadfastly refused to accept high political offices, when at last he was chosen president of the republic of Panama, the honor came to him unsought.
