LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRICAL.—The efforts of the management to provide for the public, of this city, first class theatrical entertainments are commendable, praiseworthy and eminently successful. Neither means nor labor have been spared in their endeavors to introduce a diversity of the best histrionic talent upon the boards and the selections have been almost universally judicious, happy and consequently highly satisfactory to those who have attended the most popular of our places of amusement, the Theatre. Among the most gratifying arrangements that have lately been entered into by the management, in catering for the entertainment of the public, is the engagement of the accomplished and talented pantomimist, dansense, &c., M'lle Marie LaRavel. This lady, in her particular line, ranks in the first order; and in no instances, since her debut before a Salt Lake audience, has she shown this more decidedly than last night, in her personation of "Myrtillo a Dumb Orphan," in the melo drama of The Broken Sword. Her carriage and general bearing and demeanor were the essence of grace; it was the poetry of motion. Although the part she enacted precludes the use of the organ of speech, yet her easy, natural gesticulations and facial expressions were so apropos to the sentiment and idea to be imparted that the audience readily caught at her meaning, making the author's explanations, through the other characters, really unnecessary. The play itself is one of unexceptionably moral and intense interest throughout, and many of the incidents and situations are exceedingly affecting, almost painfully so. According to the drama, "Myrtillo" was struck dumb, when very young, by fright caused by seeing his father murdered. The interest was kept up during the entire play, but at the closing scene where the enthusiasm of the audience reaches its zenith; when "Myrtillo," beholds, in "Colonel Rigolio," the murderer; it is then that M'lle Ravel throws her whole soul into the character. Her attitude, her expressive countenance, her movements, tell louder than tones of thunder that, like a vivid flash of lightning, memory has taken in the minutest details of the murderous scene of by gone years and that the slayer of her father stands before her. At this point the intense excitement of the orphan's overwrought feelings breaks the bonds that have so long tied the organs of speech and he shrieks, "murderer of my father," springs upon "Rigolio" with the fierceness of a tiger, grasps him by the throat and brings him to the ground. During this scene the curtain descends amid the plaudits of the audience. This piece will certainly bear repetition. Last night it was performed without a hitch; all seemed to be well up in their parts.

The performance of M'lle Ravel on the tight rope was entirely satisfactory. She appeared perfectly at home on the line, maintaining that easy grace which characterizes her carriage and movement on the boards. The feats she executed were really astounding. To those who delight in sights of the kind, this part of last night's entertainment alone was worth the price of admission. "Bragg Versus Plotter" made no end of fun. Phil. was in his element.

To-night "Jartine or, the Pride of the 14th," will be again presented, in which M'lle Ravel will execute her "Lightning Zouave drill."

DEATH OF BISHOP P. MAUGHAN.—We received the following, by Deseret Telegraph, last evening:

LOGAN, April 24th.

Bishop Peter Maughan departed this life at 5:30 p. m., to-day.

Although news reached us some days since that Bishop Maughan was very ill, we were not prepared to receive intelligence of his demise. The news will touch the hearts of his many friends in this Territory and elsewhere. There are but few men who are as extensively and favorably known among the Latter-day Saints as he was. It can be truly said of him that another hero in the cause of God has gone to a higher and holier sphere to continue to labor in the cause which he so nobly sustained while on earth. He belonged to that class of large hearted men who the more intimately they are known the better they are liked. He was, in the true sense of the word, a friend to the poor, being ever ready to extend the helping hand to the needy. He was universally known, by all who had dealings with him for his unswerving honesty, integrity and justice. We sincerely sympathize with his family in their bereavement.

Since writing the above we have received the following telegram from Logan:

Peter Maughan, the son of William and Martha Maughan, was born May 7th, 1811, at Brockenshire, Cumberland, England. He was baptized by Isaac Russell in the Spring of 1838, and ordained an Elder in the Spring of 1841, by President B. Young. He emigrated the same Spring in the ship Rochester, in company with Presidents Young, Kimball, Richards and others of the Twelve. He remained in Kirtland several months, and then moved to Nauvoo the same Fall, and assisted in the building of the Temple. He was with the Saints in their mobbing and driving from that place. He arrived in Salt Lake, September, 1850, and was called to labor in Tooele in establishing the early settlements of that county. In the Fall of '56, he was called to establish settlements in Cache County, and presided over the same as President and Presiding Bishop until his death.

NEARLY DROWNED.—Yesterday a little son of Mr. James Dwyer, aged about a year and a half, came near losing his life by drowning. It appears that the little fellow had toddled a short distance from his parents' house, in the 17th Ward, and fallen into the water ditch, down which he floated a short distance till caught by the bridge, under which he partially disappeared head first. Luckily Dr. Bernhisel, who was passing that way, saw the child's heels protruding from under the bridge. The Doctor said he could not have lived many seconds longer in that position his head being submerged in the water.

AROUND AGAIN.—We were much pleased at receiving, this morning, a visit from Marshal John T. D. McAllister, who lately underwent a severe surgical operation. He is recovering very rapidly.

LOOKS THROUGH A GLASS DARKLY.—A correspondent writing from this city to the New North West, published at Deer Lodge, Ma., gives a not very glowing account of matters here. He speaks of high hotel charges, the increased price of real estate and the scarcity of money; and then relieves his feelings by the following ebullition:

"As for myself, I must say that I do not like Salt Lake. A dreary cheerlessness about the place and lack of cordiality among the people is constantly reminding one of the saying 'as pleasant as a funeral;' and, after a much more extended absence than I at first anticipated, I hope to be able to say to Montana, 'Home again.'"

Provo News.—Brother S. S. Jones, of Provo, who arrived in the city last evening, reports matters in a flourishing condition in Utah County. The people of Provo were treated to a sermon from President Young on Sunday, which they fully appreciated. It is expected that grading for the railroad will be commenced in Utah Co., as soon as the line has been surveyed, which will be shortly. Brother Charles Twelves had his leg badly fractured, by a kick from a mule, last week, but is recovering. The co-operative factory is a leading feature and is progressing finely.

FIRST WARD STORE.—We learn from Bishop Warburton of the First Ward that the co-operative store in that Ward is in a prosperous condition, stock having just been taken, and a dividend of fifteen per cent., on capital stock invested, declared for the year ending April 1, 1871.

Special Notices.

The Great Improvement in

ROOFING

ASBESTOS ROOFING

This Improved Roofing Material is entirely different from any other, and is TEN TIMES STRONGER than any other Portable or Composition Roofing in use. It is adapted for steep or flat roofs in all climates, and can be readily applied by anyone.

From Certified Report of Judges' American Institute, Exhibition of 1870:

This Improved Roofing "is strong and flexible, unaffected by the sun's heat, practically fire-proof and water-proof, and is really an article of the first order of merit."

HORACE GREELEY, President.
Signed, GEO. PEYTON, Recording Sec.,
SAM'L D. TILLMAN, Corresponding Sec.

From Report of American Institute Farmers' Club, Dec. 6, 1870:

"This material constitutes one of unusual merit, much superior to any of the class previously brought to their notice, and worthy of trial by those who desire a durable, easily applied, comparatively inexpensive and safe roofing, the material having, in addition to the other merits claimed for it, that of being practically fire-proof."

JOS. B. LYMAN, Agricultural Editor N. Y. Tribune,
