save, perhaps, for a little squall which came up just at sundown and rendered it somewhat disagreeable for bathers and plenickers, and all seemed to enjoy themselves to the fullest, partic-ularly the out of town folks, who took every advantage of the opportunity aforded.

This proved quite an interesting con-test and was witnessed by a large crowd of enthusiasts. The first half was intensely spirited and ended with a score of 4 to 4, but in the second half the Payson girls scored three and the American Fork lassles but two, the for-mer thus winning by a score of 7 to 8.
