

FAIR WEATHER HELPS BUSINESS.

Accordingly the Stimulus of Spring is Being Imparted To Local Trade.

BIG CLEARINGS AND DEPOSITS

Decided Activity Begins in the Dry Goods Houses—Light Fabrics Are Being Called For.

The business of the week shows an increasing activity owing to the return of fair weather with its clear skies, and the drying up of the roads to a thicker consistency. The weather office looks for very fair weather for some days, and the sunshine suggests that spring is not far off, though the robins, those harbingers of the spring-tide, have not yet appeared. The local money market continues comparatively quiet, the only features of any note being considerable of an increase in loans made for investment in live stock, business and building enterprises. This would indicate that considerable building is seriously contemplated early in the season. The increase in the bank clearings continues a constant quantity, and the measure of the same is the measure of Salt Lake's increase in banking transactions. The size of the bank deposits also show no decrease, and bankers remark the local money situation is as usual in a healthy condition. What might be called a feature in local banking, is the absence of dealings in commercial paper. Every once in a while some eastern bank endeavors to unload a lot on this market, but the offer is always declined with thanks. Salt Lake banks do not seem to care for that class of paper.

WITH DRY GOODS HOUSES.

The dry goods market is waking up, and sales of light summer goods are increasing. The patterns are, as a general thing unusually pretty, noticeably the partially-silk goods containing figured lines in Egyptian cotton between lines of silk and with flower designs in colors scattered over the fabric. The light summer goods are also in demand. Considerable hostility is being received from Germany, and in all lines there seems to be a healthy trade. The wholesalers and jobbers are all sold out of spring and summer stock, and are a little on the anxious seat as to the delay in receipts of samples of fall goods with which to equip their traveling men; and there are fears that goods for next fall will be hard to get within the desired time. It is a little too early for military to make much of a show, but towards the last of the month there will be something doing in this line.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

Clothing merchants are rushing off the last of their winter stocks; and one large firm pointed today to a rapidly dwindling pile on one table as all they had left. But little is doing as yet in spring suits or suitings, but there is something of a sale of light spring overcoats.

HARDWARE AND LUMBER.

The hardware men report a quiet week, but with promising prospects for the future. However, there is a fairly steady sale reported for the week. The agricultural implement dealers say farmers are coming in to buy plows and harrows, now that the weather is clearing up, preparatory to active spring operations.

The lumbermen report the top notch of the market reached as to prices. There was opposition to the last advance of $2, as it was thought $1 would suffice, at the last lumber convention. But the majority held that the market would stand another dollar, and so it went. That there is a marvelous demand for lumber is illustrated by the fact that orders for 300,000,000 feet of railway cars alone have been placed with the western mills since Jan. 1, and this the Pullman company calls for 60,000,000. The extension of the transcontinental roads westward is calling for enormous timber supplies. The mills are not disposed to raise prices further, as it is feared such a step

HE VISITED SOME PATIENTS

Chattanooga (Tenn.) Daily News.

A representative of the News has just returned after a very successful visit to California.

Concerning the printed reports that the long-sought cure for Bright's Disease had been discovered in San Francisco he took special pains to find out the truth of the matter. He saw several personally who had recovered, and so much documentary evidence that he comes back fully convinced that the disease is not only curable, but that a large majority of all cases recover. If he hadn't seen the parties themselves, the stories they told him would have sounded like a yellow back novel; they seemed so impossible.

One lady, the wife of a San Francisco editor, not only told him of her husband's remarkable recovery after physicians had given him up, but she related off as of no moment the names of several they told of it who had recovered. One case was particularly interesting. It was a case of Bright's Disease in which the young man was so impressed that nothing could be done that he had to be tricked into taking the new specific. Each time a dose was administered, a tablespoonful of his old medicine was secretly disposed of, thus lowering the bottle that stood on the table at the head of the bed and allaying suspicions. To complete matters, as the young man recovered the physician became elated, thinking that he had discovered a cure for Bright's Disease. It was not until the patient was so well along toward recovery that there was no uncertainty about it that the whole plot was disclosed.

Dr. Zelle, one of San Francisco's physicians, also confirmed his own recovery and made the astonishing statement that he had given it to between forty and fifty and only knew of a few failures.

