THEATRICAL.—Last night a fair house assembled to witness the drama of the "Green Bushes," in which Miss Lucille Western appeared as Miami, the Huntress of the Mississippi. Too much can hardly be said in praise of this lady's personation of Miami. Her make up was splendid, and every look and gesture was true to nature. Miss Western's Miami was far superior to any personation of the character hitherto attempted at the Salt Lake Theatre and in roles of this kind we should think she has few superiors.

As Madame St. Aubert the proud unbending spirit of the half civilized huntress was rather too apparent more gentleness and rather, we think, would have added to the effect of her performance.

Mr. Herne's Wild Murtogh was a capital piece of acting, and shows that this gentleman is at home while personating the rollicking boisterous Irishman.

Miss Lockhart played a good Nelly O'Neil. Messrs Lindsay and Hardie and Mrs. Bowring played with their usual ability. As a jolly tar Mr. Graham does not appear to the best advantage; the sea is evidently not his element. The dancing and singing scene between Messrs. Gong and Grindlake, Rattlebake, Little Bear and the native Venus, Tigertail was never played here with more spirit, and created any amount of fun.

The remainder of the characters were sustained with credit.

To-night Mr. Herne will appear in his great specialty of Rip Van Winkle; Miss Lockhart as Dame Van Winkle.

CO-OPERATION AT LOGAN.—The following message, received per Deseret telegraph line, by President Young, has been handed to us for publication:

LOGAN 16th.
President Young:—At a meeting of the stockholders last night, the following were elected officers in the Co-operative Institution: Ezra T. Benson, President; Peter Maughan, Vice President; Moses Thatcher, Wm. H. Shearman and Moses Thatcher, Directors; C. W. Penrose, Secretary, and Wm. Goodwin, Treasurer. The Constitution of the Parent Society was adopted with amendments to suit our locality and business. The Board of Directors met today and appointed Moses Thatcher, Wm. H. Shearman and Wm. Goodwin to direct and transact the business of the Company.
E. T. BENSON.

DIED.—In St. Louis, on the 19th ultimo, Jane Graham, aged 93 years. She was baptized in Scotland in 1844, and with her family emigrated to this country in 1850. She lived and died in full faith in the gospel of Christ.—[Com.]

REACHED WASATCH.—By telegram to Mark Croxall, Esq., Superintendent of W. U. Telegraph Office in this city, we learn that Hon. Joseph A. Young and party reached Wasatch at noon yesterday all well. They would go east last night. The road was reported open at Rawlins.

SALT LAKE CITY, March 18, '99.
To Editor Deseret News:—Bro. Cannon, Dear Sir:—Within two or three days past attempts have been made to raise the price of flour, and that too, with success. A gentleman—a brother—called on a dealer in flour, on what is called Main street. Have you any flour? Just one sack, $9.25, a leap of 75 cents on the sack. The same dealer is said to have, the day before, packed a number of sacks away in a dark corner of his store. A servant of the same dealer, in conversation with another dealer, having a few sacks of flour, the remains of a load he had purchased, said "you should get $10 per sack for it." "Understand the same noteworthy himself has flour now at $10.
Very respectfully yours,
JOSEPH SILVER.

DEMISE OF MRS. H. W. NALSBITT.—The melancholy task of recording the demise of this estimable lady devolves upon us to-day. The sad event occurred yesterday afternoon about half-past 3 o'clock, after an illness of two weeks' duration. The deceased had been for sometime suffering under nervous debility; but until about two weeks ago her state of health had not been such as to cause alarm; but from that time she gradually declined until her departure. We feel to sympathize with Bro. Nalsbitt and the children and friends of the deceased, and would, were it in our power, console them in their bereavement and affliction. But the greatest consolation that can be found under the circumstances is in the principles made known through the gospel, in which we all believe. That gospel reveals the glorious truth that, though in the ordinary course of nature and in the dispensations of Providence, we may be called to mourn the departure from this stage of existence of dear friends, it is but a step in the progress to a higher state of being, in which all who are faithful to God and truth will soon have the privilege of participating, and where parting tears will be no more shed.

Sister Elizabeth Nalsbitt is the daughter of Brother Wm. Paul, architect, of this city. She was born at Truro, Cornwall, England, March 11th, 1832. She was baptized in the year 1849, and emigrated to Utah with her husband, parents and brothers and sisters in the Spring of 1854. As a daughter, wife, mother and saint her course has been of the most exemplary character. She had no enemies, but numerous friends, by whom her departure will be long regretted. She leaves a husband, seven children, father, brothers and sisters to mourn her loss. May the consolation of the Holy Spirit without stint be theirs, and while cleaving in full faith to the promises of God's word, remember, in the language of the bereaved poet, her husband, that

"Throughout God's infinite domain
Life reigns perennial, all around,
And every pang or pulse of pain
Leads but to higher vantage ground."
The funeral obsequies will take place to-morrow at 11 o'clock at Bro. Nalsbitt's residence. Friends are invited to attend.

DIED.—At Union Fort, Salt Lake County, Feb. 18th, 1899; Lucy, wife of Richard Morgan, born March 11th, 1812, at Hereford England, baptized March 8th, 1842, emigrated to Utah in the year 1855.—MIL. Star please copy.

BIG COTTONWOOD.—By letter from Bishop D. Britton, of Big Cottonwood Ward, we are pleased to learn that the people of that Ward have commenced the co-operative movement. Bishop Britton has been elected President of the Society, Levi Stewart Vice President, and John Rider, Secretary. John Neff, sen., Amos Neff, Charlie Sullivan, John Oguthorp and Nella Peterson, constitute the Board of Directors. The shares are $25 each. The Constitution and by-laws of the Parent Society were adopted with such modifications as were necessary for the limited business of a Ward. The store was opened on the 14th instant. Prospects of success are encouraging.

BOISTEROUS WEATHER.—The old saying "Comes in like a lamb, goes out like a lion," used in reference to the month of March will, from present appearances, be very likely to be realized this time. March came in warm and fine, giving every indication of a very early spring. But for the last five or six days we have had rain, snow, sunshine and hail and very great prospects of a good deal more of the same kind of weather. Better now than in July. "March many weathers" are seasonable.
