Beneficent Rains - Sheep Shearing Difficulties-Creamery Doing Well.

Special Correspondence. Vernal, Ulntah Co., April 4.—For the first time in many moons we are now being favored with rains and the farm-ers are rejoicing. The weather is quite cold and in fact considerable snow fell yesterday which melted as fast as it fell. There was a pice rain parts has fell. There was a nice rain again last evening and it is now raining with indications that it will continue antil the grain gets a thorough wetting. SHEEP SHEARING DIFFICULTIES.

Sheep shearing has commenced on a small scale, but will be in full blast in small scale, but will be in full basis in a few days. Quite a number of the shearers are getting ready to go to Wyoming and other adjoining States, the differences with the local sheepmen not having been adjusted. The men still demand seven cents a head, and the price offered is six cents. Considerable price offered is six cents. Considerable ill will exists over the matter.

CREAMERY DOING WELL.

The creamery is running regularly and is turning out a fine quality of but ter, which finds a ready market. The cheese factory will be ready in time for the large milk supply in June so that there will be constant demand for all the milk, which will reach probably 000 pounds daily during the summer months.

Quite a number of conference visitors have started for Salt Lake, among them being President S. R. Bennion and Eish-op George Billings. John E. Dooly of Salt Lake, has made a bid on the $16,000 five per cent bond issue of this county, for the erection of a new court house. His offer is par and accrued interest, The Ashley Co-op will soon commence the erection of their new store.

Special Correspondence.

Soon after leaving the house his young-est girl went upstairs to bed. Her eider sister gave her a match with which to light the lamp when she got to her room, which faces the main street. The little girl lit the lamp, and thoughtless-ly threw the match down on the floor. The match unfortunately landed in the lace curtains, which were soon in a blaze. The little girl jumped into bed, saying to herself that she would keep from the fire by covering her head with the bed clothes. Three boys, however, happened to pass the house at
