EVENING NEWS. - April 3, 1976

Correspondence.

VIOLA, Richland Co., Wis., March 7th, 1876.

Editor Descret News:

Since my last correspondence for the News we have visited Dane County, where we met with a kind reception, meeting with four families who have friends in Utah, Thomas and David Isom, and an aged lady and her son named Elwood. They were formerly from England, and they all have friends in the Kingdom of God.

Yation. I have often seen the inspiration of the Lord in those elders made manifest; they carry with them the peaceable influence of the Spirit of God; and all that come under the sound of the Gospel, as proclaimed by his saints in this age, and repent not, it will prove to their condemnation, and to those who will repent and prove faithful their joy, exaltation and salvation in the Kingdom of God.

I have a bad cold now, and it England, and they all have friends in "eur mountain home," who send them some of our papers, among them the News. Allow me to say here that wherever we find people who receive a copy of the News, they always receive and entertain us with the greatest kindness. Therefore I weuld urge upon our brethren in Utah who have friends they cast, to send them copies of the seast, to send them copies of the coppressed of every land, the

There was about eight inches of snow on the ground, and the large feathery flakes were still falling, when the thunders of heaven began to roar, shaking the earth like the discharge of a thousand pieces of heavy artillery. The vivid lightning danced in forked streaks through the air, making it as light as day, so that together with the snow upon the ground, the light became so dazzling that we involuntarily put our hands before our eyes, in order to regain our sight. This continued for about one hour. In the morning the snow was about one foet deep. At this time of year, in a northern climate, suchla storm is unprecedented, and such was never witnessed here before by the oldest inhabitant.

On our return we visited Madion our return we visited Madison, the capital of this State. Madison is the most beautiful city we have seen in the north-west, it is attuated contraily between four fresh water lakes. The capital is located in the centre of the city, on a very high hill, in the midst of a small but beautiful park. The building has four main entrances. The columns at the entrance are of the Corinthian style, the dome is high and well formed, the home circle.

Air. Eugene Brown, who is state watchman, was very kine and courteous to us. We informed him that we were "Mermon elders" from Utah, and he took great pains to show us everything of interest about the Capitel. We visited the "Historical Rooms," which contain a first class library, as well as many articles of curiosity and interest. Among them we noticed many articles of curiosity and interest. Among them we noticed the design of the Temple new being built in Salt Lake, also a Salt Lake City 50cc. bill. A sight that interested me much was the flags of the forty-sight regiments from this State, who participated in the late war, some of them being blood-statused, and liberally shot into ribbons. While gazing at them, I thought "Why will men reject the Prophets of God, and engage in such scenes of carnage? The thoughts this brought up caused me to be sad, and I turned to other objects of interest.

We also and our respects to "Old Abe," a fine sagle, which accompanied the Sth Wisconsin regiment through all the bloody battles in which they were engaged, being in front of Petersburg during the siege. He was slightly wounded once or twice, and was a great pet among the regiment. He did not seem to be well pleased at our visit, as it was about 9 p. m. and we no doubt disturbed his quiet alumbers.

SIDING ELDERS IN ALL THE SETTLEMENTS OF THE LATTER-DAY SAINTS.

DEAR BRETHREN: It is our desire to commence again to assist the scattered poor of God's people.

It has been raining now for two or three days, with a thawing wind, causing the Kickapoo river, which is usually a small stream, to rise about eight feet, overflowing the entire bottom. In some places the water is mart three quarters of a mile wide. Some of the houses in that locality have from three to four feet of water in them, the inmates having to seek shelter with the scattered poor of God's people in gathering to Zion. To aid in the accomplishment of this purpose we request the Bishops and Presiding Elders in the various settlements to give especial attention to the collection of the debts due to the Perpetual Emigration Fund from those who have been assisted in past years. In view of the near approach of the season of the year when our emigration leaves the shores of Europe, we described to go and four feet of water in them; the inmates having to seek shelter with their more fortunate neighbors. I already hear of one bridge and mill dam being carried away, and no doubt the loss of property will be great, as many fences, as well as other floating material can be seen, floating down towards the Mississippi, and from thence no doubt they go into the Gulf.

My feelings are, O Lord give me strength that I may be able to do my duty in preaching the gospel, and faithfully warn the people.

Bro. Lewis Anderson has baptized in Streng White in mates having to seek shelter with their more fortunate neighbors. I already hear of one bridge and mill dam being carried away, and no doubt the loss of property will be great, as many fences, as well as other floating material can be seen, floating down towards the Mississippi, and from thence no doubt they go into the Gulf.

VIOLA, Richland Co., Wisconsin, March 14th, 1876. Editor Deseret News:

This last winter has been a pecu-liar one here—scarcely any snow yet, warm most of the time, raining and foggy. The lightning has fished and thunders have rolled, never known in winter here before The people seem to sleep in the slumber of death, popularity is the banner of religion, the young in this land are drifting to infidelity, and still all are down on the "Morross"? mons." Persecution is the cry. Old Babylon is one against God's church, but there are one of a city and two of a family that will not soil their hands in the sins of the age. There are a few that will lis-ten and obey the truth, one in a thousand or two in ten thousand,
