MINISTER CONGER AND FAMILY, WHO ARE BACK FROM CHINA.

The return from China of United States Minister E. H. Conger, accompanied by this wife and daughter, is being made a notable occasion by the people of Iowa. 'The preparations made for his public reception at the capitol in Des' Moines are elaborate. Minister Conger is home on a three months' leave of absence, but his return to China depends somewhat on the prospect of his becoming governor of his state. He passed through Ogden yesterday en route to his home.

Panguitch Progress: Irvin Cooke took his departure for Philadelphia last Monday morning. In losing Irvin we consider Garfield county has lost a very valuable man.

Mrs. W. B. McCausland, wife of the well-known baseball player, is recovering from the very severe attack of heart trouble which she sustained Sunday night and Monday.

Peter Osello, a native of Italy, aged 51, died at the Holy Cross hospital last evening of peritonitis. He will be evening of peritonitis. He will be burled by the Italian society, which will meet at 7:30 this evening. Joseph Price died at his home, 341 Sherman street, yesterday afternoon, from an aggravated attack of the grip. Mr. Price came to Utah from Ohio, his native state, in 1891. He leaves six children, who are J. T. Price and R. C. Price of Marysvale, Thomas D. of Pocatello, and Miss Anna C. V Walter L, and Arthur S. Price of Salt Lake. P. V. Bonovitz, an engineer employed n the quarries of G. R. Potter near Scofield, and who was badly crushed Sunday afternooon while arranging to lower a boiler, is getting on as nicely as could be expected under the circum-stances. He is at the Holy Cross hos-pital and while his injuries are serious, it is not thought they will prove fatal. When Councilmen Robertson and Cottrell met Land and Water Commissioner Westerfield in his office to go over the plats of city realty which it is thought could be sold to advantage, it was discovered that the plats were in-complete. A delay of probably weeks will therefore be occasioned to give the city engineer time to prepare up-to-date maps of the city's holdings.

At a special meeting of the State board of education yesterday afternoon the effect of the changes made in the ol laws by the Legislature was considered. State Superintendent Nelson and Professor Cooper were appointed a committee to draft new rules for distribution to county superintendents in pamphlet form. Messra, Nelson, Kingsbury, Cooper and Marks were present at the meeting.

Louis Shoenger, a resident of Murray, met with a severe accident while driv-ing into the city last evening. Shoen-For was in a buggy, and there wer friends in a wagon just behind The latter took a notion to pass and in doing so the buggy was capilized and Shoenger was thrown into the street. His right arm was dislocat-ed at the elbow, and was replaced by Witcher. He will be all right again in a few days.

John B. Pabst, an aged man of 74 ars, was yesterday afternoon adjudged insane by Judge (pro tem) John James. He was examined by Drs. Mayo and J. A. Giesy. He has been an inmate of J. A. Gresy. He has been an inimate of the county infirmary and was weak minded when sent there several months ago. Steward A. F. Kendall testified that Pabet was of weak mind though not dangerous, and the testimony of Mrs. A. C. Heinbach, Pabst's stepdaughter, was to the same effect. Sheriff Naylor took Pabst to Provo at 5 o'clock tonight.
