The Saved by toung companions. Special Correspondence. M. Pleasant, Sanpete Co., Sept 4--Ernest Hansen, the leyear-old son of Ole Hansen, of Mt. Pleasant, was seriously whot yesterday afternoon, in the moun-tains east of here. His right hand had a hole shot through the paim near the index finger, breaking the bones of the han extent that it was necessary to am-putate it. It is hoped the second finger will be saved. The forearm above the werst was also broken. M. Ole Hansen having received permit from the government to get wood from the reserve went into the mountains in seurch of fuel to use in his creamery, taking his son. Ernest, also Charles Lind-strom and Albion Halstrom, with him. The boys intending to hunt game, took with them a couple of shotguns. On reaching Cow Fork the boys stopped while one cut his name in the bark of a tree. Ernest carried one of the guns and stodd it upon the ground, holding his folded hands over the muzzle. While in this position the gun was discharged through cause not exactly known, with the result stated. Both hands were in-pured, while many shot passed into his, the fill to the ground with a moan, but arose immediately. With the report of the gun his companions called for help.