The above from the Chattanooga Daily News, refers to the discovery of Fulin's Compound, Bright's Disease and Diabetes are now curable in about 87 percent of all cases. Send for free booklet to Jno. BUILDERS AND PLASTERERS.

The contractors report a fair amount of building, with a marked impetus to be given by the erection of the new parking plant north of the city, and in general there is a good deal of construction in progress about the city. The plastering is all done on the First Methodist church, and the interior of the First Presbyterian church is practically completed barring the seats and windows. The old First Presbyterian church has been remodeled and is ready now for business purposes. Rapid progress is being made on the Metropolitan, and the Salisbury and other business structures under way.

THE REAL ESTATE SITUATION.

The real estate market has been fair, and dealers are hopeful. Quite a little business has been done in medium priced properties, but considerable interest is taken on the west side on account of the railroads.

MEETING OF EXPERTS.

Irrigation Work in Utah and Future Plans Were Discussed.

There was a meeting yesterday afternoon, at the Kenyon hotel, between Prof. Yoder and McLaughlin of the Agricultural college at Logan, and Prof. Elwood Mead, the government irrigation expert who stopped over for a few hours en route east from the University of California, where he has been lecturing. The work accomplished last year in Utah and plans for the coming season were discussed. An important desideratum desired by the department at Washington in this irrigation work, particularly in the arid land states, is the determination of how to secure the most extended results from soils the least watered, as well as profitable draining of swamp lands in the southern parts of the state caused by canal seepage. The accumulation of alkali in this latter connection is also a problem by itself which calls for attention.

TRADE SHOWS IRREGULARITY.

Not More Than to be Expected. While Collections Are Very Prompt.

STRIKES ARE NOT IMPORTANT.

Trouble in Coal Field Results in Unusually Large Demand for Fuel.

New York, March 9.—Dun's Review of Trade tomorrow will say:

Some irregularity is noted in trade reports for the past week, but not more than is reasonable, and mercantile collections are generally prompt. The few minor strikes do not seriously interfere with progress, and thus far the only noticeable effect of the coal controversy is the unusually large demand for this season of the year in all fuel markets and the disposition of small merchants in the immediate vicinity of the anthracite mines to allow stocks to become depleted. Prices of commodities rose slightly during February, Dun's Index number being 104.204 on March 1, against 104.011 a month ago, and 101.939 a year ago. Railway earnings continue to make striking comparisons with last year's figures, the increase during February amounting to 24.3 per cent. Foreign commerce at this port for the last week showed an increase in exports of $26,315 over the same week last year, while imports decreased $71,655. Seasonable conditions continue to prevail in the market for poor quality of offerings attracting little attention, as prices rule fairly steady.

Failures this week number 221 against 244 last year, and in Canada 24, compared with 25 a year ago.

Three little rules we all should keep. To make life happy and bright. Smile in the morning, smile at noon. Take Rocky Mountain Tea at night. Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept., 112-114 Main street.

INSURANCE HEARING WAS A DISAPPOINTMENT.

Albany, N. Y., March 9.—The joint special insurance legislative investigation committee today listened to statements of insurance presidents, actuaries and agents against some of the most far-reaching provisions of the bills amending the state insurance law and embodying the recommendations of that committee as the result of its investigation of the condition of the life insurance business in this state. The hearing was a disappointment to those who had expected either a bitter onslaught upon the bills or an occasion of sensational utterances. With few exceptions the speeches were of a technical character.

An interesting feature of the hearing was the presence of the three new presidents of the "big three" life companies of New York—Paul Morton, head of the Equitable; Alexander E. Orr, president of the New York Life, and Charles A. Peabody, president of the Mutual Life. All three spoke briefly, President Morton filing a written communication, one of the principal subjects of which was the proposed restrictions upon the investments of life insurance companies.

All agreed in the assertion that the adoption of the main proposed restrictions upon business investments, commissions and cost of new and renewed business would work great damage to the companies and probably drive many foreign companies out of the state.

There was little reference to the more sensational disclosures of the insurance investigation and no opposition to the recommendations designed to stop and prevent corrupt practices, campaign contributions and the like. The hearing was adjourned until next Tuesday.
